U.N.C. Library Serials Dept.

8-31-49

Chapel Hill, N. C.

FOUR PAGES TODAY

To offer opposition to restric-

To return 25 percent of the

To get a test for veterans so that

To reinstate the hygiene exemp-

To convert the Veterans' Club room into a recreation club, and honor system program.

body."

To continue the high school

As an answer to the Student

UP went on record as favoring election of Collie Collison for the same post. In nominating him, Bill Sanders said he "had nothing to gain" but thought that it was for the best interest of "the student

In discussing the recent member losses that the parties have been experiencing due to the shift of support from some of the SP that our party split is half as bad

Party endorsement of Lewis Brumfield for head cheerleader, the

. . . half of the group to sing in Graham Memorial next Sunday

Gilbert And Sullivan Featured Sunday Night

The performance will be given by the Basingstoke Ensemble. John Sudwig, baritone, and James in the billet of bass. Chamblee, bass. Mrs. David Basile "In working on this program," a total of 18 songs.

at 8 p.m. in the Main Lounge of Gilbert and Sullivan will be pres-Graham Memorial?

Excerpts from four Gilbert and lage of Figaro. Miss Yancey has groups previous to joining the

James Pruett appeared in The The group is composed fo Mis Jan Marriage of Figaro, while James Saxon, soprano; Miss Lorraine Chamblee has had previous ex-Yancey, mezzo; Miss Susie Rob perience in Gilbert and Sullivan erts, alto; James Pruett, tenor, and has worked with choral groups will accompany the group on the said Ludwig, "we have paid equal attention to the vocal and drama-Excerpts from The Mikado, tic requirements of the songs. We H.M.S. Pinafore, The Pirates of have tried to include as many of Penzance and Patience will be the traditional actions that charwe hope that the sparkle and The performance will be given laughter that show through all ent in our performance," he con-

American flag flapping humidly through early morning

Carotine Coed executing modern dance in fraternity house Saturday night.

"KK" on side of Bynum Hall, facing Steele Dormitory.

Carolina Gentleman asking philosophy prof, "Do you have to take the quiz?"

Coed, her car stalled in center of Franklin-Columbia intersection, hollering frantically to filling station attendant to come "do something!"

Sign carved on desk in Caldwell: "I hate School."

Marcopulos Is Named Tice's Campaign Man

Pepper Tice, one of the candidates chosen by the Bipartisan Semoney from the fund. Campus that Nick Marcopolus, will be his

In accepting the appointment, McCurry were unfair to the Mono- the candidates. It is not a channel wouldn't be in politics. But I feel through which we are able to help that this job can be very imporhandle it best."

In making the announcement, ed through the sale of the official so worthwhile a cause as the Mono- manager. Both of us want a clean gram Club Scholarship Fund," Ack- campaign with the accent on the qualifications of the candidate."

HENNESSEE VEEP:

Rights Named Prexy Of Carolina YMCA

By EDDIE CRUTCHFIELD | for floor nominations.

president of the YMCA for the year Board, chairman of the Campus 1955-56 last night.

Other officers named were vicelor, Greenville, and treasurer, Jer- this past year. ry Mayo, Chocowinity.

Graham Rights, rising senior Rights is past president of the from Winston-Salem, was elected student government Elections

Chest and past secretary of the Y. president, Ed Hennessee, Parkers- served as chairman of the YMCA and Distinctions, advisor of the burg, W. Va.; secretary, Roy Tay- membership commission during group, said.

All of the newly-elected officers chairman of the YMCA Speakers the University of Illinois in 1923. were previously nominated by a Committee during this past year. nominating committee, comprised | Mayo, a rising sophomore, was of senior YMCA members with one of the chairmen of the YMCA William W. Morgan, Canton, pres-Mrs. Ida Friday and Dr. Virgil Freshman Fellowship and attended ident; John Gray Blount, Wash- present to announce its platform branches of student government; Mann of the advisory board. None freshman camp last fall. He was ington, N. C., vice-president; Jo- for the coming election. received any opposition when pre- recently inducted into the Phi seph G. Walser III, High Point, secsent Y President Bob Hyatt asked Eta Sigma, freshman honor society. retary; Luther H. Hodges, Jr., Ra-

Leave Frats To IDC, Says Candidate Fowler

"I believe that the overall con-, as part of their group. This is trol of fraternities should be in certainly putting fraternities on a the hands of the Interfraternitly childish level," he continued. Council," said independent presi- The presidential candidate said Durham; Joel Fleishman, Fayettedential candidate Don Fowler in he is sure that most members of ville; Norman Anthony Germino, a statement made yesterday.

