

Buckeyes Replace Sooners As No. 1 In AP Poll

Oklahoma Drops To Second; UCLA Third; Arkansas Fourth

Powerful Army Rises To Fifth, While Duke Drops To 16th; Terp-Beaters 10th

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ohio State's Buckeyes, a collection of football players with roses in their eyes and mayhem in their hearts, have replaced Oklahoma as the No. 1 college team in the opinion of the nation's sports writers and broadcasters.

They earned the honor crushing Wisconsin 31-14 last Saturday while Oklahoma was sliding listlessly through a 21-0 decision over Kansas State. Oklahoma had been on top of the Associated Press poll for three weeks.

Oklahoma collected 10 more first place votes than Ohio State—74-64—but the Bucks edged ahead on the second place ballots, of which 69 went to Ohio State and only 49 to the Sooners.

The final count, on the usual 10-9-8, etc., basis, gave Ohio State 1,858 points and Oklahoma 1,834. UCLA, with 45 firsts, was right behind with 1,800 points, and the surprising Arkansas team fourth with 1,351.

Ohio State was fourth last week while Wisconsin was second to Oklahoma.

UCLA, which walloped Oregon State 61-0, polled a much higher vote than it did a week ago in retaining third place.

Arkansas, a "team of destiny" which came from nowhere to take the Southwest Conference lead and then knocked Mississippi from the ranks of the unbeaten, jumped from seventh to fourth. Army rose from ninth to fifth and West Virginia from 10th to seventh.

The new order, after the first four, is Army, Notre Dame, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Purdue and Miami, Fla., conquerors of Maryland.

The leading teams:

1. Ohio State—64	1858
2. Oklahoma—74	1834
3. UCLA—45	1800
4. Arkansas—16	1351
5. Army—1	974
6. Notre Dame—1	727
7. West Virginia—6	478
8. Wisconsin	460
9. Purdue	393
10. Miami, Fla.	369

Second 10:

11. Michigan	344
12. Mississippi	318
13. USC	184
14. Virginia Tech—1	124
15. Navy	78
16. Duke	75
17. Texas Christian	57
18. SMU	53
19. Rice	51
20. Cincinnati	39

Chi Phi Shows Power; ZBT Wins Overtime

Zeta Beta Tau won a spectacular overtime game, defeating Pi Kappa Phi 1-0. The game was an even affair with both teams having sustained drives, but neither could get up the necessary scoring punch. After Pi Kappa Phi held ZBT on a goal line stand in the closing minutes, the game ended in a scoreless tie. On the last play of the overtime, Irv Gottlieb threw to Al Reinsnick for the win.

ZBT 0 0 1
Pi Kap Phi 0 0 0
Chi Phi unleashed a powerful running and passing attack, which along with some razzle-dazzle plays, gave them a 33-0 victory over Lambda Chi Alpha. Joe Cruciani was the big gun for Chi Phi as he scored twice. Roger Herbert, Al Moise, Bill Sanders, were all outstanding. Chi Phi, under the tutelage of Jack Little and Bob Merritt showed a fine piece of coaching work.

Chi Phi 13 20 33
Lambda Chi Alpha 0 0 0
Scoring: Chi Phi—TD's, Al Moise, Bill Sanders, Joe Cruciani, 2. Roger Herbert, PAT, Dick Armstrong, Charlie Fitzgerald, Al Holt.

Sophomore halfback Ed Sutton, who scored two touchdowns Saturday to give Carolina an upset 14-7 victory over Wake Forest, has been selected "Athlete of the Week" by the sports staff of the Daily Tar Heel.

Sutton was given a race for the honor by trackman Jim Beatty, who set a course record of 19:42 Saturday morning in a three-way meet with Wake Forest and Maryland.

The fleet scaback was named "Athlete of the Week" once before this year on the basis of his performance against Georgia.

Ed Sutton's performance against the Deacons rivaled that of any other athletic feat put on by a Tar Heel this season. The pre-med student not only accounted for both touchdowns, but also scored a third on a 64-yard run which was nullified because Carolina was detected clipping on the play.

Ed Sutton has not seen too much action to date. He has 16.25 Average. Sutton is Connie Gravitte's understudy, being a member of Coach George Barclay's second "first string." He has carried only 12 times all year and has a rushing average of 16.25. This mark would top the Atlantic Coast Conference leaders but Sutton does not get official No. 1 spot because he has not carried as often as others.

Saturday he ran four times to gain 127 yards, averaging 31.7 yards per carry. He also caught one pass for 11 yards. His touchdown runs were jaunts of 21 and 77 yards.

Barclay said that he knew Sutton "had the stuff" all season, but that he (Barclay) was bringing the Morehead scholar along slowly. Barclay also hinted that Sutton would see much more action from now on.

Sutton is 19 years old, weighs 194 pounds and stands six feet, one inch tall.

Tar Heels In Long Workout For Vol Test

Offense and defense drew heavy attention today on Navy Field, with the Tar Heel freshmen, complete with Tennessee orange jerseys, furnishing the competition.

End Will Frye, Tackle Jack Maultsby and guard Ed Patterson stood out as the varsity tested its defense against Tennessee single wing plays.

Coach George Barclay termed the squad's defensive showing as "adequate," but said more work would have to be done in that department later this week.

Halfbacks Ed Sutton and Ken Keller, got off the longest runs of the day after the varsity turned its attention to offense. Sutton galloped for a touchdown on one play, and Keller followed with a neat 55 yard jaunt.

Larry Muschamp, suffering from a boil on his neck, joined end Dick Starnor on the sidelines for practice. Starnor is still limping from a slight leg injury sustained last Saturday. Quarterback Len Bullock returned to action.

Carolina Soccer Squad Is Host To Duke Blue Devils

By DICK ARMSTRONG

Carolina's soccer squad is host today to Duke's Blue Devils on Fetzer field at 3 o'clock. The Tar Heels will be seeking their first win of the season as they play the second game against Atlantic Coast Conference competition.

Both Duke and Carolina have identical season records of no wins and three losses. The Blue Devils will be favored however, due to their recent fine play against Maryland. The Terrapins previously defeated the Tar Heels by a 4-1 score.

UNC coach Marvin Allen hopes for a vast improvement in the Carolina squad as he has switched several men to new positions and has two key performers back in action from the injured list. Allen commented that the Tar Heels haven't played up to par since their second practice tilt against Ft. Bragg.

at left wing, Capt. Jerry Russell at right wing, Bill McGinn at inside left, Pat McCormick at inside right, Chip Bryant at center-forward, Jim Bunting at left half, Harry Brown at right half, and Calvin Lane at center-half. Grover Brown and Joe Mavretic will handle the fullback posts and Don Gladstone will be the goalie.

Reserves Tommy Kirkland, Jim Skidmore, and Dick Dodson are expected to see a lot of action.

BOB and MONK of TOWN & CAMPUS SALUTE ED SUTTON

for scoring Carolina's two touchdowns Saturday in the Tar Heel's 14-7 upset victory over Wake Forest. Sutton's touchdowns came on runs of 77 and 21 yards. He also scored a third time but the touchdown was discounted when Carolina was found to be clipping on that particular play.

We want him to drop by TOWN & CAMPUS and pick out a shirt to his liking—compliments of the house
