

WEATHER
Fair and warm with 80 high. Yesterday's high and low, 85 and 60.

The Daily Tar Heel

U.N.C. Library
Serials Dept.
Chapel Hill, N. C.
C-31-19

HOWDY
A new editor, a new style, on page 2.

VOLUME LXI NUMBER 138

CHAPEL HILL, N. C. TUESDAY, APRIL 28, 1953

FOUR PAGES TODAY

BA School Announces Dean's List

Dean Thomas H. Carroll of the School of Business Administration of the University of North Carolina has announced the Dean's List for the Winter Quarter, 1953.

The following students all made a B average or better on all of their courses. Nine students included in the group made all A's. Their names are: Jerome Wilson Bolick, James Daye, Robert Daye, Archibald Taylor Fort, Joseph Duane Gilliam, Goldston Franklin Harris, William Ralph Jacobs Jr., William Marsh Sanders and Kimble Carson Yates.

Wiley Eugene Auman, High Point; James McCall Baker, Rowland; Edmund Gerald Barron, Moncks Corner, S. C.; Gordon Battle Jr., Greensboro; Lacy Gilmer Baynes Jr., Greensboro; Walter Enos Bell Jr., Durham; Burton Hyman Bershaw, Asheville; Charles Edward Bizzell, Seven Springs; Clyde James Blanchard Jr., Rocky Mount; Elmer Charles Bland, Thomasville; Jerome Wilson Bolick, Conover.

Henry Bryan Barefoot Jr., Black Mountain; Linwood Alton Brown Jr., Raleigh; Robert Adrian Brown, Robersonville; William Credle Brown, Wilson; Glass Bowling Car-Cashwell, Asheboro; Lynn Page rier Jr., Charlotte; Thomas Herman Neal Cohn, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Chandler, Morrisville; Herbert Kenton Bowers Creuser, Avondale Estates, Ga.; James Raye, Winston-Salem; Robert Daye, Winston-Salem; Fred Hyams Deaton, Statesville.

Steve William Dellinger Jr., Charlotte; Kenneth Franklin Easter, Winston-Salem; Aaron Caswell Edmundson, Pikeville; Irving Efrin Fogler, Charlotte; Archibald Taylor Fort, Oxford; Croaton Lofton Fouts Jr., Faison; Lewis Daniel Frazier, Louisville; Joseph Duane Gilliam, Thomasville; Neil Bost Glenn, Burlington; Clarence Edward Grenway, High Point; James Lee Gulledge Jr., Moncks Corner, S. C.; Jerry Dennis Gulley, Clayton; Eddie Eldridge Hair, High Point; Jack Gellman Handler, Sarasota, Fla.

Charles Ralph Harbinson Jr., High Point; Amos Cecil Harris, Forest City; George Davis Harris, Henderson; Goldston Franklin Harris, High Point; Max Arland Harris, Drexel; John Calvin Hasty, Maxton; Richard Wilson Herbin, Greensboro; William Buren Hill, Cliffside; Laura MacDonald Holoman, Raleigh; John Robert Hunter, Winston-Salem; Chestley Julian Hyatt, Winston-Salem; Claude Tuttle Icenhour, Durham; William Ralph Jacobs Jr., Sims; John Meredith Jones, Edenton; Charles Ernest Julian, Salisbury; Lee Edward Knott, Washington.

Lamont Drear Krimminger, Kannapolis; Richard Brooke Lawson Jr., Hopkinstown, N.C.; Alvin Ellis Levine, Rockingham; Henry Eugene Lewis Jr., Charlotte; Ernest Anthony Liberati, Philadelphia, Penn.; Robert McDonald Long, Concord; John Aycock McLendon, Greensboro; Bruce Marger, Coral Gables, Fla.; William Theodore Milburn, Winston-Salem; Billy Wilson Miller, Morganton; Glenn Lowry Mitchell, Hickory Grove, S. C.; John Franklin Moore, Lenoir; William Prince Moore, Raleigh; John Fairbanks Motesinger, Winston-Salem.

