Ed's note: We have with us today a guest editor. And why not? Everyone else has one. This one just wandered in. He said he would accept full responsibility. For complaints call 91001.

Last weekend was quite a weekend in that nothing, but nothing happened. Every one took the Germans in stride and acted as if everything was strictly normal, which it wasn't. As Dr. Harland would put it, Hermes was on the loose and he left evidence of his work everywhere. On the same mythological kick we could say that Dionysos was much in evidence and last summer's grapes were consumed by the joyful as one gay devotee after another entered the select circle of professional partygoers.

Continuing the pace set by the Germans the Dekes entertained Dook ADPI's with a champagne party Thursday night.

Chi Phi and Phi Delt pledges also got together Thursday night and parted.

In the "let's get cozy" department we have quite a number of folks who fell prey to the monster of marriage, pinning, engagement, and what have you.

First on the casualty list is Richard Rhodes of Raleigh who became engaged to Barbara Bullard, also of Raleigh.

At the Phi Gam house Dick Hogard was the man of the week as he gave his pin to Becky Gordon, a Saint Mary's girl from South Hill, Va.

The PiKA's had a double header when Chris Bruning, Greensboro, gave his pin to Carol Keith, Greensboro, and Matt Wood of Enfield turned his over to Peggy Perry, Enfield. Both girls made the long trip from W.C.

Phil Cree at the Delta Sig house is really serious. He's to be married this weekend to hometown girl Deens Reid in Rocky Mount.

One of the few remaining unattached Sig Chi's also bit the dust this past weekend as Skippy Roddey, Charlotte became pinned to Nancy Rose also from the Queen City.

Talk about coming from W.C.! Ted McLaughin, Phi Delt, all the way from Bremen, Germany, pinned Ann Phillips, ADPI of Franklin. Another ADPI Sandy Klostermyer accepts a diamond from Sonny Braxton, a '52 grad from Godwin. The time, found in convenient to wedding is planned for early June.

We missed this one a few weeks back... Chan Page of KA fame pinned Carolyn Chester, a hometown girl from Southern Pines now attending Dook.

There'll be more post-Germans activity at the Beta house when the boys whoop it up Saturday night with a combo and party.

The Chi O's are also brewing some sort of shindig Friday night with a dinner at the house followed by a party at the Legion Hut.

On the milder side, but no less welcome, will be the study break the Alpha Gams are giving next Wednesday for all fraternities after chapter meetings.

To celebrate or cry in their beer, the Theta Chi's are having a party after the game Saturday night.

On the same tangent the AK Psi's will also party at the house Saturday.

Back to Rosemary Street and the TEP house we find that Jack Handler, Sarasota, Florida has pinned Phyllis Fleisher, also of Sarasota.

The Lambda Chi's have finally decided to go to school, but it took a party to do it. They're having a party at the old schoolhouse on the Burlington highway Friday night.

The Phi Delt's have found a new excuse for a party. The present pledge class and last year's pledge class will battle it out in a huge beer drinking contest.
