

Fighting Cagers Finally Strike Out 'Mighty Case'

Vayda's Basket With Seconds Left In Game Good For Victory

By Biff Roberts

WILLIAM NEAL REYNOLDS COLISEUM, Raleigh, Jan. 24—There was no joy in Raleigh tonight—Mighty Case finally struck out. Carolina's Tar Heels, shackled by 15 straight defeats by Everett Case and North Carolina State Wolfpack, quenched a seven year drought here tonight, outfighting, outplaying and out scoring the Pack, 70-69, to win their eleventh Southern Conference victory of the season.

Decided underdogs before the game, the Tar Heels got off to an early start, held a slight lead throughout the third and fourth periods, and then dropped State to its third loss of the season when Jerry Vayda scored with only 24 seconds remaining in the game.

The Wolfpack had a chance to go ahead after Vayda's last basket, but they missed with only 15 seconds to go. Al Lifson got the rebound, brought it upcourt and passed to Gene Glancey who was fouled by Bill Kukoy. Glancey missed both free throws, but Lifson got the ball and the game ended with it in his hands.

The Tar Heels took an early lead, moving out front 8-1 in the opening minutes, and stayed ahead until midway in the fourth quarter.

Then, with four minutes to go, Bobby Speight put the 'Pack in the lead 63-62. Eddie Morris added one more point on a free throw.

But then Bud Maddie tied it back up with two free throws, 64-64. From there on it was almost point for point. The closest State could come to victory came when Mel Thompson hit on three free throws for a 67-64 State lead.

Carolina newcomer, Tony Radovich hit on two free throws and pulled the Tar Heels back in favor of State 69-68. But then came Vayda's push from the side to make it 70-69. That was it.

For the Tar Heels, victory brought a firm hold on the southern Conference lead. They now have an 11-1 record in the Conference. The loss was State's second in the family and temporarily dropped the 'Pack from the race for first place.

It was only the second Conference loss for State in Raleigh since Case came here seven years ago. It was definitely a pro-State crowd here but there were times during the night when cries of "Beat State" threatened to drown out the cheers for "Go State."

Lifson was the high Carolina man tonight, pacing the Carolina scoring with 19 points. Vayda hit for 18 and Maddie for 12.

Dave Gotkin was the only thing that kept State in the game during the early part of the battle and he ended up with 20 points to tie Speight for scoring honors.

Slim Paul Likins, Carolina's 6-9 center, was the rebounding master for the Tar Heels, taking 17 off the boards, before fouling out midway in the fourth quarter. For the Carolina team it was a great victory.

Double Fault

The prices for the professional tennis matches to be played in Chapel Hill on February 23, as quoted in the Tar Heel yesterday were incorrect.

There are approximately 1500 student and general admission tickets on sale with the student tickets selling for $1.25, instead of the $1.50 stated yesterday. General admission tickets are $1.75 as quoted. Reserved seats will sell for $2.50.

JV's Trounced 113-71 By Big State Frosh

RALEIGH, Jan. 24—(Special)—Ronnie Shavlik, N. C. State's 6 foot seven inch center from Denver, Colo., scored 35 points against Carolina's J.V.'s here tonight as the State J.V.'s, trounced the Tar Heels 113 to 71.

Carolina's own Gene McCabe hit for 29 points but it wasn't near enough to keep his team in the ball game.

State took an overwhelming lead from the start, leading 25 to 15 at the first quarter, and romped home from there.

Coach Buck Freeman substituted freely throughout the game but his Tar Babies were unable to close the gap. The halftime score was 49-36 in State's favor.

State's big quarter came in the fourth period when the Wolflets threw in 33 points against the Tar Heels.

State's Vic Molodet was second high tonight, hitting for 30 points while Bill Bell found the range for 26. Runner-up for Carolina was Tommy Shores with 11 points.

The Wolflets, using a free-running game were charged with 32 fouls but the Tar Babies could connect on only 15 of those free tosses.

State, on the other hand, went to the free throw line 46 times and connected on 31, more than enough to make the difference.

Shavlik hit 14 field goals and 7 free throws for his top effort, while Molodet hit on 11 goals and 8 free throws for his 30 points. McCabe also had 14 filed goals but could get only one free throw.

It was 80 of 56 at the end of the third quarter but the Wolflets ran away with it in the final quarter, getting 33 while limiting the Tar Heels to 13. Gene Nielson, Carolina guard, played a good floor game and contributed 8 points.

