Baseball Team Loses To Duke, 4-2; Netters Win, 7-2

Devils Score 3 Winning Runs In Sixth Inning

By Tom Peacock

Duke's Blue Devils scored three runs in the sixth inning yesterday to unseat Carolina from a tie for first place in Big Four baseball standings and take their first win from the Tar Heels, 4-2.

Duke's Big Four record is now 4-2, Carolina's 3-3.

Carolina held a slim 2-1 lead, but Duke pounded pitcher Chal Port with three hits plus an error that gave it the 4-2 lead. Port only lalowed seven hits in taking the loss, while winning pitcher George Carver held Carolina to six hits over the route.

The game started slow and sloppy, with the Tar Heels giving Carver a good ride, but the play and his pitching settled down. The Tar Heels committed four errors, including one for three bases. Only one Duke run was earned.

Billy Werber opened the sixth for Duke with a single, then scored a minute later on a three base boot by first baseman Bobby Henning. Jake Tarr tripled Billy Lea home, and Joe Brewer singled Tarr on in to end the scoring.

All the roads lead to Kankakee

Some routes, naturally, are longer than others. But if there is less traffic on them, they might get you to Kankakee faster.

The same holds true of your Long Distance calls. When circuits are temporarily busy on the most direct route for your call, a new electronic brain in the telephone office automatically selects alternate routes. They may be hundreds of miles longer, but the detour saves you time.

And the entire operation of selection and rerouting is done in a split second!

The Bell System people who perfected, maintain and operate this electronic switching system have one goal: to make the best telephone service in the world even better. Would you like to join this competent, aggressive team?

There are many opportunities in the Bell System-in engineering, business administration, accounting, and other fields. Your Placement Officer can give you the

If the occasion demands formal wear and you demand comfort and correctness, here's the way to go-in one of our superbly styled and tailored summer dinner jackets. We've all the furnishings you need, too.