Roland Trice Neal, Durham; Richard Vernon Neill, Fort Pierce, Fla.; George Van Norris, Radford, Va.; Eugene Oberdoffer II, Atlanta, Ga.; Harold Franklin Oglesby, Kin- (See DEAN'S LIST, page 4)

Faculty Luncheon

Dr. George B. Cutten, retired president of Colgate University, will tell of a great World War I explosion when he speaks to the Men's Faculty Luncheon at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

Dr. Cutten will describe the explosion in the harbor of Halifax, Nova Scotia in which more than 1,600 people were killed and 10,000 were wounded. Dr. Cutten directed rehabilitation after the disaster.

FRENCH VIETNAM TROOPS of a Laotian light infantry patrol ford a swirling river near Hanoi, Indo China. Other patrols killed about 20 Communists in clashes, according to a French Spokesman, as the Communist troops drove to within 60 miles of Luang Prabang, the Royal Capital and the city whose capture would have the most prestige value for the Reds.—NEA Telephoto.

Incoming Coed Officers Meet Tomorrow At 8

The spring leadership training program for incoming officers of coed organizations will begin tomorrow night.

The program will get underway with an address by Dr. Bernard Boyd in Carroll Auditorium at 8 o'clock.

Thursday at 4:30 in Carroll Auditorium Nancy Horne and Betty Otto Anderson will lead a group meeting to review parliamentary procedure.

At 5 o'clock various discussions will be held in Gardner Hall. Sorority presidents and vice-presidents will meet in 103 for a discussion led by Dorothy Beals, advised by Ray Jeffries.

Dorm and sorority house councils, Honor Council and Student Council will be in 104, led by Carmen Nahn and advised by Miss Gay Currie. Secretaries, under Sarolyn Bonowitz and Miss Isabelle MacLeod will meet in 107.

Mary Ellen Jones will lead and Harry Kear will advise the treasurers in 108. Social chairmen will meet with Sue Burress and Miss Marcella Harrer in 200.

Dean Fred Weaver will speak at 6:30 Thursday night to conclude the program.

YW Benefit Ticket Sale Continues Until Tonight

Tickets to "The Member of the Wedding" will be on sale through tonight at the YWCA, Little Shop, University Florist, Town and Campus Shop and Ledbetter-Pickard.

A part of the proceeds from all tickets sold at these places will go to the YWCA. No money received tonight will benefit the Y. Regular prices prevail in the selling program.

Fraternities, sororities, dormitory residents, faculty members and local civic organizations are all aiding the YWCA in this fund drive. Rights to ticket sales were granted by Andy Gutierrez, manager of the Varsity Theater, where "The Member of the Wedding" begins tomorrow.

Eisenhower Orders Strict Security Probe

WASHINGTON—President Eisenhower yesterday ordered tough new security tests for all government employees. He signed an executive order, effective in 30 days, abolishing the old loyalty program instituted by President Truman in 1947. At the same time he directed the head of each executive agency and department to institute strict new security programs for their agencies. Like the old Truman program, the new one is designed, basically to rid the government of subversives and disloyal persons.

Ubiquitous but ever welcome cigaret hucksters passing out samples during "Our Best To You" blanket party.

Young South Building wives looking fondly from office windows upon visiting grade schoolers, both a sure sign of Spring.

Faux pas of the week as Ken Penegar remarks at dinner for Averell Harriman: "As I look out over all these heads . . ."

Parents Have Daylong Look Here Sunday

A picnic lunch—campus tour—a band concert—planetarium shows and a short address by President Gray. Such is Parents' Day at Carolina.

Sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega and the administration, the third annual Day will begin noon Sunday with a picnic lunch on the campus, featuring box lunches from home. Parents and friends of students will then get a chance to meet the faculty at a reception in the lounge of Morehead Planatorium at 2:30.

Besides guided tours around the campus and a Planetarium show every hour, there will be a university Band Concert at 4:30 on the lawn, to be preceded by a welcome address by President Gorden Gray.

Di Will Debate On UN Tonight

In honor of the local United Nations Week celebration, the Dialectic Senate will devote tonight's 8 o'clock meeting to debate on a bill calling for the strengthening of the United Nations into a limited federal world government.

