

Giants Beat Tribe Again, 3-1

Rhodes Turns Tide Of Battle

Mike Garcia, Gomez Will Work Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—Dusty Rhodes, whose 10th inning homer won the opening game, blasted his second home run and a pinch-hit single today as the New York Giants took a two-game lead over the Cleveland Indians with a 3-1 World Series victory.

It was Rhodes' pinch hit single in the fifth which sparked a rally that broke pitcher Early Wynn's spirit after four hitless innings and it was his homer in the seventh—a towering blow which hit the upper facade in right field—which clinched the decision.

Excellent clutch pitching by Johnny Antonelli, the Giants' young bonus southpaw, contributed to the triumph. The Indians had men on base in every inning except the eighth but they could never muster a rally.

Smith Homers

The only Cleveland run came in the first inning when Al Smith slashed Antonelli's opening pitch over the left field roof for a home run.

Rhodes has become the individual stickout of the present series. As a pinch-hitter yesterday, he hit the first pitch into the right field stands for a game-clinching home run.

Rhodes, a pinch-hit sensation for the Giants all year when he had 15 hits in 45 times at bat, now has three hits in his only three bat appearances. His home runs have been the Giants' only extra base hits.

Indians Hit Friday

Now the two teams move to Cleveland where the Indians have the gigantic task of overtaking the National League champions. Mike Garcia, 19-8, is scheduled to pitch for the Indians, with Ruben Gomez, 17-9, going for the Giants.

Keller Will Not Start In Tulane Encounter

Kenny Keller, Carolina's star left halfback, will definitely not be a starter Saturday afternoon when the Tar Heels take the field against Tulane in New Orleans.

Coach George Barclay announced yesterday that, although Keller would see more action than he did last week against N. C. State, the 185-pound "Mr. Outside" would not be in the starting line-up. Keller suffered a severely sprained ankle two weeks ago in a scrimmage and has not been in heavy equipment since, except for the State game in which he was used sparingly.

Barclay also said that he plans to use the same line-up that dumped State, 20-6. Marshall Newman will call signals while Connie Gravitte and Larry Parker will start at the halves. Don Klochak, the only sophomore in the starting eleven, will be at fullback. Will Frye and Ed Starner will be at ends, Jack Maulfby and Roland Perdue at the tackle posts, with Bill Koman and George Foti playing guard. Bill Kirkman is Barclay's choice at center.

Yesterday, the Tar Heels ran through their last practice session before their meeting with Tulane. Working in light equipment, Barclay had his men running through plays and working out punt patterns. Defense was also stressed in the short workout.

The Tar Heels depart for New Orleans from the Raleigh-Durham Airport this afternoon at one o'clock. Saturday's game time is set for 3:15 o'clock Eastern Standard Time.

Gomez Will Pitch, But Leo's Mind Is Open On Left Field

are now riding the crest. They showered and dressed hurriedly to catch the plane to Cleveland.

Manager Al Lopez of the Cleveland Indians, wearing a weary and worried look, said today he plans some lineup changes tomorrow as the Cleveland Indians at Cleveland tomorrow—but kept his mind open about the left field position.

Left field is where Monte Irvin has been playing—except when Dusty Rhodes goes in to hit game-winning homers.

"I'll make up my mind tomorrow morning," said Durocher in the dressing room after today's 3-1 victory.

"That was a lot of pitching today. Johnny Antonelli was great." "Elaborate on that, Leo," someone commanded.

"How can I?"

As for Rhodes, the modest Southerner, center of attraction as the star of two straight World Series victories, shrugged off his single that drove in the first run, and his homer that put the game on ice.

"This wasn't nothing beside of yesterday," he said.

Just as was the case yesterday, when Durocher heaped praise on his relief pitchers, today it was Antonelli who drew the bouquets from the peppery manager—with, of course, a large bow in the direction of Dusty Rhodes.

"John musta pitched 8,000 balls," said Durocher, "but he was great. That Early Wynn pitched great, too. I never really had any idea of taking Antonelli out, though."

Asked why he went to the mound in the first inning with the bases loaded, Durocher replied: "I just wanted to slow him down. After that he was more deliberate. But he needed settling."

Antonelli, a clean-cut youngster from Rochester, said he liked to see Rhodes go to the plate on his side whenever he was pitching.

"I believe he was instrumental one way or another, in 12 out of 21 games I won this year," he said.

Antonelli, although dripping sweat, looked fresh and strong. "I believe I can come back on Sunday, if the skipper wants me," he said.

It seems he did not have any one strong pitch today—"I just threw everything I had."

That coincided with the reports Durocher was getting from his catcher, Wes Westrum. "My man had good stuff all the time, right through the ninth inning. Westrum kept looking back and telling me," said Leo.

As for the ninth, with two on and the dangerous Vic Wertz at bat, Leo said that even if Antonelli had walked Wertz he would have left him in—"I still would rather have Johnny pitch to Wally Westlake than anyone else I know."

There was more noise today in the Giant dressing room than after winning yesterday's opener. The feeling was strong the Giants

Hutchinson Is Out As Pilot

Quits Amid Rumors That He May Join Baltimore

Detroit, Sept. 20.—Fred Hutchinson resigned today as manager of the Detroit Tigers amid rumors he next would be seen in the uniform of the Baltimore Orioles.

Hutchinson's resignation had been anticipated since he announced he would settle for nothing less than a two-year contract as manager. The six-man board of directors, led by Tiger President Walter O. Spike Briggs, voted today to offer Hutchinson the Tigers' usual one year contract and Hutchinson immediately declined.

Some sources close to the Tigers said Frank Lefty O'Doul, manager of San Diego in the Pacific Coast League, had not only been offered the job as Tiger manager but had indicated he would accept.

Briggs said he hoped a decision on Hutchinson's replacement would come Friday.

O'Doul, who guided San Diego to a league pennant this season, has managed San Francisco for many years and reportedly has had several major league offers, all of them declined.

Hutchinson, the youngest manager in the major leagues as 35, would say only that he was resigning because of "personal reasons."

His firmness in holding out for the two-year contract bolstered rumors he had been offered a job as coach of the Orioles and would work with his old friend, Paul Richards.

Booters Tangle With Ft. Bragg

Coach Marvin Allen's 1954 soccer squad gets its first outside competition today against Ft. Bragg. Game time is 3 p. m. at Fetzer Field.

Since it is a practice affair for both teams, emphasis is expected to be placed on the offense and a high scoring game is predicted.

The Ft. Bragg team defeated the Carolina squad in two practice tilts last year and will be favored again today. Several former European stars give the Soldiers added strength at the forward positions.

Freshman Coach Harry Pawlick again advises all freshmen who are interested in soccer to report to practice during the afternoon sessions from 3 to 6 p. m.
