TEEDEE BULLOCK DESERVES his chance. Anyone familiar with the heretofore third string quarterback's story knows that it is filled with tough breaks, yet Bullock has shown in the past he may easily be the best signal caller on the team. Yesterday, a day when all the quarterbacks were looking good, Bullock stood out like an inflamed digit the short while he was in the game. Taking nothing away from the excellent jobs done by both Al Long and Marshall Newman, Bullock satisfied the fans most and seemed to handle the team best.

Circumstances didn't lend themselves to a true appraisal of Bullock's job, however. He went in the game when State was tired and Carolina was deep in its territory. The game was virtually won before Teedee led the team to its insurance touchdown. Bullock deserves a start so he can show what he has from the very beginning.

Briefly, this is Bullock's story: As a freshman he started out at halfback, switched to quarter, and caught the fancy of the crowd against Virginia when he ran 69 yards for a score while Carolina sank in ignominious defeat. His sophomore year he was outstanding in the Maryland game until he hurt his ankle, an injury that never left him. Spring practice last year did without Teedee, who underwent an operation for internal injuries and missed the whole show.

THE CAROLINA COACHES could only shake their heads and shrug their shoulders when asked about Bullock before practice this fall, pointing out he missed the all-important spring workouts. Then, on the first day of fall practice, Bullock hit a blocking dummy and suffered a concussion, putting him out again. He kept at it though, and was allowed to start practicing last week. It would have been an injustice to Bullock if the coaches had played him too much yesterday, with his lack of preparation. But he has proven he is a bright boy, a good football player, and he will be ready soon.

Bullock is an active boy, with extra-curricular activities other than football. Some people take the attitude that football and school is enough for any man to do, and that something must suffer if a player takes on more. It has been said Bullock doesn't want to play enough, that when the going gets rough he isn't there with the goods. Teedee will tell anyone he wants to play football, that he loves football.

Bullock deserves a chance, and I'm sure he'll get one. It will be up to him after that. The Ayden junior has a large following of people who firmly believe that he is the best quarterback on the team. It can't be denied that he is a cute ball handler and a good runner, one of the best. He calls a wide open game as shown by the plays he called while leading Carolina to a score yesterday, and that pleases the crowd.

Coach Barclay simply said that all three of his quarterbacks looked good and he was pleased. Coach Bill Edwards, who makes backfields his specialty, watched the game from the press box and gave instructions on the phone. He couldn't hide his pleasure over Bullock's work, and said, "Yes, he deserves a chance. And I'm sure he'll get one."

A hurt doesn't help the team a bit. The question is, can he take it? I think so. But it's up to him.

NOTES: CONNIE GRAVITTE seemed to be victimized twice on interference calls. Don Klochak has solved the fullback problem, but he needs to run with his head up, not watching his shoes. He can punt, too. Larry Parker showed he can get a good out of the ball. Bill Koman did a lot of wrecking from his backer-up spot. Will Frye looked like the outstanding lineman, and Dick Starner and Norman Lane made Carolina fans breath easier on the end situation. Why did Frye stand still on a punt return once? The team missed halfback Ken Keller, as was expected, especially around the outside. In fact, Carolina didn't do much around ends at all. There was every indication that spirit was at a new high before the game, but from the sound of things yesterday it looks like we'll have to get Nose Jones back. Jim Fountain does a good job and has excellent ideas, but let's not get so engrossed in the game we forget to lead the cheers. Is it fashionable to curse again?

Aldridge Leads Duke Victory

Blue Devils Score 32 Points In Final Period

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 25 (AP)—Long-legged Bryant Aldridge broke down the door and a hard-hitting Duke team poured through to a crushing 52-0 victory over "new look" Pennsylvania today in an inter-sectional football opener at Franklin Field.

Coach Bill Murray cleaned his bench of 40 men and finished with third and fourth stringers in handing Penn its first humiliating defeat since Army's Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis rolled up a 61-0 score in 1945.

It was a sad debut for Penn's new coach, Steve Sebe, who brought in a new regime from Michigan State.

Aldridge, a six-foot, 197-pounder from Kinston, N. C., personally marshalled a 76-yard touchdown drive which broke a scoreless deadlock late in the second period and set Duke's awesome scoring machine into motion.

Before the day had ended before a crowd of 35,000 the Blue Devils had pushed over two more touchdowns in the third period and five in the fourth in a rout which saw Sam Eberdt, son of a famous Alabama great, also reach for stardom.

Eberdt, a senior fullback from Arlington, Va., scored two touchdowns in the last period and set up a third with a pass interception.

Aldridge also accounted for two touchdowns, his first coming on a two-yard plunge after he had picked up 65 of the 7 yards in the second period and his second in the final period on a four-yard plunge.

Other Duke scorers were Jerry Barger, on a one-yard sneak after a 69-yard drive; Sonny Sorrell on a 35-yard pass from Buddy Bass; Bernie Blaney on 20-yard run and Bill Conner on a 55-yard maneuver after taking a lateral from Eberdt, who had intercepted a Penn pass.

Aldridge and halfback Bob Pascal of Bloomfield, N. J., carried the Duke attack through the first three periods when Penn effectively bottled the Devils' headline stars, Worth (a million) Lutz and Jerry Barger. But it was Eberdt, a bench sitter for the last two years, who fired the last quarter assault, scoring on a 14-yard play and another time from seven yards out.

Duke 52 Penn 0
Duke scoring: Touchdowns, Aldridge 2, Eberdt 2, Barger, Sorrell, Blaney, Conner. Conversions, Aldridge 2, Nelson 2.