"Although I am not a member not in the University for social of a fraternity," said Fowler, "I reasons. find it necessary to take a stand on the policy with which the ad- ant part of all programs for colminstration has and will handle lege students. fraternity rights."

nties into including housemothers

"Whether we be fraternity men, Fowler said it has come to his dorm men, graduate students or attention that the "administration professors, it cannot be denied is thinking of forcing the frater- that we must exercise the social

OFF ALL CANDIDATES:

Muntzing Aware Of UNC Band's Situation

"I feel that it is disgraceful that terday, zing in a statement released ves- (See MUNTZING, page 4) a university of our size and pres- Muntzing said he is "fully aware" ston; Karl G. Pickard Jr., Asheville; tige is unable to give more finan- of the financial situation concern- James Y. Preston, Matthews; Hoyle cial support to as worthy a rep- ing the University Band and the Lynwood Robinson, Ellerbe; Edresentative of our University as is "limitations" placed on authoriz- ward Chadwick Ross, Augusta, G.; sidential candidate Manning Munt- ever," he said, "I feel the band to lem; Lonnis George Stephenson,

(See FOWLER, page 4)

McCurry Wants Dorm To Play Bigger Part

presidential candidate, in expres- said. sing a desire to work closely with jor portion of the campus popustudent government to the individ-

McCurry proposed to accomplish this by attending dorm meetings (See McCURRY, page 4)

Freshman Scholastic Group, Phi Eta Sigma, Names 46 A & B Students To Ranks

scholarship fraternity, in ceremonies in Di Hall, last night.

To be eligible for the fraternity, a student must make A's on at least half of his courses and B's on the remainder, Dr. Ernest L.

There are 86 chapters of the Taylor, a rising junior, has been fraternity, which was founded at

Officers of the local chapter participating in the initiation were er, III, High Point, historian.

The initiates are Robert Johnson Allison, Sylva; Charles Hall Ashford Jr., New Bern; Larie Kent Brandner, Holton, Kan.; Thomas Skinner Brickhouse, Wilmington; Joseph Mark Clapp, Greensboro.

Daniel Eason Clark, Everetts; Charles Reuben Danel, Roanoke pus parties this year. Rapids: Eli Nachamson Evans, fraternities realize that they are Durham.

William London Godwin, Smithfield; Irvine R. S. Haig, Rome, He said social life is an impor- Italy; James Geraty Harrison, Jr.,

William Holmes Johnson, Reidsville: Elbert Richard Jones Jr., Winston-Salem: Roger Conrad Jones, High Point; Archibald Kelly Maness, Jr., Greensboro; Gerald Mack Mayo, Chocowinity.

Don Harold Miller, Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Richard Wylly Molten, versity Band; To work for improv- Fowler, party Chairman Charles Chapel Hill; John August Mraz, Chicago, Ill.; Charles Walker Oyer, siting in dormitories; Wolcott, N. Y.; Michael Joseph Padula, Hollywood, Fla.; John Curtis Parker, Groton, Mass. Malcolm Overstreet Partin, Enfield; Jasper Louis Phillips, Kin-

William Ernest Stewart, Marshville; Thomas Cullom Taylor, Hen- man of the Elections Board for be derson; Stephen Jay Trachtenberg, | ing in the infirmary; having a con-Jacksonville; Charles V. Tompkins | flict with classes or other reasons Jr., Alexandria, Va.

The program for the UNC Band | rect.

Concert to be presented tonight at yesterday by Herbert W. Fred, assistant band conductor, who will di-

UNC Band Plays Varied List

Tonight, 8 O'clock, In Hill Hall

Hennessee, a rising senior, has served as chairman of the YMCA and Distinctions, advisor of the University Party Nails Down 15-Point Program

The University Party met last To present a periodical report, night with a handful of members to the students, from the three

As a primary plank in its plat- tions on the possession of student form, the party chose to "favor | cars; leigh, treasurer and Louis J. Fish- the installment of telephones on every floor of every dormitory," campus store profits to the stu-Another chief plank in the UP dents; platform calls for working toward

"taking The Daily Tar Heel edi- they may be exempt from physitorship out of politics." The UP cal education; was strenuously opposed to having The Daily Tar Heel editorial tion test; candidates nominated by the cam-

(It was the UP that introduced a bill in student Legislature calling for "establishment of a bipartisan board for the selection" of editor candidates of The Daily Tar Hee! and The Yackety Yack.)

The remaining planks in the Charleston, S. C.; Nathan Holt 15-point platfrom that the UP, ac-Hart, West Cornwall, Conn.; Gra- cording to the executive commitham Davis Holding Jr., Charlotte, tee that drew up the program plans to initiate are:

To work toward a fairer and less restrictive cuts system; To attain free passes for students' dates to home football

To give more support to the Uni and the UP to independent Don ed regulations concerning coed vi Yarborough said, "I don't think

To attempt to get more parking as the SP's."

