 7. To advocate awarding of scholarships on an equal basis for athletes and others.
 8. To have student government, particularly the executive branch, cooperate "in implementing the recent joint faculty recommendations regarding the state of the University." This includes establishment of the faculty rating system, complete revision of the advisory system, improvement of dormitory counselor setup and other housing problems, necessary adjustment of faculty work load to improve quality of instruction and establishment of academic liaison with high schools.

 9. To study student courts' methods of handling cases because of "real and or apparent miscarriages of justice."

 Last time two independents ran was in Spring of 1950, and a runoff yielded a victory for John Sanders (SP).

Off To UN

About a half dozen Carolina students, all members of the campus United Nations committee, leave for New York today for a three-day UN student symposium.
Criminology Text Needed
 The Extension Division needs copies of the text book "New Horizons in Criminology" by Barnes and Teeters. Students having copies are asked to loan them for prisoner groups at Central Prison in Raleigh who are using the book as a study text.

Gloves Found

A pair of black suede gloves were found in Gerrard Hall following the SUAB film "Carnival of Flanders" shown March 11. The owner may claim the gloves at the Graham Memorial main office.

—Track—

 Heel head cross country and assistant track coach, will be heading the Tar Heels for the first time. He took over head duties from Coach R. A. (Coach Bob) Fetzer last year when Fetzer resigned as track coach and athletic director. Ransom has been with the Tar Heels for a quarter of a century and is one of the nation's best known mentors.

Opposing Ransom will be one of his finest students, Billy Joyner. The Indian coach was one of the conference's leading high jumpers a few years back and worked under Ransom and assistant Joe Hilton.

The Tar Heels will be counting on speedsters Harry Brown and Jeff Newton, hurdlers Charlie Scott and Sonny Beall, weightmen Roger Morris and Tom McAllister, distance stars Bobby Barden and Morris Osborne and middle distance aces Mac Ray and John Bennett. Bobby Bell, Bill Cornell, Charlie Yarborough, Sam Jordan, Billy Duke and Tom Higgins are also expected to give the Tar Heels points against the Tar Heels.

JAYVEE BASEBALL

There will be a meeting of the junior varsity baseball team at 3:30 this afternoon in the Emerson dressing room. All candidates are asked to be on time and any freshman who have not had an opportunity to try out for the team are invited to the meeting.

—Nurses—

 Then Rep. C. K. Bryant of Gaston said, "If this money is granted it should be on the understanding they cease trying to set standards for pay and hours worked. If they don't, we ought to take every damn thing away from them."

Dr. Cadmus said the rate of $220 a month was set for Chapel Hill after consultation with the state nurses association. He said this rate was identical with Duke and Watts at the time it began last Fall. Now the two Durham institutions have gone up to $240 and Dr. Cadmus wants to pay his nurses the same thing.

"We have rough nursing," he said. Dr. Cadmus explained "rough nursing" to mean that a hospital the size of Memorial gets "acute cases" that require more of a nurse. Stiffer work brings a higher price, and he concluded, "we are in line with nursing salaries."

UNC Baseball Team Splits Even In Four-Game Florida Series

The Carolina baseball team, rated as one of the strongest in the Southern Conference, split even in four games played in Florida over spring vacation.

The Tar Heels opened their season against Georgia Teachers last Thursday and lost, 2-1, despite the fine pitching of Chal Port. They came back to win the next day, however, handling Rollins College easily, 7-1.

After rain had postponed games Saturday and Sunday, Carolina and Rollins split in a double-header Monday afternoon, the Tar Heels bowing, 6-3, in the opener and then lacing Rollins, 11-1, in the second game. Port allowed only four hits in winning the second game.

Connie Gravitte paced the Tar Heel hitting in the final two games with Rollins.
