

WEATHER

Cloudier and mild today. Yesterday's high, 72; yesterday's low, 43. Expected high today, 72.

The Daily Tar Heel

LONG

The editor has a word or two about a Duke grad who helped a Carolina cause. See p. 2.

VOLUME LXII NUMBER 36

Complete AP Photo and Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1953

Complete AP Photo and Wire Service

SIX PAGES TODAY

TENNESSEE VOLTS OVERPOWER CAROLINA, 20-6

A VOL IS BROUGHT TO EARTH as Carolina's Tom Adler (left) spears left-halfback Jim Wade in the first quarter of yesterday's game. Wade picked up three yards around his right end at the close of the period before Adler nailed him. The husky halfback was the spearhead of the Tennessee offense throughout the contest. At right Marshall Newman is pictured lateraling the ball to Ken Keller (not shown) as he is about to be tackled by an unidentified Tennessee player. Keller fumbled but recovered on the Vol 12 yard line.

Tar Heel Fumbles Set Up Vol Scores

By Vardy Buckalew

Tennessee's single wing offense paid off three times in a single quarter yesterday afternoon and enabled the Volunteers to send the Carolina Tar Heels down to their third straight defeat of the season in a homecoming game played before 27,000 spectators.

Three touchdowns in the third quarter, two of them by fullback Tom Tracy, were more than enough to beat the fumbling Tar Heels who outgained the Volunteers offensively but couldn't hold on to the ball when they were near the goal line.

Peggy Hall Rules Day As Queen

Tommy Tucker and his orchestra played for the final dance of the Germans series last night to round out a full weekend of campus activities.

Miss Peg Hall, homecoming queen, was honored at the dance. Miss Hall, a senior from Salyersville, Ky., was presented in half-time ceremonies at the football game yesterday. She is a member of Kappa Delta Sorority and is an English major.

Miss Hall presented trophies to the division winners in the homecoming display contest. Carr Dormitory won in the women's dorm division. Aycock won in the men's dormitory division.

Phi Kappa Sigma won in the fraternity division, and Pi Beta Phi won in the sorority division.

The big weekend began with the Germans concert presented by the orchestras of Johnny Long and Tommy Tucker Friday.

Later in the evening students wound through the streets in a torch parade. The paraders returned to Memorial Hall for a pep rally led by Jim Fountain. The overflow crowd shook the walls with cheers.

Long's "Cottonpicker Five" presented an impromptu program of jazz, and led a few cheers on the side.

Long and his orchestra played for the first Germans dance Friday night.

Edmund Kistler Portrait Given To Med Library

A portrait of Charles Edmund Kistler, of Morganton, who died in 1936, was presented to the University Medical Library yesterday.

The library was named for Kistler. The portrait is being presented to the library by Mrs. Mary K. Craven of Waban, Mass., Kistler's daughter. Chancellor R. B. House will unveil the portrait.

Senior Redmon Gets GE Grant

Aubrey Wilford (Wic) Redmon, a University senior from Leaksville, has been selected to receive the General Electric scholarship in finance in the University's School of Business Administration.

This award, in the amount of $500, is one of several such grants made available to leading colleges and universities by the General Electric Corporation in connection with the observance of their 75th anniversary.

Redmon was chosen for the award by a faculty committee on the basis of character, scholarship and leadership. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and president of Alpha Tau chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, and is a cadet major in the Air Force ROTC.

CPU Meeting

The Carolina Political Union will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial.

Tomorrow Is Last Chance For Draft Test

Midnight tomorrow is the deadline for submitting applications for the Selective Service College Qualification Test, according to Selective Service Officials.

The local boards have an adequate supply of test application blanks on hand, but those post-marked after midnight, Monday cannot be accepted. Applications are to be addressed to Educational Testing Service of Princeton, New Jersey.

Another test will be held April 22, 1954, but students whose academic year will end in January are urged to take the November test.

At present, deferment may be had with a score of 70 of the Selective Service College Qualification Test, ranking in the upper half of the males in the freshman class, upper two thirds in the sophomore class, or upper three fourths in the junior class.

