

Track, Lacrosse Teams Announce Spring Schedules

UNC Runners Open Season Against W.-M.

Eight dual meets, the Penn Relays and the annual Southern Conference meet have been scheduled for Carolina's track team this spring.

The slate opens here March 25 when William and Mary competes against the Tar Heels on Fetzer Field. Other teams on the schedule include V.M.I., Maryland, N. C. State, Duke, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Last year the Tar Heels won four of seven dual meets. Several of last season's stars return, including Bill Walker, Roger Morris, Bob Barden, Sonny Beall, Charlie Scott, Sam Jordan, Bob Bell, Morris Osborne, Bob Webb and Tom Higgins. Billy Duke, Charlie Yarborough, Jeff Newton and Vince Murray are expected to bolster Coach Dale Ranson's team.

The schedule:
March 25—William and Mary at Chapel Hill.

April 4—Princeton University at Chapel Hill; April 11—Virginia Military Institute at Chapel Hill; April 18—Maryland at College Park, Md.; April 21—N. C. State at Chapel Hill; April 25—Penn Relays at Philadelphia.

May 2—Duke at Chapel Hill; May 6—Virginia at Charlottesville, Va.; May 9—Pennsylvania at Chapel Hill; May 15-16—Southern Conference Meet at Durham, N. C.

Stickmen Play Eight Games; Six At Home

Carolina's lacrosse team will open an eight-game schedule on Navy Field here against Williams College on April 2. It will be the first of six home matches.

The Tar Heels' offensive and defensive stars from last year return. Dick Harrall, sophomore from Towson, Md., set a new University scoring record with 28 points last season, ranking him in the top 10 nationally. Lew Floyd, a senior from University Park, Md., was the nation's number one goalie, making 210 saves in 10 contests.

Other stars from last year's team which compiled a 5-6-1 record are Walt Ernst, Tommy Stokes, Paul Hursh, Buck Barkley, Dick Pillsbury and Ted Dawes.

The schedule:
April 2—Williams College at Chapel Hill; April 4—Cornell University at Chapel Hill; April 7—Dartmouth College at Chapel Hill; April 27—Augusta Military Academy at Chapel Hill.
May 8—Washington and Lee University at Chapel Hill; May 11—Duke University at Chapel Hill; May 16—Virginia at Charlottesville, Va.; May 18—Augusta Military Academy at Fort Defiance, Va.

The doubles team of Herbie Browne and Bobby Payne, sophomores at Carolina, are defending champions in doubles in Southern Conference play. They were the first freshman team in history to cop the title when they won at Davidson last year.

Tar Heel Swimmers Given Chance Of Fourth In NCAA

The local sports scene has shifted to the outdoors here in the past few weeks, but the water is still being ruffled in Bowman Gray swimming pool these afternoons.

Coach Ralph Casey has a handful of his best Carolina swimmers working overtime for the N.C.A.A. championship meet at Ohio State University March 26-27-28 and is looking for the Tar Heels' best performance in history in this event.

The way the meet shapes up locally it ought to be a three-way scramble for fourth place with the Tar Heels, Stanford and Michigan State waging the battle. Yale, host Ohio State and Michigan have the edge on the top three spots, but Casey figures his Tar Heels may be in contention for as high a finish as fourth.

Sophomore Jack Edwards, the finest young sprinter in the school's history, Donnie Evans, Buddy Baercke, Buddy Heins, Barry Wall, Stan Tinkham and Joe Kelso have visions of cracking into big time collegiate swimming. None are figured to break into the winner's circle against the former

(Continued from page 1) and the Dutch reacted under catastrophe. "Altogether, I suppose there were about 100 who had mental crack-ups as a result, but, all in all, there was no panic. Maybe it was because there was no warning and no time to build up fears. Maybe it was characteristic of the people themselves. There was no panic during the bombings of World War II in England."

WILSON IN TEJAS

Dr. Logan Wilson, president of the University of Texas, has appointed a student-faculty committee to investigate the student wage problem there.

This is the second committee that has studied the problem. The first committee, made up of students, decided some wages should be raised. But Dr. Logan felt that problem needed further investigation, and added five faculty members to the group.

Olympic and collegiate champions representing the swimming powers, but seconds, thirds and fourths could pile up the points for the strong Tar Heels.

Edwards is slated for duty in the 100-yard freestyle, the 400 freestyle relay and the 300 medley relay. The Brookline, Mass., sophomore, not an exceptional high school swimmer and never a winner, has been the scourge of the conference this year. The lanky youngster holds the loop's dual meet, championship meet and all-time 100-yard record, his best time at :51.2 seconds.

Casey, who says he is "intelligent, strong and hard working," calls him the best sprinter the Tar Heels have ever had. In the 100 the pace may be too fast, but in the relays Casey expects him to keep up with the big boys.

"It will take a first class swimmer to beat him," Casey says, "and what more can you ask of a sophomore?"

The Tar Heels' "Mr. Clutch," Buddy Baercke, a senior from Lakeland, Fla., is a good bet in the 100-yard backstroke and will be a key man in both relays which figure to score in the top five. Baercke's performance in the Southern Conference championship meet in winning the 200 and 100 backstroke events was outstanding. He set a new 100 record in :59.2 seconds, while he has actually done :58.7 in a dual meet.

Barry Wall will swim the breaststroke leg in the 300 relay, while tough Buddy Heins will anchor the 400 relay. Kelso will compete in the diving and Evans will be in the individual medley and 200-yard breaststroke. Tinkham is slated for duty in the relays.

Evans, a senior from Charlotte, turned in the best time ever recorded in the conference in the breaststroke this season when he won the championship meet event in 2:20.9 and has done 1:32.8 in the individual medley. The versatile Tar Heel ace should score in both of his individual events and could turn in the best show of any Southerner.

It's the size of the FIGHT in the man!

That's right! In the U. S. Air Force, it's not the size of the man in the fight—it's the size of the FIGHT IN THE MAN! And Aviation Cadets must have plenty of it. For Cadet training is rugged. If you're good enough . . . tough enough . . . smart enough . . . if you can take it while you're learning to dish it out, you can have one of the most fascinating careers in the world. You'll be equipped to fly the latest, hottest planes. You'll be prepared to take your position as an executive, both in military and commercial aviation as well as in industry. And while you're helping yourself you'll be helping your country.

WIN YOUR WINGS! It takes little over a year to win your wings as a Pilot or Aircraft Observer (Navigator, Bombardier, Radar Operator or Aircraft Performance Engineer). But at the end of your training you graduate as a 2nd Lieutenant in the Air Force, with pay of $5,300.00 a year.

ARE YOU ELIGIBLE? To qualify as an Aviation Cadet, you must have completed at least two years of college. This is a minimum requirement—it's best if you stay in school and graduate. In addition, you must be between 19 and 26½ years, unmarried, and in good physical condition.

New Aviation Cadet Training Classes Begin Every Few Weeks!

HERE'S WHAT TO DO:

1. Take a transcript of your college credits and a copy of your birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station. Fill out the application they give you.
2. If application is accepted, the Air Force will give you a physical examination.
3. Next, you take a written and manual aptitude test.
4. If you pass your physical and other tests, you will be scheduled for an Aviation Cadet training class. The Selective Service Act allows you a four-month deferment while waiting class assignment.

WHERE TO GET MORE DETAILS:
Visit your nearest Air Force Base, Air Force Recruiting Officer, or your nearest Air Force ROTC unit. Or write to: Aviation Cadet, Headquarters, U. S. Air Force, Washington 25, D. C.
