NANCY CARTER Tested RECIPES

Gala Baked Ham Slice

1 two-inch thick ham slice, uncooked 1 cup CS pineapple juice 1/2 cup brown sugar 1 teaspoon dry mustard Whole cloves

Cut slashes in the fat edge of the ham two inches apart. Insert cloves in the fat. Place ham slice in shallow baking dish or casserole. Pour in pineapple juice. Mix brown sugar with mustard and spread over meat. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, 2 hours. Cover pan for first half hour. Spoon juice over ham two or three times during baking. Remaining juices may be thickened and served over the ham, if desired.

MRS. MARIE KIRCHAUSEN, German mother of Berlin born Pvt. Carl Kirchausen, 27, the first American POW to be released by Reds at Panmunjom, wraps a package for her son, in Berlin whom she has not seen in 13 years. Carl's father fled Germany with the boy during the Nazi persecution of the Jews shortly before World War II. After a brief stop in England, they went to the U.S. where Mr. Kirchausen died during the great war. Carl was drafted into the U.S. Army in 1950 and spent 2 1/2 years in a North Korean prison camp. Mrs. Kirchausen hopes to come to America to see her son. —NEA Telephoto.

1952 Grads Plan Reunion Here June 6

The Baby Class of 1952 of the University will hold its first reunion Saturday, June 6 during Commencement — reinaugurating an event that has not occurred since before World War II.

Class President Archie Myatt, High Point, and Vice-President Albert House, Hobgood, have announced plans for the event which will include registration in Graham Memorial from 12 noon until 3 o'clock; golfing and swimming privileges and tours of the new School of Business Administration and Health Center from 3 until 5 o'clock; A reception with deans and members of the University administration from 5:30 until 6:30 at Kessing Pool; and a banquet in the South Room of Lenoir Hall at 7 o'clock.

Following the banquet there will be informal get-togethers among members of the class.

Accommodations will be available for any who can remain in Chapel Hill for the entire Commencement weekend, Myatt said.

Members of the planning committee for the reunion are Chairman Albert House, Julian Alberghotti, Charlotte; John Foust, Lexington; John Dortch, Chapel Hill; Mary Nell Boddie, Durham; Jim McIntyre, Ellerbe; and Nat Magruder, Sarasota, Fla.

The Morehead Planetarium has a photographic exhibit, "Egypt," now on display. It will continue through next Friday.

"Egypt" contains the most recent photographs of remaining art monuments from an Egyptian culture that flourished for 3,000 years before Christ. The exhibit is based on the photographic essay, "Art of Egypt," published in Life last winter. The exhibit, however, is greatly enlarged in scope, and includes much material not before published. The showing here was assembled under the direction of W. C. Hayes of the Department of Egyptology at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

"Egypt" includes some 50 photographs by Life photographer Eliot Elisofon, taken while he was on assignment in the Nile Valley. The subject matter is from the Old and New Kingdoms, and ranges from the majestic simplicity of the Step Pyramid of King Djoser (2780-2761 B. C.) to the Great Temple of Hathor at Dendera, which was built during the first century B.C. under the Roman Emperor Augustus.

A series of three panels is devoted to several unusually fine reliefs uncovered in 1941, and not hitherto widely known. The photographs are distinguished by their clarity, and they convey a sense of scale often lacking in photographs of the colossi of ancient Egypt.
