Wives To Be Entertained By Women's Auxillary

The Women's Auxillary of North Carolina Memorial Hospital will entertain members of the Sir Walter Cabinet, composed of wives of the State legislators and State officials Tuesday at the Hospital.

The Sir Walter Cabinet has a membership of 165.

Preliminary plans for the event were made by Mrs. W. W. Pierson, auxiliary president, and Mrs. W. R. Berryhill, chairman of the Public Relations Committee.

The program will begin at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning with a general meeting of the auxiliary in the auditorium of the Hospital when President Gordon Gray of the Consolidated University will speak.

Reports, to acquaint the visitors with the work of the auxiliary, will be made by Mrs. W. B. Abernethy, chairman of the Volunteer Services Committee; Mrs. Louis MacMillan, chairman of the Hospitality Shop; Mrs. J. C. Lyons, in charge of Information Desk and Miss Cornelia Love, chairman of the Library Committee.

There will be a coffee hour for the group in the lounge of the Nurses' Home at noon and afterward the visitors will be taken on a tour of the Hospital with Auxiliary members serving as guides.

MRS. NASH TO SPEAK
"Courtship for Moderns" will be Mrs. Arnold Nash's topic Sunday night when she speaks at the Hillier House.

Mrs. Nash, a native of England, is the wife of UNC Religion professor Dr. Arnold S. Nash. She was delegate to the White House Conference on Family Life and to the British Marriage Guidance Conference. In 1953 and 1954 she will accompany her husband to India where, under the auspices of the Harvard-Yenching Foundation, she will lecture on "Marriage Counseling Techniques".