Maryland Rolls On

Notre Dame, Clemson, Terps Win

Snapping Terrapins Beat South Carolina To Hold Mark, 24-6

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Oct. 31—(AP)—Undeclared Maryland added another ACC victory to its list today by defeating South Carolina, 24-6.

South Carolina's strong defense gave Maryland fits at the start of the contest in springlike Byrd Stadium before an estimated 22,000.

South Carolina intercepted a pass by quarterback Bernie Faloney on its 11 to snuff out one threat and then forced him to fumble and recover the ball. Faloney retaliated by intercepting a pass and starting Maryland finally on a 50-yard drive which fullback Ralph Felton climaxed by plunging a foot to score.

Halfback Chet Hanulak, with the aid of blocks by Dick Nolan (See MARYLAND, page 4)

Clemson's Don King Sparks Victory Over Wake Forest, 18-0

CLEMSON, S. C., Oct. 31—(AP)—Sophomore quarterback Don King passed and ran Clemson to an 18-0 Atlantic Coast Conference football victory over crippled Wake Forest before 18,000 here today.

King accounted for 73 yards passing on a 97-yard touchdown drive climaxed by right halfback Joe Pagliei's 10-yard touchdown run that opened the second period. Late in the same period King hit end Dreher Kaskin with a pass 14 yards away in the end zone. Midway in the third period King steered his team in a 63-yard scoring march that featured a 22-yard pass to Gaskin and right half Buck George's seven-yard touchdown sweep.

King's performance accounted for 231 yards, 171 of them on nine completed passes out of 17 throws. (See CLEMSON, page 4)

Unbeaten Irish Top Navy, 38-7, While Leahy Looks On TV

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 31—(AP)—Unbeaten Notre Dame, the nation's No. 1 team, poured a four-touchdown, second quarter broadside into inept Navy and then coast with reserves for a 38-7 victory watched on television by ailing coach Frank Leahy today.

The fifth straight Irish triumph of the season marked one of the worst trimmings of the Middies in an unbroken 27-game series which now includes 22 Notre Dame victories.

Notre Dame's 26-point outburst in the second quarter after a scoreless first period turned the game into an Irish waltz before 58,154 fans. Acting coach Joe McArdle emptied the 50-player Irish bench trying to hold down the score.

Five different players scored Notre Dame touchdowns, the first two contributed by regular right half Joe Heap on a short plunge and a lucky tip from a Navy defender in the end zone on a 28-yard pass by quarterback Ralph Guelielmi.

Guelielmi romped 49 yards for the third Irish touchdown after intercepting a pass by Navy quarterback George Welsh, who also had tipped the touchdown pass to Heap.

The fourth Irish touchdown in the second quarter came on a 32-yard drive by reserves with fullback Tom McHugh diving over from the one. After that, Irish subs pushed the Navy around until late in the last period when fullback Dick Padberg scored on a pass-lateral play covering 10 yards.

Navy simply couldn't recover from the shock of that second quarter blast and had yielded a touchdown in each of the third and fourth periods to Irish subs.

The fifth Notre Dame score came when No. 2 quarterback Tom Carey, on a keep-it play, battled 28 yards for a touchdown.

Early in the fourth period, with the Irish bench running thin, Carey tossed a 3-yard pass to halfback Dick Keller for the last Notre Dame touchdown.

Only two Notre Dame conversion attempts were good, one each (See NOTRE DAME, page 4)

GERMANS WEEKEND IS quite the thing agree bandleaders Tommy Tucker (left), Johnny Long (center) and German Club President Jim Schenck. Tucker and Long played the concert Friday. Friday night Long's band did the dance, and last night Tucker was back on the bandstand.

JIM WADE, Tennessee halfback, looks for an opening to cut away from the sidelines in the third quarter. Wade was forced out of bounds by Jimmy Neville and Tom Adler after a short gain to Carolina's 35 yard line. Behind Wade, Ed Patterson is blocked out by an unidentified Vol.