Golf Tourney Starts Today; UNC Favored

By Biff Roberts
Carolina will defend its Southern Conference golf title at Winston-Salem's Old Town Country Club today and tomorrow. It will mark the climax of Conference golf for three Tar Heel seniors.

For the past three springs, Bob Black, Bill Williamson, and Jim Ferree have been fixtures on the Carolina team. In that period the Tar Heels have won 37 dual matches—and lost but three.

Unfortunately those three defeats were spread out as thin as was possible, one coming in each of the three seasons so that in not one of the campaigns could they claim an undefeated year.

In 1951 Carolina had a 15-1 record. Last year it was 14-1, with a loss in the final match of the year spoiling the record. This year, against slightly tougher competition, the team won eight and lost one.

The dual meet record is noteworthy in itself, but the Tar Heels added more to that last year at Old Town when they walked off with both the individual and the team championships.

After being tied with Wake Forest following the first day's play, the Tar Heels loosened up on the final eighteen to notch a 585 total and top the field by eight strokes.

High Point's Tommy Langley, then a sophomore, won the individual title with two even par rounds of 71 and a 36-hole total of 142. He joined the service, however, and will not be back to defend his crown or help his mates in the team race.

But the three seniors should be able to keep things pretty well in hand. Black, the captain of the team, who is from Philadelphia, has played as the number-one man all year and could easily pick up the individual honors.

chers and three catchers. In the first inning, the game looked as though it was going to be a pitcher's duel between Chal Port and Maryland's Grafton, when both sides were put down in order. But there was a complete change when Carolina came to bat in their half of the second.

Catcher Ed Hooks started things off with a double. He came home on Connie Gravitte's two-bagger. Bruce Holt, who had been absent from the Carolina lineup for some time, knocked a 340-foot home run over the left-field wall, and from that moment on there was no stopping the Tar Heels.

Every member of the team came to bat in the second inning, and when it finally ended, Carolina was on the long end of a 7-0 score.

In spite of the one-sided score, Maryland did manage to pick up eight hits. Carolina had 11 safeties but scored most of its runs on Terrapin errors. The three Maryland catchers had a total of five passed balls. Catcher Muth removed himself from the game when he made two of them in a row.

Ed Hooks was the batting star for Carolina, picking up three hits in as many attempts, two of which were doubles. First baseman Bob Henning got two for four.

The Tar Heels will face Duke in a semi-final game this afternoon.

Conference Outdoor Games At Duke Today And Saturday

The Twenty-ninth Annual Southern Conference Outdoor Games will be held this Friday and Saturday at Duke University. Duke, winner of the indoor games, is favored to take first place. The other top contenders stack up as Maryland, VPI, and Carolina in that order, followed by VMI and South Carolina.

The meet will see four of last year's champions returning. They are Buz Sawyer of N. C. State, Joel Shankle of Duke, Tom Hunt of West Virginia, and Bon Lankford of VPI. All four of these are again rated to cop wins in their various events.

In last year's games Shankle won both the high and low hurdles, while Hunt registered firsts in the shot put and discus, Sawyer took a win in the mile run and Lankford won the high jump.

Six of the visiting out of state teams will stay here in Chapel Hill, including four Virginia teams. The teams staying here will be Maryland, Davidson, VPI, Richmond, VMI, and William and Mary.

The top Carolina contenders in the Games will be Bill Cornell, Sonny Beall, and Bobby Bell in the hurdles; Bobby Barden in the two mile run, Charlie Yarborough in the broad jump, Bill Cornell in the javelin, Roger Morris and Tom Higgins in the shot put and Steve Marcinko in the 880-yard run.

Morris, a sophomore from Newark, has tossed the shot 51 feet this season and may crack the loop record if he can get off another heave like that. The Tar Heels will miss Jeff Newton and Harry Brown in the sprints.

Jayvees Beat Gardner Webb In Ninth For Sixth Straight

By John Hussey
The Carolina jayvee baseball team brought its season to a close here yesterday with a 3-2 victory over Gardner Webb.

Charlie Aycock, freshman from Washington, was the individual star for the Tar Heels. Entering the game in the sixth inning, he allowed the opponents only one hit and shut them out in the three frames he pitched. He received credit for the win, his fifth of the season against no defeats.

Aycock was a standout on offense. He singled in the winning run in the ninth inning with one out. Jack Woods took individual batting honors for the Tar Heels by getting two hits in three trips to the plate. It was the sixth consecutive win for the jayvees. Their overall record for the season was eight wins and three losses.

Yesterday's game marked the first defeat of the season for Gardner Webb. They hold the title of state champions in the junior college division.

Coach Henry House and his assistant Pete Gillespie were very pleased with the outcome of the game and that of the entire season.

Line score:
Car. Webb 000 002 000—2 5 0
Carolina 100 001 001—3 7 1
Batteries: Gardner Webb—Myers and Morrisett; Carolina—Maultsby, Aycock (6), and Dodson.