OF ALL CANDIDATES:

Meeting Tonight

didates running in the spring elec- The candidates who will speak our band," said Student Party pre- ing the Band more funds. "How- John Loesch Shultz, Winston-Sa- tions will be held tonight at 7:30 at the meeting are Don Fowler( inin Memorial Hall,

Absence excuses for candidates may be granted only by the chairapproved by the Board's chairman. Henry Catlett Turner, Greensbo- Candidates not attending the meetvo: Thomas Hugh Upton Jr., Ra- ing and not having excuses will be leigh; Donald Wayne Wade, Ra- dropped as candidates. They may be legh, John Luther Walker Jr., Ro- reinstated by contacting the chairman of the Elections Board within Roy William Wilson, Marion: 48 hours after the meeting begins Robert K. Yowell, Raleigh; John and paying a $1 fine within the Miss Patsy Daniels is chairman

ley's' Favorite," King: "Mannin Veen" Wood; "Psalm for Band,"

Persichetti, and an original com-

Other arrangements will include

"Pictures at an Exhibition," Mous-sorgsky; "Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks," Strause: "Italian Polka," Rachmaninoff: "Toccata," Frescobaldi; 'Intermezzo" fron

"The Jewels of the Madonna,

Wolf-Ferradi; "The Typewriter,"

Anderson, and "Entrance of th

Emperor and His Court" from "Ha

ry Janos Suite," Kodaly.

position by Fred, "Sea Shantey."

dependent), Ed McCurry (University Party) and Manning Muntzing (Student Party), candidates for presdent of the student body; Bob Harrington (SP) and Jack Stevens (UP), candidates for student body vice-president; Misses Jane Cocke (UP) and Joan Palmer (SP) candidates for secretary of the student body; Joe Correll (SP) and Jim Martin (UP), candidates for student body treasurer; and Louis Brumfield, John (Pepper) Tice and Walter (Collie) Colison, candidates for head cheerleader. The three presidential candidates of the Elections Board. She may be will each speak for five minutes, and the other candidates wll speak for three minutes each, according to the Elections Board chairman.

Miss Daniels said that the candidates will be given their expense account sheets and that Article Nine of the general election laws, Featured on the program will be which deals with expenses, accounts 8 p.m. in Hill Hall was released the following works written for and penalties, will be read. concert band: "Barnum and Bai-

Monteith Says He Won't Run For Veep Job

"After careful and extensive consideration I have decided not to oe a candidate for the vice-presidency of the student body," announced UP member Jim Monteith yesterday.

Monteith filed a petition with the elections board Friday but withdrew it Sunday evening. He had lost the UP nomination for vicepresident to Jack Stevens Tuesday night.

Yesterday Monteith also came out in favor of veep candidate Bob Harrington, who is running on the SP ticket. 'I am supporting Harrington because I beleve he represents the entire campus-not just a special faction," he said.

"I am not bolting," continued bate in the old society, which was Monteith. " I am not leaving the cal sellout of any kind," he added.

Ed McCurry, University Party | ual needs of the dormitories," he

"I realize that I'm not able to the dormitory residents of the ascertain all of the needs of the University, said yesterday he is dorm residents, but I want to give H. Zollicoffer Jr., Henderson, and same time. especially concerned about this them an opportunity to make their Leslie Andrew Scott, Jackson group which comprises the ma- desires known to me personally." Heghts, N. Y.

He "deems it necessary to bring and hence establishing a better

the Ballot Box

One week from today, Carolina students will elect campus

From now until election day, more political mur is expected to be slung than has been slung so A check of presidential candidates' statements, up until this week, shows two things: (1) Candidates-all three of them-have engaged in positive platforms. (2) Ed McCurry, University Party candidate, has the edge on rivals Manning Muntzing (SP) and Don Fowler (formerly SP, now independent), when it comes campaigns, with constructive to making statements. McCurry has piled up four statements as of Saturday. He wants a change in the recentlyinstituted cut system, closer liason between students and student government, a branch of the student union in the old Veterans' Club and a high school student government workshop.

Student Party canddate Manning Muntzing has made three declarations so far, all of them positive. Muntzing's statements (See BALLOT BOX, page 4)

State Dept. Attaches Visit Campus Today

presentatives to the campus.

