Strangest things have been happening round this place. Like last week when two Chi Phi's and two Tri Deltas sat calmly in the middle of the traffic circle in front of the Chi Phi house playing bridge with card table, chairs and lamp, as traffic whizzed by. Which was all a result of a party given by the Chi Phi's for the Tri Deltas.

And then there's the Phi Beta Kappa chapter of Alpha Tau Omega that gave a B.Y.O.B. party in the library Friday night. (B.Y.O.B. meaning "Bring Your Own Books") Everyone was invited to this little social function.

Of much big surprise to all was the marriage last weekend of Chi O Ann Mackie, Chapel Hill, to Marine Don Fitzgibbons who's stationed at LeJeune. Congratulations! Now wearing a diamond is Ann Guiton, KD of Whiteville. She'll marry Dick Coborn, a Beta from Davidson.

Chi O's will have another one of their study breaks Wednesday night after chapter meeting. All fraternities are invited.

Fraternity parties are going strong. Kappa Sigs entertained the Chi O's Tuesday night at the Hut. Beer there after dinner at the house.

Last night KA's and Pi Phi's had a spaghetti dinner at the KA house followed by party at the Country Club.

The Sigma Chi's had much big doings over last weekend. It was their annual roaring twenties Ball. Pledges gave a cocktail party and dinner before the Ball which was held at the house. They had bowery decorations, Charleston instruction and skits. Pledges and actives are reported improving steadily.

Pi Kappa Phi's will party with their Duke chapter tonight after the game.

ATO's (oh wise ones) gave the Tri Deltas a real fine party at the Country Club Tuesday.

And then there are the Sigma Nu's who are busily entertaining Duke coeds again. Duke Pi Phi's will be given a party Tuesday.

Lambda Chi's will have a stag beer party at the house Saturday nite.

Phi Gams will entertain their sister sorority, the Kappa Alpha Theta's, from Duke next Wednesday.

KA Tom Bulla, High Point, will march down that aisle Feb. 21. Marilyn Robinette, also of High Point, will be Mrs. Bulla.

Having trouble selecting a fire escape to suit your house? You might speak to the SAE's—they have something new in the way of a "pulverized" fire escape.

Carolina didn't provide enough excitement for the St. A's last weekend so they all took off for W&L and Fancy Dress weekend.

Chi Psi's seem to be losing pins right and left these days. Latest pinless one is Buddy Carrier, Charlotte, who gave his to Carolada Audrey of Durham.

Delta Sigma Pi pledges been "makin' with the music" and serenading at G.C., W.C. and High Point colleges.

More pins in the news: Chi Phi Tommy Peacock, of Tar Heel fame, pinned Tri Delt Claire Boone. Both are from Arlington, Va.

 ATO Dwight Elting, Roanoke Rapids, Va. pinned Pi Phi Pledge President Ann Fitzgerald, Princeton.

KD's had a study break this Wednesday for all fraternities after chapter meeting.

Phi Delt pledged partied Saturday night at the Plantation Club in Greensboro. But what does Dean Martin have to do with it?

Now Mr. and Mrs. are Kappa Sig Jack Cowan, Durham and student at WC.

Pinning has even hit the Phi Delta Chi house. Carl Kirby of Wilson gave his pin to Betty Sue Thomas, Charlotte, from WC.

Rumor has it that a Deke pinned a coed. Can it be? Listen in next week!

ZBT's Given Awards, Elect New Officers

Local ZBT's were named the "Chapter Showing the Greatest General Improvement During the Past Year" and the "Chapter Showing the Greatest Interest in Jewish Affairs" at the fraternity's annual national convention held in Seattle, Wash.

Newly elected officers of the organization are Fred Rosenberg, Troy, Ala., president; Allan Resnick, Miami, Fla., vice-president; Charles Katzenstein, New York City, secretary; and Jay Cohen, Atlanta, Ga., treasurer.