After the discussion, the Senate is having a reception for delegates to the U.N. Model Assembly and all Senators and other guests. An invitation has been extended to all interested persons to go up and take part in the debate held on the third floor of New West.

Pi Lambda Phi Initiates Four; Fogel Gets Award

Four new members were initiated into Omega Beta Chapter of Pi Lambda Phi Fraternity last week.

New members are Barry Fogel, Augusta, Ga.; William Gorelick, Charlotte; Donald Kurtz, Rock Hill, S. C.; Donald Warren, Brooklyn, New York.

The Fraternity Scholarship Athletic Pledge Award was presented to Barry Fogel during the Pi Lambda Phi Pledge dinner.

PANMUNJOM—The new Korean armistice talks deadlocked again yesterday as the U.N. Command flatly rejected a Red prisoner exchange proposal which it said offers only return to Communist rule or "endless captivity" for the Reds who refuse to go home. In their second meeting since Oct. 8, both Allied and Communist delegates stood pat on their own plans for settling the exchange problem and bringing a truce in Korea. Another session is scheduled for 11 a.m. today.

SEOUL—United Nations planes dropped hundreds of tons of bombs on North Korean targets yesterday, climaxing day-long attacks with a 50-ton strike against an ammunition factory. Final pilot relays were unable to access the damage at the factory near Chinampo because of dense clouds of smoke mushrooming from the blasted area. Newly equipped F-86 Sabre jets protecting the fighter bombers were ordered from their interceptor screen to dive-bomb battle-line targets.

WASHINGTON—Opponents of the administration-backed tide lands bill said yesterday they are ready to start voting on amendments, apparently the signal for a break in their 19-day filibuster. Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM) said after a strategy meeting with other foes of the bill that "our major objective has been accomplished—arousing the antagonism of the country against this legislation we think is bad." Anderson said there is "quite a little chance that a final vote on the bill may be possible this week."

According To Recent Survey

Only Seven Fraternities Favor Hell Week Over Greek Week

Only seven of the 23 social fraternities on campus dislike Greek Week enough to return to the old "Hell Week" method of initiation. That was the consensus of a survey taken by The Daily Tar Heel.

The fraternity representatives who said "it's time for a change," however, want Hell Week back, only in a modified form.

As one fraternity president put it, "The present Greek Week is not accepted as much as Hell Week. The pledges don't get as much out of it. We wouldn't like to return to the old Hell Week but we would like to return to a modified version."

"General opinion around the house, however, is that Greek Week is all right," he added. Some of the fraternities endorsing Greek Week expressed disappointment at the lack of spirit and more activities. "Exchange dinners don't accomplish much," one president said. "Even when you go to another fraternity house to eat, you're still tied up. After dinner, you sit around for five or 10 minutes talking to your own group and then leave. The other part of the program was all right but there could have been a little more cooperation."

One fraternity man said, "Greek Week is a good idea, but it is uncontrollable. It has been run into the ground. What we need is more useful work."

"The exchange suppers are nice," he added, "but they should do more, with fuller activities. Hell Week is essential. Certain pledges are in cliques and they

Fleece Taps 14 Top Men During Impressive Ritual; Observes 50th Anniversary

Order Reveals All Its Officers For Past Year

Fourteen outstanding students were tapped into membership last night by the Order of the Golden Fleece—the highest honor on the campus.

In the traditional ceremony in Memorial Hall, the Fleece beckoned five juniors, seven seniors and two graduate students. It was the 50th Annual Tapping Ceremony and also saw Dr. Frank Porter Graham named the Fleece's Argonaut of the Half-Century. (See story at right.)

The fourteen tappers were: Rolfe Neill, Statesville; Thaddeus Seymour, Chapel Hill; Robert D. Gorham Jr., Rocky Mount; Thomas Rezzuto, Asheville; Edward B. Gross, Harrisburg, Pa.; James L. Haney, Jr., Marion; J. Andrew Bell Jr., Greensboro; Walter M. Dear III, Jersey City, N. J.