Chi Omega and Kappa Delta Sororities.

tions to the Campus Chest, according to Graham Rights, chairman of the drive. Those 10 groups, in which every member contributed, are Alpha

According to Rights, none of the men's dorms have reached the 100 percent mark yet. Graham, Old West and Pettigrew are nearing the 50 percent mark. Twenty-five percent of the men in Aycock,

Carreer opportunities in the For- litical Science Department, has an-

today and Wednesday, during a interested in such careers. Pervisit of two State Department re- | sonal conferences will also be ar-

10 Get 100 Percent

Kappa Psi, Delta Upsilon, Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi Fraternities, Carr and Smith dorms, Alpha Gamma Delta, Joyner, Old East, Stacy and Steele have contribued so far.

eign Service of the United States nounced a meeting today at 3 p.m. will be presented to UNC students in 202 Caldwell for all students ranged, he said. Verne Larson, assistant execu- Under a revised State Departtive officer, Office of Security, ment plan, Dr. Robson said, "Virand Philip W. Ireland, Office of tually all officer positions in Wa-Personnel, will speak at class shington and overseas will be meetings in the Departments of staffed by Foreign Service offi History and Political Science. cers, creating an urgent need for Dr. C. B. Robson, chairman, Po- new officers in the corps."

10 groups have reached the 100 percent mark in their dona-

Prof. Earl Slocum, director of the University Band and Orchestra, is the arranger for Frescobaldi's "Toccata." Phi Assembly To Meet

The Philanthropic Assembly will meet tonight at 8 o'clock on the top floor of New East to debate a bill proposing that the United Sates repudiate the Yalta agree-

Tonight: Yalta Confab

"This currently very controversial topic should produce fiery deestablished at the University in party now." 1795," said a Phi spokesman yesterday.

"My withdrawal is not a politi-

PETITE MUSICALE SINGERS SUSIE ROBERTS, JAN SAXON & LORRAINE YANCEY

Suffivan operettas will be pre- worked both in musical shows and sented next Sunday evening in choral groups. Miss Roberts has the third of the spring Petites worked with religious choral sung. The program will include acterise Gilbert and Sullivan, and John Ludwig has at one time cluded. sung with two members of the There will be no admission English D'Oyly Carte Company. charge for the performance, and Miss Saxon has appeared many no seats wil be reserved. The protimes in music department pro- duction is being sponsored by the grams, the latest being The Marr- Graham Memorial Activities Board. Fowler Man Charges

McCurry Act 'Unfair' According to a worker for pre- the statement, said, "This, of sidential candidate Don Fowler, course, hurt the sale of official lection Board to run for head Bob Colbert, chairman of the Mon- programs and took away needed cheerleader, announced yesterday ogram Club's program committee, campaigns should be run on an campaign manager. has said that the "handbills given ethical basis with the intent of out by presidential candidate Ed bringing out the qualifications of Marcopulos said, "Ordinarily I

gram Club Scholarship Fund." According to Charles Ackerman ourselves by hurting others," he tant, and I believe that Tice can publicity director for Fowler, Col- said bert said, "The McCurry handbills | "I hope that from now on when had the starting lineups on them trying to get votes, the presiden- Tice said, "I'm very glad that a and thus took away money from the tial candidates do so in a manner clean hard fighter like Nick has fund which would have been gain- that will not be at the expense of agreed to become my campaign

Ackerman, in commenting on erman concluded.

MISS MARGARET UNDERWOOD:

Coed Ballad Singer To Appear On Horace Heidt Show Friday North Carolinians who attended

Hobbies not only can be fun, but they also may lead to fame and financial rewards, as a UNC coed ballad singer who has just won a Horace Heidt talent audition can well testify.

Miss Margaret Underwood, a senior from Greensboro, has been selected to appear on the Horace Heidt television show which will be broadcast from Raleigh Friday. Accompanying herself on a guitar, Miss Underwood will sing several folk ballads, a performance she has given often in North Carolina masical circles during the Auditions for the program were held recently at Station WPTF in Song" and "My Heart's in the ist.

... with guitar Highlands" were judged tops,

Raleigh, with Miss Underwood competing with many other aspiring young musicians, dramatists along with the performances of of dislike. two other competitors, a Raleigh HUDSON CLASS Her renditions of "The Rebel ninth-grade soprano and a pianthe State Folk Festival here last June got a sample of Miss Underwood's first public ballad singing. Since then she has sung folk songs in a number of North Carolina towns and oevr several radio and TV stations. Her guitar playing began strictly as a pastime while she was a student at Randolph-Macon Wo-two years ago. "A lot of the other girls played the guitar, so I just picked it up too," she explained. An older brother, who now works in Raleigh, introduced Miss Underwood to folk songs through his large recorded collection of them several years before. She explains her reaction then was one man's College in Lynchburg, Va.

Not until she came to Carolina (See COED, page 4)