Books to be read
 Before Christmas

Your old bookseller presents herewith a group of books which give more pleasure if read during, not after, the Christmas season. To put it in words of one syllable, she's more likely to behave properly under the mistletoe if you've softened her up first by a little reading aloud session with one of these books.

- No Tears For Christmas, by Helen Topping Miller. A remarkably vivid picture of a Southern family in Civil War days, and a Christmas story you won't forget! $2.25
- Snowflake, a Christmas allegory by Paul Gallico. Tender, inspirational, and wholly enchanting. $1.75
- Christmas Gift, by Margaret Cousins. Eight thoroughly delightful Christmas stories, suitable for family reading. A Bookshop Special $1.00
- Dickens' Christmas Stories - Here they are - A Christmas Carol, The Chimes and The Cricket on the Hearth - the joyous essence of Dickens, and illustrated in full color by Howard Simon. $1.50
- Christmas in Merrie England Washington Irving's plum-pudding classic, in a beautiful Peter Pauper Gift Edition. $1.00
- The Story of the Other Wise Man, by Henry Van Dyke. No other modern story had gained so secure a place in the hearts of Christian readers as this reverent classic of the First Christmas. 75c
- How Come Christmas, by Roark Bradford. This first present to the Poor Little Jesus is the finest work of the author of Green Pastures. A Southern classic, it's just wonderful for reading aloud! $1.00
- The Trapp-Family Book of Christmas Songs. If you must sing under our window, we hope you'll use the lovely arrangements in this book. $3.50
- One Magic Night, by Marlin Perkins and Peggy Tibma. At Christmas, we're all children again. Here's a beautiful children's book adults can read with real pleasure. Our Special $69c

Mr. and Mrs. Stu Erwin, stars of TV's great "Stu Erwin Show": As we say on TV, this certainly is the Miracle Tip. L&M's filter beats 'em all.

Mrs. Laddie Sanford, Socialite: I smoke L&Ms... so do most of my friends. Wonderful filter... fine taste!
