

Maryland Closes Gap, But Irish Still First

Notre Dame And Terps Only Unscathed Teams

Michigan State Is Back To Third; Oklahoma Struggles Into Fourth

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 —(AP)— The race between Notre Dame and Maryland for the season's No. 1 rating in college football becomes closer as the other teams eliminate themselves from contention.

The top 10 (first place votes and team records in parentheses):

1. Notre Dame (93) (7-0) 1404
2. Maryland (42) (9-0) 1344
3. Michigan State (3) (7-1) 1091
4. Oklahoma (3) (6-1-1) 920
5. UCLA (7-1) 806
6. Texas (6-3) 348
7. Illinois (6-1-1) 311
8. Wisconsin (2) (6-2) 290
9. Southern California (6-1-1) 201
10. Rice (6-2) 185

The second 10: 11. Alabama (1) 163; 2. Georgia Tech 151; 13. Kentucky (3) 130; 14. Auburn (1) 126; 15. Duke 117; 16. Stanford 106; 17. Texas Tech 81; 18. South Carolina 78; 19. West Virginia (1) 74; 20. Iowa (1) 71.

Notre Dame, an easy winner over North Carolina, remained on top of the list, where it has been all season, with 93 first place votes and a total of 1,404 points on the usual basis of 10 for first place, nine for second, etc. But Maryland, which made well-regarded Mississippi look like another soft touch, moved within 60 points of the lead with 42 first and 1,344 points.

This struggle may be resolved next Saturday when Notre Dame plays Iowa and Maryland encounters Alabama. By whipping Minnesota, the surprising Iowa team earned 20th place in the ratings. Alabama, a 13-6 winner over the Georgia Tech team that was rated fifth a week ago, just missed a spot in the first 10 teams.

Georgia Tech was one of three teams which lost their high rankings of last week. Tech slipped from fifth to 12th. West Virginia, its 13-game winning streak ended by a loss to South Carolina, fell from eighth to 19th and Baylor, ranked ninth before it took a 37-7 shellacking from Houston, didn't get placed in the first 20 this week. Illinois, still a candidate for the Big 10 championship and the Rose Bowl bid, remained in the top 10 despite a 34-7 whipping from Wisconsin. From third place, the Illini went down to seventh.

The old favorites which took their losses earlier then went back to winning, turned up in the higher places in the general reshuffling of the rankings. Michigan State, last year's national champion, moved back to third with an impressive 1,091 point total. Orange Bowl bound Oklahoma, clinching the Big Seven title, took over fourth with UCLA fifth.

Of these three, only UCLA appears to be in for trouble Saturday. The Uclans encounter ninth-ranked Southern California in one of the games which will decide the Pacific Coast Conference championship. Michigan State ends its season against Marquette and Oklahoma plays Nebraska. Other top 10 pairings: Illinois-Northwestern, Wisconsin-Minnesota, and Rice-Texas Christian. Texas is idle.

Connor Dorm Sweeps Intramural Tennis Play

The winners of the tennis finals have been released and in the doubles matches Frank Bowman and Norman Jarrard won. Both boys are representatives of Connor dormitory. Jarrard also won the open singles matches and Mike Furuhata won the novice singles title giving Connor a clean sweep of the tennis competition this year in intramural play.

Booters Meet Maryland Today In Final Match Of The Season

The UNC soccer team will close its regular season here today when the strong Maryland Terrapins invade Fetzer Field for an Atlantic Coast Conference match.

The Tar Heels will have to come up with a better performance than last week's contest with State to beat the mighty Terps and end their season over the .500 mark. Coach Marvin Allen's boys have won three and dropped the same number while playing a 2-2 tie with State College. The victories have come over Georgetown, Virginia, and Washington and Lee, while Roanoke, State, and Duke have turned back the Tar Heels.

Carolina is highly capable of winning today as such stars as Harry Pawlik, Louis Pateavouras, Calvin Lane, Gerry Russell, and Rennie Randolph will be on hand in an effort to turn the tide on the favored visitors. Game time is 3:00.

