been made from approximately 350 institutions in the United States and Canada. Nearly 1,000 of the nominees have declared themselves candidates for the fellowships.

The 12 regional selection committees, headquartered in conveniently located university centers, will personally interview the more promising candidates. The credentials of those successful at the regional level will be forwarded to the national committee for final selection, with the public announcement of the awards being made by the national program director, prof. Smith, in early April.

Members of Region VI are Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, North and South Carolina and Tennessee. The committee is composed of Dean Arnold K. King, University of North Carolina, chairman, and Profs. Richard L. Predmore and Avery Leiserson of Duke and Vanderbilt Universities respectively.

IN YOUR CHURCH

By Tom Neal Jr.

Baptist
Emily Barrow, former UNC student, will have charge of the program tonight at BSU supper forum. Mrs. Barrow will speak on "Classification of the Books of the Bible, According to Literary Form." A short discussion will follow the talk, which is second in a series of student-led programs on the origin of the Bible.

An interdenominational devotional service for students is held Monday-Friday at 1 p.m. in Gerard Hall. Sponsored by the BSU, this 10-minute period of meditation is led by students; it offers spiritual refreshment in the middle of a busy day.

Christian Science
"Love" is the topic of the lesson-lesson in Christian Science churches throughout the world today. The local organization meets every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock in New West.

Golden text is from Jerimiah: "Let him that glorieth glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth."

Lesson-sermons read at Christian Science services include citations from the Holy Bible and from Science and Health, the denominational textbook.

Congregational-Christian
The United Student Fellowship discussion is at 10 o'clock this morning. The sermon at 11 a.m. is entitled "The Acid Test."

The USF members will be served a Chinese supper at 6 p.m. today in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Jackson, former missionaries to China. Students will be oriented in the use of chopsticks at that time. Following the supper hour, a discussion will be led by Martha Shaeffer and Eberhard Kingegar, German students at the University.

Roman Catholic
The regular supper meeting of the Newman Club is scheduled for Wednesday at 6 p.m., at Lenoir Hall. The speaker in the current series on "Catholic Courtship and Marriage" is Dr. Hugh Taylor.

Lutheran
The Rev. E. C. Cooper, Ph.D., pastor of the Chapel Hill Lutheran Church, and pastor to Lutheran students at the University, will offer a "Teaching-Preaching Mission" this morning at the regular 11 o'clock service. St. John's Gospel will serve as the basis of the study. Episodes in the public ministry of Jesus, from His first official act of 'cleansing the temple' until His final entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday when He was hailed King of the Jews, will be considered in sequence. The program will continue over the period of nine Sundays, from now until Easter.

Dr. Cooper is a graduate of Roanoke College, Salem, Va. He has his master's degree from Princeton. His undergraduate training for the ministry was received at Mt. Airy Lutheran Seminary, Philadelphia. His graduate work was done in residence at Mt. Airy Seminary and at Harvard (Conn.) Seminary. He obtained his Ph.D. at Hartford.

In active ministry, Dr. Cooper has served pastorates in Lynchburg, Va., Philadelphia, Pa., Albemarle and Shelby. He was Field Missionary in Western North Carolina for five years. He served as first full-time Chaplain in the N. C. State Prison system with headquarters at Central Prison, Raleigh, with oversight of religious services over the state. From 1939-1945 Dr. Cooper was president of the Lutheran Theological Seminary, Columbia, S. C.

The new Lutheran Church was erected under Dr. Cooper's leadership.

Unitarian
"Freedom in the Modern World" will be the topic of the Unitarian Fellowship's meeting tonight with Dr. L. O. Kattsoff of the Department of Philosophy as speaker. The meeting will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the YWCA lounge.

musical, "Spring for Sure." In the interest of clarity, Dr. Mason uses the run-on syllable system developed by Fred Waring, which has proved to be most effective, is a little hard on the singers who have somehow become accustomed to singing words instead of syllables.

The combined efforts of cast, costumers, set and lighting designers, all under the direction of William M. Hardy of the Playmakers Staff, promise to make this production of "Princess Ida" a highlight of the Chapel Hill season that will provide its audiences with excellent entertainment.

Playmakers Set Tryouts

Tryouts for Berthold Brecht's drama of good and evil, "The Good Woman of Setzuan" will be held in the Playmakers Theater Tuesday, at 4 and 7:30 p.m.

In a translation by Eric Bentley, the play has been adapted by director Kai Jurgensen, assistant director for the Playmakers, to 24

Pancake Ice in the silent Alaskan sea swell

WATER FREEZING INSTANTLY on the deck of a submarine and on the tank which holds the landing craft abaft the conning tower. The scene is one of cold and quiet as the crew of the USS Perch tests the possibilities of amphibious landings by submarine in Arctic waters.

The work these men are doing is testing and research for the future protection of us and our country. We can do something toward the protection of that future, too—investing in United States Defense Bonds. For by Bonds and other forms of saving, we're building up our personal prosperity and security. And when we're financially secure, we're building up America's economic strength just as the Navy men are supporting her armed strength. You know, peace is only for the strong!

The chances are you're one of the 43,000,000 Americans who own Series E Defense Bonds. Are you one of the 7½ million who invest in them regularly through the Payroll Savings Plan? If not, why not start now? Save your money safely and systematically through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. You'll find it's one sure way to save. So join the Plan today—or invest through the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. Help make a better future for yourself and for your country by saving your money through Bonds.
