

Tar Babies Top Virginia, 20-14, In Free-Swinging Affair

Over The Hill

By FRED BABSON

Today may well be the Tar Heel's day. Last week a hurricane forced them into an all-night train ride, dampening their chances for an upset victory over Maryland.

Bad luck and a plague of recurring mistakes seem to have haunted the Blue and White this year. They haven't yet managed to 'click' solidly for 60 continuous minutes—in a game.

The Tar Heels CAN play football, though—winning football. The coaches know it, the players know it. At any moment they may start to "click."

N. C. State has one bright spot in their otherwise dull grid picture. It is a pint-sized halfback named George Marinkov.

Hopes for an investigation of the Gavilan-Saxton title bout seems to have been killed... The Boxing Commission says Saxton must defend his title against Carmen Basilio.

Notre Dame's football enthusiasts had a little scare yesterday... Irish quarterback and All-American candidate Ralph Guglielmi was involved in an auto accident.

Family Battles Slated In North State League

GREENSBORO, Oct. 22 (AP) A pair of family battles, always good for plenty of football action, highlight the North State Conference's grid schedule this week end.

Catawba and Elon meet for the 20th time in their series at Burlington Saturday night with the Christians observing their homecoming in the fray.

Appalachian's league leaders move outside the conference against Emory and Henry at Emory, Va., and East Carolina is host to East Tennessee in another non-conference battle to complete the schedule.

Guilford has an open date. All games are set to begin at 8 p. m. Saturday night.

Elon, and up and down club, holds within its grasp the possibility of tying Appalachian for the 1954 crown... but the Christians must win all their remaining conference clashes to accomplish this feat.

Therefore, even though Catawba has dropped three straight within the loop, tomorrow night's clash at Burlington shapes up as an important one for the Christians.

By winning, they can remain in the race.

Should Elon lose, then Appalachian could clinch the title tomorrow night.

Except for tackle Ed Davidson, the Christians are reported ready to go.

Cross Country Team To Run In 3-Way Meet

Carolina will pin its cross-country hopes on Jim Beatty, a sophomore flash, and veteran Bob Barden, as the Tar Heels play host to Maryland and Wake Forest in a 3-way meet this morning.

The Tar Heels ride the crest of a two-meet winning streak, both by perfect scores of 15, after an opening season loss to N. C. State. However, Maryland is favored to take the meet.

The Maryland team, who have competed in only one meet, a loss to N. C. State, will be paced by two sophomores, Alva Grimm and Charles Party. Wake Forest, who returns to the cross country scene after a layoff of several years, has not been in a meet this season.

Preceding the varsity encounter, the freshman team will meet Wake Forest. Three of the Tar Babies best men will be unable to run because of quizzes.

Both varsity and freshman teams have identical records, two wins and one loss, the loss coming at the hands of last year's ACC Champion Wolfpack.

Wake Forest Will Hold Back Their Pass Game, According to Deacons

WAKE FOREST, Oct. 22—Dig these crazy, mixed-up football coaches.

With the leading passer and the leading pass receiver in the conference at his disposal, Coach Tom Rogers has decided to stay on the ground Saturday afternoon when the Deacons invade Chapel Hill for an ACC battle with North Carolina's Tar Heels.

Quarterback Nick Consoles, a junior from Lynn, Mass., is the top hurler in the league with 22 completions in 45 attempts. His aeriels have accounted for 221 yards and two touchdowns.

Both are in the top spot in their respective departments, yet the Deacons may use the passing game sparingly against the Tar Heels.

Why this decision to play like the infantry and march on the ground? It's simple. The Deacs have gained 786 yards rushing in 202 carries for a nifty 3.9 average, and the ground game was instrumental in chalking up a 26-0 win over N. C. State and a 13-13 tie with Maryland.

Wake Forest's first-string backfield of Bill Barnes and Burt Harrison at fullback has a rushing average of four yards per try, and the second team backfield of John Parham and Bob Fredrick at halfbacks and Nick Maravic at fullback has a 3.8 rushing average.