Sugar Bowl Officials Deny That West Virginia Has Their Bid

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17 —(AP)— Speculation grew today that West Virginia had been invited to the Sugar Bowl—at least informally—but Sugar Bowl officials insisted "the field is still wide open."

Sportswriters noted officials of the Mid-Winter Sports Association, sponsors of the event, were quick to defend the Mountaineers when they were belittled at yesterday's Quarterback Club meeting.

President Irwin Poche stressed today that the Sugar Bowlers were still considering a number of teams. "We haven't made any commitments to anybody yet," he said. "The upsets last weekend changed our mind and we decided to wait a little longer."

The top favorites for the New Year's Day game, West Virginia and Georgia Tech, lost last Saturday. Tech lost to Alabama 13-6 and West Virginia to South Carolina, 20-14.

Texas Tech entered the picture briefly when Sports Editor Hap Glaudi of the New Orleans Item plugged for the West Texas team in his column yesterday. But Poche would say only that Texas Tech "is being considered along with all the other schools."

The West Virginia speculation grew partly out of Poche's reaction yesterday when told the crowd at the Tulane-Vanderbilt game had laughed when news of West Virginia's defeat was announced.

Virginia Stresses Defense

Ralph Beaver Out With Pneumonia; Eure And Parker To Miss Va. Game

By John Hussey

Ralph Beaver, 220 lb. junior from Asheville, joined Thad Eure and Larry Parker on the ailing list yesterday as it was announced that he had contracted a slight case of pneumonia. Beaver, who had been showing up well in practice at his tackle position, will definitely be out for the Virginia game and it is doubtful if he will be ready for the final contest with Duke.

Parker will definitely be out of commission for the remainder of the season with a broken hand received in the Notre Dame game. Eure, who injured his knee in practice about two weeks ago, will not make the trip to Charlottesville but may be ready for the game in Durham.

Coach Barclay sent the Tar Heels out under the lights last night in one of the hardest and fastest scrimmages of the season so far.

McGuire, Freeman Lead Basketball Clinic At Gym

Tomorrow night varsity coaches McGuire and Freeman will hold a basketball clinic for the benefit of all students interested in basketball. It is required that intramural managers and officials attend.

A large crowd is expected and provided for by bleachers set up around the court. The coaches will explain and demonstrate the fundamentals of basketball and many of the game's important phases.

MURALS

The volleyball finals will be played today and in the dormitory division Medical School-1 takes on Law School-2, a repeat of the tag football finals. The winner of yesterday's KA-1 vs. TEP-1 game plays the Sigma Chi-1 Zeta Psi-1 winner for the fraternity league title. Thursday the two winners from the two divisions meet to decide the Campus Championship.

Student tickets to the Carolina-Duke game played in Durham November 28 are on sale at the ticket office in Woollen Gym for $1.00.

Ticket sale will close noon Saturday, and all tickets will be their regular $4.00 price then. Athletic passbooks will be required here and at Duke.

Student wife and date tickets will be provided at the $4.00 price.

He hardly gave the players time to breathe between plays as they marched for several touchdowns against the frosh team.

"Teedee" Bulloch, Al Long and Marshall Newman, three sophomores, saw most of the action at quarterback, while the principle runners were Dick Lackey, Billy Williams, Ken Keller, Flo Worrell and Nick Marcopulos.

When the Tar Heels travel to Charlottesville this weekend they will be in quest of their first victory over the Cavaliers since 1949. In spite of the recent UVA. domination, the Carolina lads will be heavy favorites to topple the badly mangled Virginians.

In the season thus far, the Cavaliers have had but one lone win, that being over George Washington. Both teams are in the midst of five game losing streaks but the Tar Heels should be favored by one or two touchdowns this Saturday.

While At Charlottesville

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Nov. 17 —(AP)— Coach Ned McDonald sent his Virginia squad through a lively defensive scrimmage today preparing for the North Carolina game here Saturday.

Out of defensive action were such line regulars as tackle Joe Mehalick, guards John Polzer and Don Alexander, end Fred Moyer and center Jim Pugh. All, though, will be in the lineup against the Tar Heels.