Barclay Is Named Head Coach Here

The long awaited announcement of George Barclay's appointment as head coach of the Carolina football team was finally made Friday afternoon by the University.

Barclay's salary was not announced, but the unofficial estimate is $10,000, a one-thousand dollar increase over his salary as assistant to Carl Snavely last year. Barclay received a three-year contract.

C. P. Erickson, director of athletics, and Chancellor of the University R. B. House also announced that Marvin Bass had been given a three-year contract as line coach, upon the recommendation of Barclay. Bass is a former Carolina assistant coach and recently resigned as line coach of the Washington Redskins professional football team.

Gordon Gray, president of the University, polled members of the trustee's Executive Committee Thursday night, and they approved Barclay's appointment.

Barclay said he would appoint a backfield coach, an end coach, and a freshman coach, subject to approval of University officials.

Barclay succeeds Carl Snavely, who was his coach in 1934 when the former guard was an All-American for the Tar Heels. Snavely resigned under pressure on December 2, and speculation as to his successor ran high for over a month before Barclay's appointment became obvious last week.

Barclay left his position as head coach at Washington and Lee University to come to Carolina and help Snavely install the split-T last spring. He began coaching at VMI in 1936, then moved to Carolina as frosh coach. He went to Oberlin College for a year, and followed that with two years on the Dartmouth staff.

While in the Navy he coached at Georgia Pre-Flight under Rex Enright, Don Faurot, and Jim Tatum. After his discharge he returned to Dartmouth for a year, then moved to Maryland for two years under Tatum. He spent the last three years as head coach of Washington and Lee.

Carolina Jayvee Mermen Win Second Swim Meet

Coach Dick Jamerson's freshman swimming team notched their second win of the season in as many starts as they took an easy 51-22 victory over Greensboro High yesterday afternoon in Bowman Gray pool.

The "Baby Dolphins" placed first in all but two events, the 150-yard individual medley and the 200-yd. relay. The freshmen swimmers also won second place in most of the events.

In the diving event, Carolina's John Hussey turned in a very good performance as he rolled up 197 points against his opponents 114.

The closest contest was the 200-yd. relay event, where Carolina's anchor man, Perry, came within two yards of overtaking his opponent in the final fifty-yard lap.

Freshman swimmers representing V. P. I. also took part in the event, but were in competition against Carolina only. Carolina also won their meet over them, the score being 48-26.

The summaries are as follows: 50 freestyle—Eldridge (C) Danenbaum (C) Atwater (G) Time—25.5.

100 backstroke—Difffenbach (C) Harden (C) Coberlin (G) 1:06.2.

200 freestyle—Parks (C) Holmes (C) 2:14.2.

100 breaststroke—McAllister (C) Woltz (C) Tunstall (G) 1:07.5.

100 freestyle—Baker (C) Shipman (G) Davis (C) 56.8.

Diving—Hussey (C) Carson (G). 150-yd. individual medley—Colson (G) Tice (C) 1:57.2.

150-yd. medley relay — Cook, Boyd, Owen (C) 1:38.8.

200-yd. relay — Greensboro — 1st 1:55.3.

Swimmers Set SC Dual Meet Record In 400 Yard Relay

Carolina's unbeatable swimming team came through again with another record while they were defeating the Gobblers from Virginia Tech by a score of 54-30. It was the fifth win of the season for the Tar Heels and extends their overall mark to thirty-one consecutive dual meets.

The best performances of the meet came in the last event, the 400 yard freestyle relay. In this event, Buddy Heins, Buddy Barckie, Donnie Evans, and Jack Edwards teamed together to set a new Southern Conference dual meet record and also a new University record. Their time was 3:28.6. This cut 5.3 seconds from the old SC standard. Each one of the four swimmers individually bettered the conference record for the 100 yard dash, but of course this cannot be official because it was done in a relay. Sophomore Jack Edwards turned in the best time with a 51.8.

The overall time for the relay is the best time turned in this year by any team in the country.

Buddy Heins tied the Conference dual meet record when he did a 23.4 in the 50 yard dash. The record was set by Rick Levy of UNC last year.

Joe Kelso performed well on the low board and won handily. Tommy Gill and Charlie Wolf placed first and second in the 440 yard freestyle race. Warren Heeman and Smith Jewell took honors in the 200 yard backstroke. One of the closest races of the day came in the 200 yard breaststroke when Stan Tinkham of UNC was touched out by Jones of Va. Tech. Barry (See SWIM, page 4)
