Maddie High In 91-80 Win; Tar Heels Take 15th Contest

CLEMSON, S. S., Jan. 31 (Special)—Carolina's high riding Tar Heels played steady basketball to overcome a hot Clemson team here tonight, 91-80, and extend its Southern Conference victory string to 13-1.

Despite amazing accuracy from the floor that gave the Tigers a better-than-50 per cent first half shooting average, Clemson couldn't hold on to an early lead and Carolina closed fast at the half to command a 45-53 margin.

The Tigers took the opening tip-off, scored, and ran up a quick lead, but the Tar Heels stuck with them and were behind only two points, 21-19, at the end of the first quarter. With less than a minute left in the half Carolina poured in two quick baskets and went ahead for the first time in the game.

Carolina's Bud Maddie took scoring honors, making six field goals and nine free throws for 21 points before fouling out late in the fourth period. Tar Heel forward Al Lifson followed with 20, and Clemson's McCullough was high for the losers with 19.

The Tar Heels played consistently throughout the game and made 29 of 71 field goal attempts for a 40 per cent average.

Clemson's first half surge was largely because of guard Murray's eight field goals and one foul shot, 17-point first half total. Tar Heel Vince Grimaldi did an excellent job of guarding Murray in the second half and held him scoreless to relieve Carolina of the pressure.

Rifle Team Places Sixth In Tourney

Carolina's crack Naval ROTC rifle team finished sixth among 78 teams from 52 schools competing for the 1953 William Randolph Hearst Trophy, it was learned here this week.

The Carolina team compiled a team score of 919 out of a possible 1000 points, just 11 points behind the first place team representing the NROTC unit of UCLA. Others finishing ahead of UNC were Oregon State College, 929; University of Illinois, 928; University of Washington, 922; and the University of Pennsylvania, 920.

The Officer-in-Charge of the UNC team is Major Frank C. Caldwell, USMC, and the team is coached by T-Sgt. John A. Quinn, USMC. The five-man team is composed of Donald Lee Harley, Haddonfield, N. J.; Joseph F. Rosenberg, Troy, Ala.; John P. Jackson, Barnesville, Va.; Elton A. Abernethy, Jr., Blowing Rock; Raymond L. White, Columbus, Ga.

The Carolina team is now preparing for the important final leg of the Southern Conference ROTC Rifle Tournament of North Carolina which is to be fired at Davidson College on Saturday, Feb. 7. The UNC NROTC shooters are in second place in that competition and hoping to upset the AF ROTC team from N. C. State College which is now leading by 27 points.

'Greatest In Southern History' Says Coach Casey Of NC Swimmers

By Julian W. Scheer
 Coach Ralph Casey doesn't mind putting the whammy on his Carolina swimming team. "It's the greatest in Southern swimming history, the University's finest, and if we get beat, it'll be an upset," he says with unusual, news-making candor.

There is little chance of such an upset this season. The Tar Heels face a powerful Florida team here next Saturday in Bowman Gray Pool and will be favored to take victory number seven for the season. Already Duke, V.M.I., Bainbridge Navy, Georgia Tech, Davidson and Virginia Tech have lost challenges to the Tar Heels.

A quintet of seniors form the nucleus of the splendid Tar Heels. Backstroke Buddy Baarcke, breaststroker Barry Wall, sprinters Stan Tinkham and Buddy Heins, and all-around ace Donnie Evans have been the big guns in the Tar Heels' attack.

 for the Tar Heels has been the success of the Big Five nonomous with the team's. Ac freshmen the group was undefeated in eight meets, as sophomores they helped win twelve in a row and as juniors they added another twelve. Put those victories with the six in 1952-53 and the Tar Heels' aces haven't

Wrestlers Cop Second Victory, 20-8

CHARLESTON, S. C. Jan. 31 (Special)—The Carolina wrestling team evened its record at two wins and two losses here Thursday night by pinning The Citadel, 20-8, in a Southern Conference match.

The Tar Heels won six of the eight matches with Captain Ed Haines gaining the most Carolina points on a pin of Joe Abeynious in the 137-pound class.