Tech Downs Wake, 32 To 0; Georgia Edges Clemson Tigs

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 25 (AP)—Virginia Tech's fast-moving backs, operating behind vicious blocking, reduced Wake Forest's usually stout defenses to a shambles here today as the Gobblers routed the Deacons 32-0 in a football game that featured Richmond's sixth annual Tobacco Festival.

Halfback Howie Wright of Dover, Del., a defensive specialist in the days of the two-platoon system, was the most offensive of all the Gobblers.

Wright brought the crowd of 17,000 to its feet with two spectacular touchdown gestures. He grabbed quarterback Bill Cranwell's second quarter pass on a play covering 62 yards and ran 25 yards unopposed.

Wright struck again in the third quarter, springing off right tackle for 64 yards and six more points. Before Wright's dashes, quarterback Johnny Dean had put the Techmen out front on the first play of the second quarter with a one-foot sneak.

Georgia-Clemson

AITHENS, Ga., Sept. 25 (AP)—Slim Jimmy Harper, endowed today with a large measure of predecessor Zeke Bratkowski's passing wizardry, hurled the Georgia Bulldogs to a 14-7 triumph over Clemson.

Harper, a 6-ft 1, 171-pound junior from Thomasville, Ga., guided Georgia to a tying touchdown in the second quarter—a 55-yard drive in eight plays that included six aerials. With the Clemson defense loose, he sent fullback Bob Clemens 17 yards up the middle for the score.

Then, with the final quarter half gone, he lofted a 32-yard beauty deep into the end zone to halfback Jimmy Williams for the six-pointer that gave the Southeastern Conference Bulldogs a mild upset. The betting fraternity called the game even, but, sideline observers rated Clemson a slight favorite.

Clemson, a highly regarded team in the powerful Atlantic Coast Conference, hung up the first six points on the second play of the second quarter when sophomore halfback Jim Coleman scurried over from the three to climax an 83-yard drive consisting entirely of ground plays from a winged-five formation which fooled the sophomore-studded Georgia line.

Clemson lost a second touchdown when sophomore quarterback Charlie Bussey, subbing for injured star Don King, passed wide with halfback Joe Paglieli open near the Georgia goal line.

Brazel, Caskey Score Twice

Wet Ground, Fumbles Injure Army Chances

WEST POINT, N. Y., Sept. 25 (AP)—South Carolina double-platooned a green and undermanned Army football team with a horde of fleet backs today and handed the Cadets a crushing 34-20 defeat in their opening game of the season.

It was only the third time in Army football history that the Cadets had lost an opener. It happened in 1890, when Army lost the first and only game it played. And again when Villanova won in 1951. Carl Brazel and Mike Caskey, who scored two touchdowns apiece, were the leaders in the potent South Carolina running attack, but it operated just about as well when Bill Tarrer and Tommy Woodlee replaced them at the halfback spots.

Four of the five South Carolina touchdowns were scored on the ground and three of them on drives of 96, 97 and 80 yards.

Army suffered a crushing blow when Bob Kyasky, heralded sophomore halfback who had done much to keep the Cadets in the game, went out with an injured shoulder just after South Carolina's Gamecocks had tied the score at 14-14 late in the second period.

A series of costly fumbles, due in part to a wet ball after showers had drenched the field just before the game began, also hurt Army's chances. The first two touchdowns were set up by recovered fumbles and Army, leaning 14-7, seemed headed for another, when Pat Lebel fumbled on the South Carolina four and tackle Bob Schwartz recovered for the Gamecocks.

From there South Carolina went all the way, with just one pass, to score and tie it up 14-14.

In the third period the Carolinians opened up again with wide runs and pitchouts from the sliding T formation that seemed to have the Army defense completely bewildered. They moved 93 yards this time, all on the ground, to send Tommy Woodlee over.

S. C. 7 7 7 13-34

South Carolina scoring: Touchdowns, Brazel 2, Caskey 2, Woodlee. Conversions: Silas 2, Jarrett 2.
Army scoring: Touchdowns, Bell, Ziegler 2.
Conversions: Chesnauskas 2.

Carolina Smashes N. C. State For Eighth Successive Time

(Continued from Page 1) on a quarterback sneak. Gravitte converted and Carolina took the lead, 7-0. Less than three minutes after the third period opened Carolina scored again. Newman intercepted a Billy Franklin pass on the 50 yard line where he was immediately tackled. Larry McMullen, operating out of the fullback position, drove through the line to the State 44. Newman then hit Gravitte about 20 yards downfield and Connie walked to the goal. Newman's kick was deflected by State's Harry Lodge. Six minutes later Nardone snatched Newman's job and tallied for State. Klochak's running was one of the highlights of the Carolina victory. The 213-pound fullback carried eight times for an average of five yards per carry. In the last quarter he bulled and stamped like a mad bull, his head down and legs pumping him toward the goal. McMullen also looked good, averaging 4.2 yards per try.

Carolina scored before Carolina began to move with determination. The Tar Heels drove into State territory and the downs ran out, Larry Parker punted to the State 12. State halfback Ted Kilyk ran back down the sidelines to the UNC 30 but a clipping penalty left State on its own 11. An exchange of punts and a State fumble, recovered by Carolina guard Roland Perdue, placed the ball on State's nine. Newman moved the Tar Heels to the two and on the next play took it over

I got into high school plays, wrestled props at Provincetown, understudied, sat for months in producers' reception rooms. One rainy night, sick with a cold, I read for a good role, and got it!"
