

Over The Hill

By
FRED BABSON

Bob Dillard, the talented member of the DTH sports staff, comments on the UNC-Duke fracas last Saturday:

The Dookers did it again. For the fifth year in succession, the Tar Heels went down to defeat before the Devils of Duke.

Accompanied by their horned friend in skimpy blue underwear, the Duke eleven rolled onto the field at two o'clock, proceeded to roll up and down the turf for sixty minutes of playing time, and then rolled back to the field house, retainers of the Victory Bell and eminent candidates for the Orange Bowl bid.

Carolina Blue jerseys once again prevailed in Kenan Stadium, but the traditional uniform of the Carolina eleven brought no fortune to the wearers. Probably the most predominant color on the field was the twinkling black socks of the Duke backfield. Certainly it was the only color viewed with any clarity, as usually the wearers of those form-fitting hose were gambling down the field, pursued by a listless Tar Heel team.

It was a miserable day for football. The skies were overcast, and rain, mixed with a little sleet, seemed to dampen the spirits of the Tar Heel rooters. A succession of cheerleaders tried their hand at a-wakening the vocal cords of the Tar Heel supporters, but probably the only one who met with any success was the fabulous "Nose" Jones, who made a brief appearance on the rostrum. Inspired by the excellent performance of "Nose", a slightly inebriated Carolina Gentleman attempted to duplicate his feat, and although his vocabulary and spelling left a lot to be desired, he managed to hiccup his way through a slow "C-A-R-O-L-I-N-A."

The Carolina Gentleman, dressed in his top hat and tails, was the object of a lively fox hunt at the half. The Duke Devil and his partner cornered the gentleman inside the twenty yard line, and brought him down with a well executed tackle on the three, where he was relieved of his hat.

The halftime activity consisted mostly of the Carolina Band, which put on perhaps their best show of the year. Accompanied by two new majorettes, who drew admiring glances and comments from the male population of the stadium, the band successfully played its way through a program built on the theme of the four seasons of the year. The NROTC Drill Team appeared on the field at the closing end of the calm before the storm, as some referred to the halftime, and although it put on its usual fine performance, it was wasted on the listless Carolina fans.

The Duke attack, directed by Jerry Barger, who the Carolina team called "the finest quarterback we've faced all year", proved to be just too much for the Tar Heels. Coupled with some lucky pass interceptions, some driving thrusts by fullback Bryant Aldridge, and some screen passes which left the receiver with three or more blockers, in front of him, the Tar Heels were completely befuddled. It was a poor finale for the college careers of the thirteen Tar Heel seniors. All in all, the Tar Heels just didn't have it, and the Dookers did.

Blue Devil Bob Paschal skirts right end for Duke's fifth touchdown as the third quarter ended in last Saturday's 47-12 Carolina loss.

Bowl-Bound Buckeyes Are National Champs

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 29 (AP) — Rose Bowl-bound Ohio State today was named as the 1954 national collegiate football champion and winner of the O'Donnell Memorial Trophy.

In the final Associated Press ranking poll of the season, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters, casting a record-breaking ballot, named Ohio's Buckeyes by a slim margin over UCLA's Bruins. These two unbeaten teams had made it a race all through the closing weeks of the season, with Ohio State slipping ahead two weeks ago and holding on to the finish.

Oklahoma, the only other major team to finish the season unbeaten and untied, finished a strong third, the position it had held since mid-season.

Ohio State, as conference champion, will play Southern California, runnerup in the Pacific Coast Conference, in the Rose Bowl New Year's game. UCLA, winning its series ineligibility to return to the Rose Bowl. Southern California placed 17th in the final ranking after losing its last two games to UCLA and Notre Dame.

Oklahoma, perennial Big Seven champion, also is ineligible for a bowl game, having played in the Orange Bowl last New Year's Day.

Behind the unbeaten big three in the final ranking came Notre Dame Navy, Mississippi, Army, Maryland, Wisconsin and Arkansas, in order, to complete the first 10.

This represented several changes since last week's poll.

Navy, heading for the Sugar Bowl after a stirring 27-20 triumph over Army last week, moved up from sixth place to fifth and Army dropped from fifth to seventh. Mississippi, the other Sugar Bowl team, advanced a notch to sixth.

place as it ended its regular season with a 14-0 victory over Mississippi State.

Maryland climbed from 10th place to eighth, shoving Wisconsin out by a 16-point margin and Arkansas, took over 10th place, displacing beaten Baylor.

Guglielmi Gets TD Club Award

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (AP) — Ralph Guglielmi, Notre Dame's star quarterback, today was voted the Washington Touchdown Club's Walter Camp Memorial Award, honoring him as the outstanding college football back of the year. Guglielmi will receive his award at the club's annual banquet Jan. 3. UCLA's Red Sanders already has been selected Coach of the Year.

Touchdown Club officials said Guglielmi was chosen "on the basis of his all-around ability, offensive and defensive, and his inspirational leadership that has prompted many to rate him with the school's all-time football greats."