The summary:
 123—Harry Pawlik (UNC) dethroned Fred Scheneckel, 8-0.
 130—Bill Barnes (C) dethroned Gordon Forrester, 3-0.
 137—Ed Haines (UNC) pinned Joe Abeynious.
 147—Guy Blakely (C) pinned Austin Stevens.
 157—Tom Stokes (UNC) dethroned Ray Rich, 12-8.
 167—Harvey Bradshaw (UNC) dethroned Ernie Jantzen, 11-7.
 17—Miles Gregory (UNC) dethroned Bill Williams, 7-2.
 unlimited—Andy Holt (UNC) dethroned Jack Cantrell, 8-4.

lost in 38 straight meets. There are other big helpers in the cause, including Jack Edwards, Joe Kelso, Larry Shannon, Warren Heeman, Smith Jewell. However, the Big Five has furnished 80 per cent of the Tar Heels' victory power.

Casey says that the current Tar Heel team is better than the 1949 team he coached which boasted such stars as Jimmy Thomas, Norm Sper, and Dick Twining. The '49 team lost a close meet to Ohio State, the National Champions, and finished high in the NCAA meet itself. The '52-53 team is stronger down the line, ranks among the top five intercollegiate aggregations in the nation along with Yale, Ohio State, Michigan and Stanford.

The team holds or has bettered every Southern Conference record in the books except the 220 and 440-yard freestyle events and Jimmy Thomas' 200-yard backstroke record.

The Big Five's accomplishments run something like this: Donnie Evans of Charlotte—200 breaststroke time better than conference mark; individual medley time faster than conference record; formerly held conference 440 freestyle mark; competed in Olympic trials last summer; member freestyle relay team which holds the conference record; co-captain of team.

FRED SAIGH, owner of the St. Louis Cardinals, whirls back into the United States Marshall's office as he sees a battery of press photographers waiting for him in the corridor after it was announced that he had been sentenced to serve 15 months in prison and fined $15,000 on tax-evasion charges.—NEA Telephoto.

Buddy Baarcke of Birmingham, Ala.—member both the crack freestyle and medley teams; conference 7100 and 200 backstroke champion; has won several races in big meets, including a victory in the famed Georgia Peach meet last summer.

Barry Wall of Washington, D. C.—member 150 medley team with Thomas and Heins which holds American record; UNC medley relay team; conference breaststroke champion.

Stan Tinkham, Washington, D. C.—member conference championship freestyle and medley relay teams; veteran freestyler; co-captain of team.

Buddy Heins of Sanford—co-holder conference 50 freestyle record; member freestyle relay team which holds conference record; member medley relay team which holds American record.

Good Chance
 The Tar Heels have a good chance in NCAA competition this season with the freestyle relay team of Edwards, Heins, Baarcke and Evans, the medley relay team of Baarcke, Wall and Edwards, Evans in the breaststroke and individual medley, Heins in the sprints with Edwards, Baarcke in the backstroke and Kelso in the high board diving.

Tar Heels Take All First Places In Drubbing Davidson, 55-30

DAVIDSON, Jan. 31—The Carolina swimming team established two Southern Conference dual meet records and took every first place here today as they defeated the Davidson Wildcats, 55-30. Coach Ralph Casey entered but on Tar Heel in each event, and every Carolina man took top honors.

The most notable performance of the meet was turned in by cocaptain Donnie Evans as he swam the 200-yard breaststroke in 2:22.5. This established a new SC dual meet record, a new University record, and a new pool record at Davidson. Evans set the previous University record a month ago at Bainbridge. Jack Edwards swam the 100 yard freestyle in 52.4 seconds to establish a new SC dual meet record and a new pool record.

The other three records were pool records. Larry Shannon swam the 440 yard freestyle in 5:03.7. This is Shannon's best performance this year.

Warren Heeman got in on the record breaking when he swam the 150 individual medley in 1:38.6. Heeman usually swims the backstroke event.

Buddy Heins missed tying his SC dual meet record in the 50 yard dash by one-tenth of a second but he still established a new pool mark at 23.5 seconds.

Gill Kelso, and Linker also turned in good performances in winning the other individual events. The Tar Heels will swim the University of Florida on Saturday, February 7 in the Bowman-Gray pool. Florida is rated as the best team in the Southeastern Conference, so it should be the closest meet for the Tar Heels this year.

Lifson Leads Cagers' Win At Davidson

Carolina's Tar Heels remained in first place in the Southern Conference by defeating a puncheon Davidson squad, 73-52, Friday night in Davidson.

Forward A Lifson was the game's high scorer with 16 points, followed by Davidson's captain, Joe Dudley, with 14.

Carolina didn't allow the Wildcats a field goal in the first period, and commanded a 24-6 lead in the second. Davidson held the score down by playing control basketball and slowing the fast-breaking Tar Heels. Davidson hit only 11 per cent of its field goal attempts.
