

Tar Heels Lose Track Meet To Duke By 76 To 55

Shankle Wins Four Firsts In Duke Rout

By John Hussey
Led by sophomore Joel Shankle, the Duke Blue Devil track team humbled the Carolina cindermen by a score of 76 to 55 at the UNC track yesterday afternoon.

Shankle took four individual first places and tied for another first in collecting 23 points for his team. His first places came in the high and low hurdles, broad jump, and the high jump. He was a member of the three way tie for first in the pole vault. Shankle has a chance of setting a new intercollegiate scoring record this year in track and field events.

The only new record posted for the day came in the shot put when Ramond Lawsche of Duke put the shot 50 feet, six inches to better the old mark of 49 feet, nine inches held by Gant of Duke.

Bobby Barden put on the best show of the day for Carolina in the two mile run. Even after the first lap there was no question of who was going to win the event and Barden nearly lapped the final Duke man. This was also the most profitable event for the Tar Heels as they garnered every place for a total of nine points.

The blow made Adcock the first man ever to hit a ball into the center-field bleachers at the Giants' Polo Grounds. It was estimated that Adcock's blow traveled more than 475 feet.—NEA Telephoto.

Netters Open Northern Tour With 9-0 Win Over Virginia

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., May 2 (Special)—The Carolina tennis team got off to a successful start on their northern tour this afternoon by beating a good University of Virginia team 9-0.

For the Tar Heels it was their eighteenth straight victory of the season and the ninth whitewashing they have administered to their opponents.

Del Sylvia had a little trouble getting started in the number one match today, but finally won out over Dick Rutledge, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5. Sylvia looked tired and was not as sharp as usual.

The Carolina number one man will be out to the team for two days as he received word today that his grandmother had died in Richmond. That means that he will miss the matches with Williams and Amherst, but will return to the lineup against Harvard on Wednesday.

Herb Browne played in the number two position today and was extended to three sets before he was able to defeat Dave Shilby. Browne lost the second set 9-7 but won the other two easily.

Bradford and Don Thompson, the two freshmen in the lineup, teamed up in the number one doubles match to beat Rutledge and Hatch Echols. Bob Payne and Pete Green formed a winning combination in the number two doubles. They defeated Bill Morris and Shibley.

Carolina will travel from here to Williamstown, Mass., for a match with Williams College there Monday afternoon. The match will be the first of six to be played on consecutive days.

The summaries:
Singles—Sylvia (UNC) defeated Rutledge (V), 3-6, 7-5, 7-5; Browne (UNC) defeated Shibley (V), 6-0, 7-9, 6-1; Bradford (UNC) defeated Bill Morris (V), 6-1, 7-5; Thompson (UNC) defeated Cabell (V), 6-4, 6-4; Payne (UNC) defeated Echols (V), 6-1, 6-0; Handel (UNC) defeated Jett (V), 6-2, 6-1.

Doubles—Bradford and Thompson (UNC) defeated Rutledge and Echols (V), 6-3, 6-1; Payne and Green (UNC) defeated Morris and Shibley (V), 6-2, 6-3; Kerdasha and Gustafson (UNC) defeated Jett and Kitchell (V), 6-3, 7-5.

Carolina Golfers Place Ninth In Intercollegiate Tournament
By Biff Roberts
ATHENS, Ga. — The Southern Intercollegiate golf tournament wound up this afternoon with two of Carolina's players competing in the final 36-hole round for individual honors.

Jim Ferec was low man for Carolina as he and Billy Thornton were the only Tar Heel players who were able to shoot their way into the final round.

Ferec had a good day and finished up with a 75 and a 71. He was four under par through fourteen on the second round, but bogied 15, 17 and 18 to finish up with his one under par 71. Thornton had rounds of 74 and 76.

In the team competition, Carolina tied for ninth place with a team total of 624, 24 strokes higher than last year. North Texas State defended its team championship successfully. The L.S.U. team was runner-up.

The winner of the individual play was Eddie Merrins of L.S.U. who finished with a total of 286, two under par. In second place was Stan Mosel of NTS with 287. Third was Hillman Robbins of Memphis State who had today's lowest round with a 69.

Only the players with the fifty lowest scores were allowed to play for the individual championship.
