Of Freshmen

Not too long ago Frank McGuire, the man who promises to bring big-time basketball to the North Carolna campus, Blue-White intra-squad grid battle said the only thing he needed to do so was a seven-foot player

Now that player is in the fold. He's Billy Hathaway, a the separation of the squad into 17-year-old who spreads 245 pounds over his frame and who, the Blue and White teams. in turn, has been spread over the pages of Life Magazine.

Hathaway, from Long Beach, N. Y., is listed as being Floyd, will be composed almost 6'10". By the time he plays varsity ball, he will be seven feet. His family announced he once grew five inches within a year. Bullock, the regular quarterback

I have heard that a Wichita coach sent a millionaire to Long Beach every weekend for the specific Sasser will back up Ed Sutton for purpose of nabbing Hathaway.

I also have heard that, among . the many other schools, East Carolina College was after him too; only that school knows what they would do with him. It seems Hathaway, though passing, is not a brilliant student and ECC figured his average would not "go" here, and that he should give ECC a try.

But McGuire, now in Kansas at the NCAA finals, was in New York last weekend and talked Hathaway half-way mark, many of the boys into coming to Carolina. Nats May Have First Division Club-Dressen

ORLANDO, Fla., March 16 (AP) -Charlie Dressen seemed in no hurry to begin a detailed discussion of the Washington club and once the new Nats' manager did get going about the team's prospects, the reason for his reticence

Aside from some pretty fair pitching, a couple of veterans at first and third and a centerfielder named Jim Busby, the usually chipper little skipper hadn't much to talk about.

"It's still too early to give a fair evaluation of the club," he said. "I haven't even gotten acquainted with all the players yet. There are several I haven't even spoken to. They don't talk! English and I don't speak Spanish. They've got an interpreter on the club but he speaks too fast for me."

Based on what he's seen, Dressen thinks his club has a chance to finish in the first division provided "the big guys don't get

By the "big guys." Chuck meant first baseman Mickey Vernon, third buseman Eddie Yost and Busby.

"I DON'T HAVE the long ball hitters here like I had in Brooklyn," the former Dodger pilot declared. "No Campanellas, Hodgeses, Sniders and Robinsons. Maybe Roy Sievers, but that's all. I'm not crying, though. What good are long ball hitters in a big park like Griffith Stadium, anyway. Give me the fellows who hit singles and doubles and run like hell. I'll win with 'em."
