Society got slightly overlooked last week, but we're making up for it with two society pages this week (I hope). Here's a small catch-up on what was missed, and tomorrow's column just shows all kinds of promise.

IDC, the Blue-White, The Black and White and the All White took the lead in this weekend's activities.

Gene Williams and his Band of Tomorrow plus the Pied Pipers made a "couldn't be better" weekend for the IDC.

Those Blue and White sponsors looked mighty pretty at the game Saturday.

As for the Black and White, that was the Kappa Sig Formal Saturday night and the All White, the great monstrous Old South Ball given by and for KA's from UNC, State and Wake Forest. It is given in the true tradition of the Old South with Southern belles and bearded gentlemen.

The Golden Bear happily presents the party award of the week to the Lambda Chi's for the PJ party they gave the KD's a week ago last Thursday.

Chi Phi's were hosts Thursday afternoon, evening and Friday morning to the Phi Delta Theta's at the annual Azalea Festival held in honor of the Chi Phi's azalea. It bloomed this year. Refreshments were served.

So what would be a column without a Sigma Chi getting pinned? Bill Moore, Burlington, has parted with one of the few remaining pins. Now wearing it is

KA Ned Harbin Named Ugliest Man On Campus

Ned Harbin, senior from Winston-Salem, was named "Ugliest Man on Campus" Friday after a week of penny-a-vote competition. Theta Chi fraternity, sponsor of the contest, will present $52 to the American Cancer Society as a result of the contest, according to contest chairman Robert Killen.

Harbin, sponsored by Kappa Alpha fraternity in the contest, will receive many prizes donated by Chapel Hill merchants.

Room for Graham Memorial.

Semper Fidelis Society
The Semper Fidelis Society will meet tonight at 7:30 in the Naval Armory for the election of officers for the coming year.

School Play

Try-outs for the Chapel Hill Art Guild's production of "Rip Van Winkle" will be held today immediately after school in the school auditorium. All Chapel Hill School children all eligible for parts in this classic comedy, which will be produced on May 13 and 14.

Jean Bradley, Duke coed, also of Burlington. Not to be outdone, Sigma Chi Tommy McAllister, Charlotte, will marry Harriet Whitmore, WC senior from Charlotte.

Friend Wallace Pridgen of the Sigma Nu house also got pinned. To Betty Reese Sugg, a student at Peace College and from Wilson.

St. A's entertained Alumni with their annual "swing-out" this weekend. Cocktail parties for the alums were held Friday and Saturday afternoons.

TEP's partied at the house after the IDC dance Saturday night.

Phi Kaps and dates enjoyed a cocktail party Saturday before the Blue-White game. They managed to have a small party last Saturday in the patio too.

Phi Gam alums, actives and faculty members attended the fraternity's Alumni dinner Saturday night at the Carolina Inn.

ADPI's were given a party by the Phi Gams after the Carnival last Friday.

SAE's and Chi O's began the weekend early with a beer party at Hogan's Thursday. Monday night the Chi O's had their Eclipsian(?) banquet at the Inn and entertained faculty members Wednesday afternoon with a tea from 4 to 6.

New coeds on campus were invited to dinner with the KD's last Wednesday.

Dee Funai, Alpha Gam from Richmond is the big news at the Alpha Gam house. She's newly engaged to Jay Clark, Sanford.

Phi Delta Chi's had a welcome home party for all their travelling members this weekend.

Lane Buchlev, Tryon, will be initiated into Pi Phi tonight.

PIKA's entertained the Chi-O's with dinner at the house and a party at the Country club Tuesday.

Another pinning is that of Pi Lam Don Kurtz, Rock Hill, S. C. to Margie Russ, Columbia, S. C. Pi Lam brothers journeyed to Wrightsville to do their partying last weekend.

Chi Phi pledges had a small beer party (those who survived the Azalea Festival) Saturday at Hogan's.

Lambda Chi's are saying they have a pinning again. It's Bill Sellars, Burlington, and Sara Walker of Oxford. They also partied at the beach last weekend.

AKPsi's finished up the IDC partying with a party of their own at the house.

ZBT new actives were so pleased that they gave the old actives a party Saturday.

TEP's entertained their families at family day Sunday afternoon.

The big scoop of the week was a pinning at the Phi Kap house but for some reason it can't be printed. Well tune in tomorrow.

Kappa Sigma's Honor Pledges With Weekend

Miss Mase Chapin, Tri Delt of Richmond, Va., was crowned sweetheart of Alpha Mu chapter of Kappa Sigma this weekend at the fraternity's annual Black and White formal.

Weekend festivities began Friday with a buffet dinner at the chapter house, followed by a cabin party complete with katinka and a combo.

Brunch was served at the house Saturday and members gave a champagne party at the Chapel Hill Country Club. A steak dinner at the Chez Gourmet preceded the dance. The Duke Ambassadors furnished music for the evening.

Pledges and their dates formed the traditional star and crescent at intermission at which time the Kappa Sig sweetheart was crowned. Following the dance, favors of jewelry boxes were presented and the group returned to the house for breakfast.

Pledges and their dates were Gaither Walsler, Lexington, president, with Sue Gill, Wheeling, W. Va.; Dick Mason, Gastonia, vice-president, with Phyllis Aycock, Concord; Bob Little, Wadesboro, secretary-treasurer, with Frances Capehart, Orlando, Fla.; Ed Borden, Goldsboro, sergeant-at-arms, with JoAnn Bridges, Washington, D. C.; Ed Bizzell, Goldsboro, with Jan Thomas, Tampa, Fla.; Bill Carter, Pinehurst, with Lynn Tyrrell, Killen, Tex.; Eloy Doolan, Savannah, Ga., with Molly Current, Gastonia; Hazzard Grindstaff, Asheville, with Toni Kelly, Charleston, W. Va.;

TRI DELT INITIATES

Alpha Sigma chapter of Delta Delta Delta sorority announces nine new initiates.

They are Sara Bostick, Gainesville, Ga.; Janet Harris, Raleigh; Peggy Murchison, Raleigh; Nancy Murray, Raleigh; Snooky Stone, Wrightsville; Pearl Buchanan, Hendersonville; Jane Kennedy, Asheville; Jane Holleman, Dublin, Ga.; and Virginia Whiteman, Atlanta, Ga.

LAMBDA CHI INITIATES

Newly-initiated members of Lambda Chapter of Phi Kappa Sigma are Clinton Rogers, Durham; Al Norberg, New York City; Dick Nixon, Charlotte; Bill Callman, Burlington.

Flanagan's Orchestra To Play For Carolina Cotillion Dance

ROCKY MOUNT, April 21 (Special)—Jim Wilgus, Publicity chairman of the Carolina Cotillion Club, of Rocky Mount, announced today that plans are almost complete for the 73rd annual June German, scheduled to be held June 19.

Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra have been engaged for the big dance which will be staged in Planter's Warehouse No. 2. Flanagan and his orchestra are The Disc Jockey's choice for America's No. 1 Band according to the Billboard Magazine 1953 poll.
