Back Injury Ends Long's Grid Career

The North Carolina football picture, gloomy following the humiliating 42-13 loss to Notre Dame Saturday, appears even darker with the announcement that Albert Long and Marshall Newman are out for the rest of the season due to injuries.

Long's injury came as a complete surprise to the Tar Heel coaching staff, and puts an end to the versatile Durham athlete's football career at Carolina, as he is a senior. Long, who has alternated at the quarterback slot with Len Bullock most of the season, received a back injury in the Irish encounter, but it was not considered serious. Upon returning to Chapel Hill, he reported to the infirmary for a routine check. X-rays were taken, and after inspecting the pictures, doctors advised that he retire for the remainder of the season. It is not known how the injury will affect Long's participation in other sports. He was a basketball reserve and a baseball regular last year. Long's record this season: Completed 17 of 28 passes for 200

Beatty Wins

COLLEGE PARK, Md., Nov. 15 —Jim Beatty, Carolina's Flying Tar Heel, summoned his last ounce of energy to burst past Maryland's running ace, Barr Grimm, in the last 20 yards to win the Atlantic Coast Conference cross-country meet and set a new course record here today. The stocky Tar Heel's time of 18:07.8 bettered by 33 seconds the old record for the three and eight-tenths mile course.

Grimm, who beat Beatty last year when they were both freshmen, but who has seen the Flying Tar Heel's heels twice this year, posted an 18:12 mark to take second place. Dave Miller of State was third at 18:25, and Bob Barden of Carolina was fourth with 18:36.

Maryland won the meet with a len score of 26 points; UNC was second with 36 points; Duke was third with 96; Virginia fourth with 114; Wake Forest fifth with 141. State did not qualify as a team due to a shortage of participants.

yards and three touchdowns; gained 122 yards rushing in 36 tries.

Newman, who started the year at quarterback and was shifted to fullback in the Wake Forest game, was the victim of a knee injury in the 20-26 Tennessee loss. The raw-boned junior has been out of uniform since then, but hopes were held that he would be back in action before the season ended.

With the definite loss of Newman and Long, Coach George Barclay's quarterback corps has dwindled to two, Len Bullock, who has started since Newman switch to fullback, and Dough Farmer, who moved up to third string at the same time.

Along with the bitter came the sweet, however, with the announcement that Ed Sutton will be ready for the Virginia tilt. Sutton emerged as the Tar Heels "great white hope" when he romped to two touchdowns, gaining 124 yards, in the 14-7 victory over Wake Forest. He sprained his ankle severely the Monday following the Deacon game, and has been out since then, missing the Tennessee, South Carolina, and Notre Dame games.

Yesterday afternoon at practice, Sutton was dressed in light equipment and running on his ankle. Afterwards, he said that he felt much better and that he was ready to go against the Cavaliers.

Ken Keller also experienced a minor injury against the Irish, but it is not serious and he will see action against Virginia. Keller hurt his shoulder.

Booters Play State Today

Carolina's varsity soccer squad travels to Raleigh today to meet N. C. State in their last outing of the 1954 season. Gametime is 3:00 p. m. on the Wolfpack campus. The Tar Heels, by virtue of a previous 1-0 win over the Wolves, will be the favorites.

Coach Marvin Allen observed yesterday that the UNC squad still has a slim chance to win the ACC title. Virginia, with 0-0-2 record, and Maryland, sporting a 2-0-1 mark, meet this week to de-ide which of the two will be probable ACC champs. But the Tar Heels, with a 3-1-1 record, may have a shot at the title if they defeat State today. Conference officials may decide in favor of the Tar Heels since they have played two more game than either the Terrapins or Cavaliers.
