Winston Dorm Whoops It Up

THE BOYS IN LOWER QUAD ENTERTAIN
'Brigadoons' may be next big step

6 Of 19 Men's Dorms Are For 'Brigadoons'

Six of the men's dormitories on campus have approved the Interdormitory Council's proposed The Brigadoons by large majorities.

The dorms which have approved the measure are Stacy, on Nov. 3, Lewis and Grimes, on Nov. 4, Alexander and Aycock, on Nov. 8 and Ruffin, on Nov. 11.

In addition to these dorms, four have voted to have a referendum on the Brigadoons. These dorms are Old West, Mangum, Cobb and Connor.

As the plans are set up now, if the measure passes, The Brigadoons would sponsor a dance twice a year beginning in 1955 with a name band which is popular with the majority of the students.

A professional floor show would also be planned.

If at all possible, a stage or screen personality will be present to help with the entertainment, according to IDC spokesmen.

The final details will have to be decided on by the Board of Directors.

CRITICISM
Criticism of the idea has centered about the contingency that dormitories be required to pay a proportionate share of the expenses, according to the number of people in the dormitory.

According to a spokesman for the IDC, the reason that the matter of expenses has been incorporated into the by-laws is not because the IDC fears that it could not sell a sufficient number of tickets to sustain a loss, but because of tax laws.

"In order for The Brigadoons to succeed, the wholehearted support of all 19 men's dormitories is needed. Without their support it would not be advantageous to indorse the idea."

BY LAWS
The proposed by-laws of The Brigadoons are as follows:

Article I. Name
This organization shall be known as The Brigadoons.

Article II. Purpose
The Brigadoons is to be created as a function of The Interdormitory Council in order to sponsor a dance this year to be played by a name band, and one such dance each semester starting with the 1955-56 academic year. It is the purpose of this organization to promote the social welfare of the dormitory men and to promote fraternal relationship among the dormitories and other campus organizations.

Article III. Membership

1. Representatives from all men's dormitories shall be appointed to a Board of Directors. The representation shall be apportioned thusly:

- 2. Old East, Old West, Battle Vance Pettigrew, Whitehead, and Steele
- 2. Upper Quad
- 2. Lower Quad
- 2. Cobb
- 1. Joyner
- 1. Alexander
- 1. Conner
- 1. Winston

2. In addition to the above named representatives, the President of The Interdormitory Council shall be ex-officio President of The Brigadoons, and the Social Chairman of The Interdormitory Council shall by virtue of his office be a member of the Board of Directors.

3. The Board of Directors shall elect from its membership the following named officers: director, assistant director, secretary and treasurer.

4. Representatives from the men's dormitories shall be appointed by a majority vote of the Dormitory Executive Committee or the entire dorm where possible and by a majority vote of Dormitory Presidents where necessary.

Article IV. Funds
1. Each dormitory would be required to sell 25 per cent of the residents in their dormitory a bid to each dance. In the event that such a sum was not received, it

'Snake Pit' Shows Tonight

"Snake Pit," starring Olivia DeHavilland and Leo Genn, will be presented in the auditorium of Carroll Hall tonight at 7 o'clock. The picture is a case history of a young woman suffering from schizophrenia, one of the most common of serious mental disorders. The story is told in a simple, straightforward manner without any attempt to inflate or cover up the conditions in our state institutions. Dr. James Fortin, University psychiatrist, will lead a discussion period which is an interesting and integral part of the program.

This is the season's first presentation by the joint YMCA-Hillel Film Forum which in the past has sponsored a varied selection of motion pictures and faculty speakers. No admission will be charged.

UNC Will Decide On Leniency Bill Today

President Tom Creasy said yesterday that approval of Dave Reid's "leniency bill" would "mean in time the destruction of our Honor System."

The bill, which would liberalize punishment in first offense cheating cases, will be voted on in the campus elections today.

If it passes, it will become a constitutional amendment. "It is my personal hope," said Creasy, "that the referendum will be defeated."

The President's statement came after more than a month of argument between Dave Reid, author and presenter of the bill, and Herb Browne, chairman of the Men's Honor Council.

The Daily Tar Heel printed the text of the bill and extended statements from Reid and Browne Saturday.

Said Reid, "For the past 80 years the Honor Council has been a jury dispensing rather dubious justice. How superior will the Honor Council now be under a re-vitalized tradition? The answer is obvious: We will have a court of mercy as well as one of justice."

Said Browne, "It can not be asserted that the Honor System at Carolina operates to perfection, but the proposed changes in the bill now before the students for decision does not strike at these imperfections; instead they seem to do away with certain of these elements that in the past have contributed to the system's best effectiveness."

38-12 SP Majority On The Fire Today

By LOUIS KRAAR

Student voters will decide today whether or not to return to the Legislature the most powerful majority held by a party in student government history—the 38-12 margin now held by the Student Party.

As campaigning came to a vigorous close late yesterday, leaders from both parties predicted a legislative victory.

Twenty-nine of the Legislature's 50 seats are up for election today, 21 SP seats and eight University Party seats.

Only seven of the SP seats at stake in the election are in town districts — the traditional UP stronghold. Thus UP leaders, aiming at a legislative victory, predicted a turnover of dorm seats.

Dorm districts are traditionally the SP's strongest political grounds.

The SP has 17 holdover seats in the Legislature and the UP has four. Thus to usurp the SP's legislative majority, the UP would have to win a number of dorm seats.

TURNOVER UNLIKELY
However, a turnover in the control of the Legislature seemed unlikely yesterday since—even if the UP won reelections for its town seats and took the towns seats now held by the SP—the SP would still hold a majority.

UP leaders have been talking in terms of winning 20 seats. On the other hand, SP politicians said they expect to retain most of their powerful margin.

HALF EXPECTED
Election Board Chairman Graham Rights predicted that about half the campus would vote today. In the past the voting in fall elections has ranged from 20-36 percent, running slightly higher when a campus-wide office was at stake.

Rights attributed the higher expected vote to a revision of polling places which involves dormitory dwellers to vote where they live and provides more convenient polling places for town students.

Creasy Calls For A Large Vote Today

Student body president Tom Creasy yesterday gave his opinion on students voting in the campus-wide elections.

"I hope that every student will realize the importance of this day," he said, "and consider it his duty and responsibility to vote. Tomorrow we will send 28 Legislature, one of the most important bodies in our entire school," he continued.

Creasy added, "We will also vote pro or con on a measure that will largely determine the future of our Honor System. I cannot stress enough the real importance of every student's voting."

UP leaders have been talking in terms of winning 20 seats. On the other hand, SP politicians said they expect to retain most of their powerful margin.