Eugene Oberdorfer II, Atlanta, Ga.; Kenneth L. Penegar, Gastonia; W. Stephen Perrow, Bedford, Va.; Thomas A. Sully Jr., Charlottesville, Va.; James C. McLeod Jr., Florence, S. C., and Gilbert E. Marsh Jr., Thomasville.

The Order also disclosed to the public for the first time its officers for the past year. They were: Julian D. Mason, Jr., Jason; John M. Schnorrenberg, Hyparchois; Kenneth H. Barton, Grammateus; and Paul N. Somerville, Chrystopher.

The 14 tappers were chosen by the traditional method which involved their being "searched for" by two spot-lighted, black-robed and hooded giants pacing the aisles of the darkened auditorium. When the tappers were "found", they were tapped on the shoulders and caused to stand while appropriate citations were read. Later, the tappers were lined up on the stage for recognition by the audience.

This year the University Concert Band presented one of its annual spring concerts immediately before and following the tapping.

There was a sizable group of alumni from throughout the state who were present for the tapping and the reception following. The Order was founded in 1903 and recognizes students for character, contribution, and service. It has taken in almost 550 students, many of whom have gone on to become prominent men. Membership in the Fleece is the highest honor that can come to a Carolina student. All of its activities are secret except the annual spring tapping.

DR. FRANK PORTER GRAHAM
... Argonaut of the half-century

Golden Fleece Honors Dr. Graham In Tapping

Dr. Frank Porter Graham was honored last night by the Order of the Golden Fleece when he was revealed as their choice for the Argonaut of the Half-Century.

Announcement of the results of the secret balloting, begun last February among the some 400 living members and alumni of the organization, was made at the 50th Anniversary Tapping Ceremonies of the Fleece in Memorial Hall.

Dr. Graham, former president of the University, former U. S. Senator, and now special mediator for the United Nations, was picked in response to a letter which asked the members of the Order to help select "the member, now living, who best exemplifies the ideals of the Golden Fleece in his life, in the example he has set for others, and in the contributions he has made to the University, the state, the nation and to mankind."

There were seventeen nominations coming from alumni scattered all over the world, but Dr. Graham received a majority on the first ballot.

Dr. Graham was recognized first during last night's tapping ceremonies in Memorial Hall. Later, he was recognized by the alumni at the reception at the Carolina Inn, where he was presented a newly bound first edition of Jefferson Davis' two-volume Rise and Fall of the Confederate Government.

Dr. Graham was tapped by the Fleece as a student in 1908. The Order of the Golden Fleece was founded in 1903. It is the highest honor on campus, and is the second oldest group of its type in the country. Its over 500 alumni include many men prominent in the affairs of the state of North Carolina and the nation.

Carolina's UN Assembly Will Meet This Weekend

A bit of the international spotlight from UN Headquarters will shine on Carolina when the Model General Assembly meets here Friday and Saturday.

Designed to climax "Carolina United Nations Week," the Model Assembly is being held to provide the students with an actual experience of keeping all records during the functions and structure of the UN.

UN Week was given its kickoff last Friday by Dr. Frank Porter Graham, UN special representative, who spoke on some of the achievements of the United Nations.

Plans for the Model Assembly call for the delegations of four students from each member nation to be divided into four commissions. Each commission will have before it a particular type of problem, such as: political and security, economic and financial, social and humanitarian, or trusteeship and legal questions.

The Model Assembly may be officially opened by Henri Bonnet, French ambassador to the U. S. Negotiations are now in progress to get the ambassador to come to Chapel Hill for the occasion, according to Henry Lowet, chairman of the UN Committee.

Bernard Theiling today was designated Secretary-General of the Model Assembly. He and the Secretariat will have the responsibility of keeping all records during the sessions.

The general public is invited to attend all meetings of the Assembly on Friday and Saturday.

Yack Slackers

There are still several fraternities and other organizations which have not paid for their pages in the Yackety Yack. All those so concerned are asked to make payment immediately.

Business Manager Russ Cowell asked that checks be mailed to the Yackety Yack, Box 987, Chapel Hill or left in the main office of Graham Memorial. Cowell also said distribution of the books will begin as soon as they arrive, and that the first shipment was expected about the 10th of May.