

Carolina Beats Harvard In Tennis Here By 12-3

Netters Win All Singles But Last One

By Vardy Buckalew
The Carolina and Harvard tennis teams switched their lineups yesterday afternoon but the end result was the same—Carolina won, this time by a score of 12-3.

All of the Carolina losses came in the lower part of the lineup as the team continued to show its superiority over the Ivy Leaguers. The top part of the lineup won all of its matches without being extended in any of them.

Yesterday's switch in lineups put Herb Browne in the number one position against Harvard's John Rauh. The match was very one-sided as Browne won easily 6-2, 7-5.

Tom Bradford, winner over Rauh in Monday's match, moved down to number two position yesterday and won over big Charlie Ufford 6-0, 6-1. Browne had defeated Ufford the day before in two close sets.

Don Thompson, outstanding freshman, swapped positions with Del Sylvia yesterday and played in the number three position. He beat Art French easily 6-0, 6-3. Sylvia played Don Bossart and won 6-1, 6-0.

Pete Green and Bob Payne rounded out the top six in the singles lineup in positions five and six respectively. Both won easily with Green taking a win over Alex Haeger 7-5, 6-3, and Payne defeating Dave Watts 6-0, 6-3.

The best tennis of the afternoon was in the first two doubles matches. Browne and Payne played as the number one combination and defeated Ufford and French in two very good sets 6-4, 8-6.

The Carolina pair got behind in the first set by three games before they could win one. Then they came back to tie up the match and finally break the Harvard service in the eighth game and go on to win.

Sylvia and Green teamed up in the second doubles position and won a hard three-set victory over Rauh and Haeger 6-1, 3-6, 6-4. Sylvia and Green won the first set easily and it looked another one-sided Carolina victory. However the Harvard team rallied and, mainly on the strength of Haeger's smashing serves, came back to make a real contest of the match.

The summaries:
Singles—Browne (UNC) defeated Rauh (H), 6-2, 7-5; Bradford (UNC) defeated Ufford (H), 6-0, 6-1; Thompson (UNC) defeated French (H), 6-0, 6-3; Sylvia (UNC) defeated Bossart (H), 6-1, 6-0; (See TENNIS, page 4)

UNC Tankmen Place Fifth In NCAA Meet

The Carolina swimming team put the finishing touches on a very successful season by placing fifth in the National Collegiate swimming meet at Ohio State this past weekend. This is the best showing ever made by a Southern team in the Nationals.

The Tar Heels gathered fourteen points which placed them behind Yale, Ohio State, Michigan, and Stanford in the team standings. Michigan State tied Carolina for fifth.

The best individual performance for the home team was turned in by co-captain Donnie Evans in the 150 yard individual medley. Evans' time of 1:33.6 was good enough to place him third in the event.

The Tar Heels picked up eight points by placing third in the freestyle relay. Swimming for the team were Evans, Buddy Baercke, Stan Tinkham, and Jack Edwards. Their time was a respectable 3:31.6.

Sophomore Warren Heeman surprised everyone by placing sixth in the 200 yard backstroke. Heeman beat Tommy Runlap, N. C. State's highly rated backstroke, in the preliminaries. His time in qualifying was 2:15.3.

Buddy Baercke placed sixth in the 100 yard backstroke. The official timers gave fourth place to Baercke but the finish judges gave him sixth. His time was :59.6.

In the medley relay the Carolina team turned in the fifth fastest time in the qualifying rounds but they did not qualify because they were third in their heat. On the first leg of the qualifying round, Baercke held his own with Ohio State's Oyakawa who won two individual events in the meet.

State, Jim Breder of Illinois, Bob Rousey of Kansas State, and Norm Swanson of Detroit.

Lacrosse Team Opens Season Here Tomorrow

The Tar Heel Lacrosse team has been grinding into shape for the past few weeks, pointing for its opening game of the 1953 season tomorrow with Williams, here. The Heels face another tough northern foe on Saturday when Cornell invades Chapel Hill.

These first two games of the season should give Coach Al Moore a good idea how his team will stack up with the best opposition. Carolina has never beaten a northern club.

Returning from last year's squad, which ran up a record of five wins, six losses, and one tie, are veteran attackers Ted Dawes, Dick Harrall, Dick Pillsbury (all lettermen), and Joe Walker. Co-Captain Walt Ernst should give reliable strength at the mid-field positions as should lettermen Buck Barkley, Bob Linker, Lou Wolfsheimer, newcomers Dick Baker, and Toby Haynsworth, and returnee Joe Burrell.

A tight race is being staged for the starting defense positions. Lettermen Tom Stokes, Earle Johnson, Mike Davis, and Charlie Friedman are being pushed for their spots by newcomers Jim Winston, Jere DuBose, and Steve Trimble.

Doug Styron, who played freshman Lacrosse in '50 and is returning to the team this year, is expected to provide extra strength and depth in this position.

Co-Captain Lew Floyd, honorable mention All-American last year, is returning to claim his goalie position. Art Einstein and freshman Tom Spain will fill in as reserves.

A tough 11-game schedule, including the National Champion University of Virginia Cavaliers, and always strong Washington and

Women Students Should Make Room Reservations

Room reservations for women students are now being taken for both summer school terms and the fall term.

Women students' rooms will be held for them until April 14. If by that time they have not made room reservations, their rooms will be assigned to incoming students.

A $6 room deposit for each term must be made and a room reservation card must be filed. Women students should see bulletin boards in their dormitories for procedure for making deposits and filing application cards.

Lee and Dartmouth face Coach Moore's squad. The Tar Heels make their first northern trip since Lacrosse was installed in the athletic program here, when they travel to the University of Massachusetts April 13, and 14, and to Amherst on April 16.

Junior Varsity Golfers Take First Match Of Year At Finley

Carolina's junior varsity golf team had to count on its final foursome to beat Myers Park High School at Finley golf course Saturday as Phil Kreis and Eric Jonas came through with 8½ points to win the match 15½-11½.

Kreis, in fact was medalist for the day with a two-under par 70. His effort was enough to stop Gene Lookabill who paced the Myers Park team with a 72.

The high schoolers got off to a 6½-2½ lead in the first foursome as Bobby Sisk, one of the State's top young players shot a 78 against Carolina Eddie Pell.

The second foursome split even with 4½ points apiece. Then Kreis and Jonas came in to take the match.