Rogers isn't saying that Wake won't pass against the Tar Heels. His quarterbacks have been instructed to pass if the ground game falters, and a few tosses now and then will serve to keep the UNC defense honest.

TACKLE JACK MAULTSBY, who was a standout on defense against Maryland last week, despite the fact that he was not in top shape, will be back at his peak for the game this afternoon.

Duke Rated Three-Touchdown Favorite To Beat N. C. State

RALEIGH N. C., Oct. 22 (AP) Duke's football team, dropped to 19th in this week's Associated Press poll following its loss to Army, starts the comeback climb here tomorrow night against North Carolina State as a three touchdown favorite.

The 30th meeting of the state rivals finds Duke leading the series, 21-7, with one tie. North Carolina State won the first four games of the series, but since Duke's 1933 victory State has won only one game, that in 1946 by a 13-6 score.

State lacks the manpower re-

Buddy Sasser Injured; Sub David Reed Engineers Show

Reed Passes for Two TD's, Williams Scores Another in Brawl-Marked Tilt

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 22—In a freeswinging game marked by a brawl and a near-riot here today, the University of North Carolina freshmen scored in the final period to down the University of Virginia frosh, 20-14.

Carolina's star quarterback, George "Buddy" Sasser, was injured in the opening minutes of the tilt and was replaced by David Reed of Shamokin, Pa. The previously unheard-of Reed proved to be the man of the hour as he ran and passed the Tar Babies to victory.

Both teams were scoreless in the first quarter, but Reed put the visitors ahead in the second stanza with a touchdown aerial to Vincent Olin on a play that covered 37 yards.

With one and a half minutes remaining in the first half, Fullback Howard Williams crashed over right tackle for 10 yards and another score to give the Tar Babies a commanding 13-0 lead at halftime.

During the third quarter the count remained the same, until with 30 seconds remaining in that stanza, Virginia Quarterback Jimmy Moyer sneaked over.

Virginia kicked off what appeared to be an on-sides kick. But the kicker's foot inadvertently glanced the ball, sending it only 16 yards downfield.

Another weak Cavalier kickoff gave the Tar Babies possession of the ball on their 44 yard line. From there Quarterback Reed engineered Carolina down the field, finally making a 21-yard paydirt loss to Howard Williams with seven minutes remaining in the game.

Reed was easily the outstanding Carolina player of the day. He

Chi Phi, ZBT Eke Out Wins

Action on the Intramural slate was limited to two games for the four o'clock schedule. Chi Psi-2 and Phi Gam-1 double forfeited, while Lambda Chi took a forfeit decision from SAE, 1-0.

In the remaining games, Chi Phi squeezed past Sig Nu by a 1-0 overtime score, while ZBT gained victory from AK Psi-1 in the same manner. Chi Phi and Sig Nu played a wide open game, with action see-sawing up and down the field.

The ZBT - AK-Psi-1 game was primarily a defensive encounter, with action limited to between the forty yard stripes. Late in the final period, AK Psi drove to the ZBT 10 yard line, but a pass interception ended the threat.

Penalties helped the ZBT cause in the overtime period, and AK Psi went down to defeat.

ONE TIME OR ANOTHER I'VE TRIED PRACTICALLY ALL OF THE CIGARETTE BRANDS. RESULT IS — I'M A STEADY CAMEL SMOKER. I PREFER CAMEL'S FINE RICH FLAVOR — AND, BELIEVE ME, THEY'RE GENUINELY MILD YOU TRY 'EM AND SEE!

CEDRIC ADAMS says: "When I was at the University of Minnesota, learning to be a reporter for the Daily, I lived on peanut butter sandwiches. It took me nine years to graduate (with time out to earn tuition!) When I married and went to work as a cub for the Star, I lived on love and macaroni. I worked like a horse writing about everything on earth, before I made the grade as a columnist. Now I'm eating better — even better than a horse!"