His chief opposition for the award, the officials said, came from Dick Moegle of Rice, Alan Ameche of Wisconsin and Howard Cassidy of Ohio State.

Carolina Lasses Top Duke In Hockey, 2-0

The UNC Women's hockey club, after tying a strong Meredith College team and losing to powerful W.C. came back last Monday afternoon to blast arch-rival Duke, 2-0. It was the best performance of the year for the Carolina coeds, as left wing Chappie Chapman and left inner Joan Haley broke through the Duke defense to score one goal each.

Tomorrow the coeds will play Guilford College in the last game of the season. The tilt will begin at 4:00 p.m. at Kenan Stadium. The public is invited to attend.

MANAGERS MEET

There will be an important meeting of all intra-mural athletic managers tonight at 7 p. m. in Room 301-A of Woolen Gym.

THE University Restaurant

INVITES YOU TO COME AND ENJOY
LOTS OF OUR GOOD FOOD BEER

205 E. FRANKLIN ST.
Open Evenings

Lifson, Vayda, Likins Rosenbluth Starters

BY BERNIE WEISS

Basketball Coach Frank McGuire has named Al Lifson, Jerry Vayda, Len Rosenbluth and Paul Likins as definite starters for tomorrow night's opener against the McCrary Eagles in Asheboro.

McGuire said yesterday he was not sure about his fifth man, but would choose him tonight during practice. Five men are battling for the starting berth.

McGuire is uncertain about his team's chances against the Eagles, who sport one of the best independent amateur teams in the State. Listed on the McCrary roster is Sam Ranzino, who made a name for himself at N. C. State a few years back, Bob Shoaf, former star for Guilford College, and Jim Duncan, a six-foot, 11-inch product of Duke.

The game won't count in the official record books, "But it is a tough opener away from home," McGuire said.

Last night the Tar Heel varsity got back into the practice swing after the holiday lay-over by scrimmaging the frosh.

The four starters looked especially good, and the quintet fighting for the fifth spot showed up well also. The latter group is composed of Tony Radovich, Bob Young, Frank Goodwin, Gerry McCabe and Hilliard Greene.

Vayda and Lifson are expected to spark the team tomorrow night. Last year as a sophomore Vayda scored an average of 17 points per game. Lifson had a 14.6 average. Gametime is 8 o'clock.

Chi Omega Hockey Team Wins Tourney

The powerful Chi Omega hockey team won over the Carr-Smith-Kappa Delta team, 1-0, and then went on to defeat Tri-Delt, 5-0, to win the women's hockey tournament for the second straight year. In winning the Chio's maintained their clean state of being unscored upon and untied in two tournaments.

SEAT COVERS
Complete Upholstery
Repairs
DALE'S
AUTO TRIM SHOP
116 W. Rosemary St.

USED CARS

1954 2-door Bel Aire Chevrolet
RADIO - HEATER — 9,000 MILES
LIKE NEW $1895

1953 V-8 Dodge Convertible
1 OWNER — 8,000 MILES
LIKE NEW $1595

1951 Chevrolet Fordor
RADIO - HEATER
REAL NICE CAR $995

Harriss-Conners Chevrolet

Bull's Head Bookshop
North Carolina Calendar and Pictorial History 1955 - $1.50
Tel. 3301

WEST ENTRANCE HIDDEN HERE

The easiest way to reach us is to use the Library's west entrance. Once through the door, keep winding to your left (don't go up any stairs). You're in the Bull's Head before you navigate a full 180°. Can't miss it! Can't miss it!

By Walt Kelly

By Al Capp

The Little Shop SALE

DRESSES
SUITS
Group of Sweaters

DAILY CROSSWORD

1. Fragment	2. Hurried	3. Freezer	4. Minute skin opening	5. Italian opera singer	6. Wallaba (Braz.)	7. Juice of plants	8. Capital (Libya)	9. Gang	10. Aside	11. A boring tool	12. Part of a stair	13. Swirl-like unguinate (Trop. Am.)	14. Beseech	15. Hebrew letter	16. Route	17. The best	18. Little child	19. Rent under lease	20. Faultily	21. Lean-to	22. From	23. Harass	24. Inhabitant of Iran	25. Alcoholic liquor	26. Music note	27. Asiatic country	28. Man's name	29. New Economic Policy (abbr.)
-------------	------------	------------	------------------------	-------------------------	--------------------	--------------------	--------------------	---------	-----------	-------------------	---------------------	--------------------------------------	-------------	-------------------	-----------	--------------	------------------	----------------------	--------------	-------------	----------	------------	------------------------	----------------------	----------------	---------------------	----------------	---------------------------------

Saturday's Answer

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
9				10			11
12				13			14
15				16			17
18				19			20
21	22			23			24
25				26			27
28				29			30
31				32	33	34
35				36			37
38				39			40
41				42			43
44				45			46

1. Asiatic country