

University's Golf Team Opens 1953 Schedule Against The Citadel On Finley Course Today

Carolina's Southern Conference champion golf team opens its 1953 season at Finley Golf course this afternoon at 1:30 by meeting a strong team from The Citadel.

Although last year's individual SC champion Tommy Langley, has Tryouts for the varsity and junior varsity golf teams will be held today, tomorrow, and Friday. Those who would like to qualify for either team must see pro Ed Kenney at the golf shop and then turn in cards for two 18-hole rounds.

been lost to the service, the Tar Heels still have four returning lettermen who will play this afternoon.

Bob Black, Bill Williamson, Jimmy Ferree, and Billy Thornton all will see action this afternoon. Black, Williamson, and Ferree have won letters the past two years while Thornton got his last year as a freshman.

Two new players will round out the starting six. Billy Ford, freshman from Charleston, S. C., and John Frazier, who returned to school this year after seeing service in Korea, will probably be Coach Chuck Erickson's other choices.

The Citadel last year ranked as one of the best teams in the Conference, but is somewhat weakened by the loss of Charlie Smith, who was runnerup to Langley in the tournament last spring at Winston-Salem.

This will be the Bulldog's third match of the season, however. They beat Wake Forest, 15½-11½, at Raleigh Monday afternoon.

Track Team Opens Season This Afternoon

This afternoon at 3:30 marks the opening of Carolina's outdoor track season. William and Mary College comes here for a dual track meet on Fetzer Field.

The Tar Heels, with several of their great stars of past years graduated, may be somewhat weaker than in previous years but will be favored to take the Indians. However, the Tar Heels have come along well in the past few weeks.

OPTOMETRY IN THREE YEARS, IF YOU HAVE SIXTY L. A. CREDITS

In three college years, you can prepare for the attractive profession of optometry, if you have a minimum of sixty required Liberal Arts credits.

There is a shortage of optometrists in many States. Eighty per cent of the Nation's millions depend upon the Doctor of Optometry and his professional skill in conserving vision.

The optometrist possesses the dignity of being a professional man. He renders a service essential to the health and well-being of his community. Substantial financial rewards are obtainable almost from the beginning of his practice. Optometry is specially attractive to women.

The U. S. Department of Defense and Selective Service grant optometry students the same consideration accorded medical students.

Chicago College of Optometry, nationally accredited, is located in the heart of the world's greatest center for teaching in the healing arts. It is famous for its eye clinic. A building program is in progress. Dormitory accommodations, apartments and other facilities are available on a large campus.

For catalog and other literature, address Registrar, Chicago College of Optometry, 2307 No. Clark St., Chicago 14, Ill.—Adv.
