STEVENS-SHEPHERD

salutes

BILL KOMAN

Selected by the sportswriters (seated in the press box) as Carolina's most valuable player in Saturday's game with State.

Joe Augustine, manager of Stevens-Shepherd, invites Bill to come by the store and select a shirt of his choice as a token of his fine performance in Saturday's game.

Each week Stevens-Shepherd will present a gift to the player chosen by the scribes as the best performer in that week's contest.

Did The Boys From State Do This?

Somebody, no one knows exactly who, burned the name of a foreign college into the lawn beside Morehead Planetarium over the weekend. The initials, quite plain to Planetarium passers-by, spell out N-C-S. Several sources said they thought the initials might stand for North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering, whose football team took a licking here Saturday, but no one has come forward with any actual proof that the boys from Raleigh did it. See story on page one.—R. B. Henley Photo.

Library Lecture Tickets

Freshman scheduled for library lectures in the Assembly Room on Wednesdays are reminded to check their library-lecture tickets for their assignments.

Since these lectures are compulsory, any conflict should be reported to the reference desk on the second floor of the Library as soon as possible.

University Party

The University Party will meet for the second time this year tonight at 7:30 in the Roland Parker Lounge of Graham Memorial.

A spokesman for the party said yesterday that all interested freshmen are urged to attend the meeting as plans will be made for the year's work. He also said that all old members should attend as "much committee work was to be done."

Freshman Fellowship Sponsors Trip To Averett Next Friday

Last Friday six boys from the Freshman Fellowship went to Averett College in Danville, Va. to plan the dance which Averett College will give next Saturday.

The six who went were Bob Leonard, chairman of the programs committee; Jim Turner and Frank Livingston, steering committee advisors; Mitchell Borden, chairman of the deputations committee, and Joe Clapp and Stewart Colson, deputations committee members.

The Committee was met by seven girls from Averett's upper classes and were taken downstairs to a social room, called the "Spot." From there they were taken to the main dining room and were given a delicious supper.

After supper a meeting of the two dance committees were called to order and plans for the dance were discussed and decided upon. It was decided that each boy who goes to the dance from UNC will pick out a girl of his own height or thereabouts, and she will be his date for the first dance. The program is as follows:

At 6:30 p. m. the chartered bus will leave from the Y Court for Danville, arriving there about 8 o'clock. The Dance Committees will match up the boys and girls for the dance, and the first dance will begin at 8:15.

For all the freshmen who are interested, a booth will be kept open in the YMCA lobby through Wednesday. Freshmen may sign their dates there or see Mitchell Borden in room 108, Lewis.

GMAB Holds Weekly Events For Students

The Graham Memorial Activities Board is sponsoring three series of weekly events for the student body.

Ballroom dancing lessons will be given each Tuesday beginning Sept. 28 in the Rendezvous Room. Mrs. V. L. Bounds will be the instructor. This activity will be sponsored by the GMAB Dance Committee and the Freshman Fellowship.

Football movies of previous UNC game will be shown every Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Roland Parker Lounge. Coach George Barclay or assistants will narrate and refreshments will be served. The movies will be sponsored by the GMAB Recreation Committee.

The World Series Baseball games will be on TV each Wednesday afternoon as long as they are shown. Refreshments will be served at this time also.

Auto Registration

The office of the Dean of Student Affairs yesterday reminded all students who have cars at the University that they are required by a regulation of the board of trustees to register them with the office in 206 South Building at the beginning of each school year.

The traffic committee also reminded students that all parking lots on the campus proper are restricted to full time faculty staff and physically handicapped students between the hours of 7 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

(The campus proper is defined as that area bounded on the north by Franklin Street, the south by Raleigh Road, on the east by South Columbia Street and the west by South Pittsboro Road.)

Alpha Phi O Service Frat Sets Meeting

There will be a meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the APO room, downstairs in Graham Memorial, for all brothers, pledges and rushes of Alpha Phi Omega, campus service fraternity, according to Charles Katzenstein.

Katzenstein said the first rush meeting of the organization this fall was held last Thursday at the Lutheran Church, "where a sizable group of interested Carolina men heard two distinguished friends of APO," Dr. Lee Brooks of the Sociology Department, and Roy Armstrong, University director of admissions, "praise the work of the group."

Alpha Phi Omega, organized for former Boy Scouts, is dedicated to carrying on the Scout ideal of service. Two hundred and 27 chapters are located on campuses throughout the nation.

APO information booths were set up and in operation during last Saturday's Consolidated University. Katzenstein invited all interested persons to attend APO's meeting tonight.

Got a Lucky Droodle in your noodle?

SEND IT IN AND MAKE $25

MAN PLAYING TROMBONE IN TELEPHONE BOOTH

SHIP ARRIVING TOO LATE TO SAVE DROWNING WITCH

Want to pick up $25? Make up a Lucky Droodle and send it in. It's easy.

If you want to find out just how easy it is, ask Roger Price, creator of Droodles. "Very!" Price says. Better yet, do a Droodle yourself, like the ones shown here.

Droodle anything you like. And send in as many as you want. If we select yours, we'll pay $25 for the right to use it, together with your name, in our advertising. We're going to print plenty—and lots that we don't print will earn $25 awards.

Draw your Droodles any size, on any piece of paper, and send them with your descriptive titles to Lucky Droodle, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y. Be sure your name, address, college and class are included.

While you're droodling, light up a Lucky—the cigarette that tastes better because it's made of fine tobacco... and "It's Toasted" to taste better.
