

Basketball Returns To Carolina Scene Tonight With Blue-White Game Scheduled At 7:30 In Woollen

Basketball will briefly return to the Carolina scene tonight at 7:30 in Woollen Gym with the revival of the annual Blue-White game.

The game is being sponsored by the Pan-Hellenic Council with proceeds to go toward adopting a war orphan and the proposed Chapel Hill Recreation Center. Admission is .50.

The retiring co-captains of last year's varsity, Al Lifson and Paul Likins, will coach, respectively, the Blue and White teams.

At half-time, grammar school boys from Chapel Hill will put on a short game.

Tar Heel Rally Short Of Mark As Deacs Win, 9-8; Frosh Also Lose

WAKE FOREST.—(Special to The Daily Tar Heel)—A two-run Carolina rally in the top half of the ninth inning fell short of its mark here yesterday as the Wake Forest Deacons edged the Tar Heels, 9-8.

The Carolinians had loaded the bases in the final frame and pushed two runs across to put the pressure on Deacon pitcher Jack McGinley. However, McGinley bore down and fanned Carolina third-baseman Jack Woods to end the game.

The victory was not an official Atlantic Coast Conference contest because of the home-and-home rule. Wake Forest had previously won on its own diamond, downing Carolina last week, 2-0.

The next game for Carolina is scheduled against South Carolina here Friday. Saturday the Tar Heels meet Clemson.

Going into the ninth, the Deacs had a 9-6 lead. Harry Lloyd, Tar Heel second baseman, singled to lead off, but Will Frye forced him at second on an infield grounder. Don Hill was safe on an infield error and Connie Gravitte, who got two for two over the afternoon, including a homer, walked to load the bases. Al Long's infield grounder was relayed home to catch Frye at the plate, making it two outs, but Jimmy Love drew a walk to score Hill. Ken Keller, pinch-hitting for Tom Maultsby, singled to shortstop, bringing home Gravitte. Woods then swung but missed a third strike to wind it up.

Loose fielding on the part of Carolina lost the game. The Tar Heels committed eight boners. Long booted three for Carolina.

Catcher Love, who had three RBI's and Gravitte were the big guns for the Tar Heels. Tommy Cole, with a fifth-inning, bases-empty homer, and Barnes, with a double and a triple, led the winners.

Morris "Whity" Hall started on the mound for Carolina. After allowing four runs in the opening frame, he was relieved by Jimmy Raugh, who worked through the seventh when he was jerked for a pinch-hitter. Tom Maultsby finished for the Tar Heels. Raugh, the loser, now has a 2-4 record. Bucky Fichter, the winner, is undefeated with a 2-0 mark.

Carolina 020 201 102—8 11 8
W. Forest 400 211 10x—9 10 2
Batteries: Hall, Raugh (2), Maultsby (8) and Love; Fichter, McGinley (6) and Holt.

Wake's freshman baseball team swamped Carolina's Tar Babies by a score of 14-3 at Emerson Field yesterday, behind the superb pitching of right-hander Charley Carpenter.

Carpenter limited the Tar Babies to eight hits while walking only two batters. Meanwhile his teammates were jumping on three Carolina pitchers for 14 hits and 14 walks. Eleven of the hits and nine of the walks came off starter and loser Charley Cross. It was his second loss of the year.

The big gun in the Wake Forest attack was third-baseman Bill Pegram, who collected a single and a double in two official trips. The one bright spot in the Carolina line-up was catcher Jerry Bryson who garnered a single and a home run in four trips.

W. F. 020 103 440—14 14 4
Carolina 000 000 102—3 8 2
Batteries: Carpenter and Brady; Cross, Currin (7), McIver (9) and Bryson.

Varsity Netters Face Strong Duke Today

This afternoon at 3:00, Carolina's varsity tennis team, undefeated in 12 matches this season, meets Duke. So far this season, only one team has managed to give the Tar Heels any competition at all, but, according to veteran coach John Kenfield, Duke might win one or two matches today, depending on the Blue Devil's lineup.

Coach Kenfield will probably use his regular line-up of Herb Browne at the No. 1 position with Bobby Payne, Tommy Bradford, Pete Green, Ronnie Kerdasha, and Don Thompson completing the singles roster. All of these, except Browne, who has a 10-2 record, are undefeated in the 12 matches played thus far this year. In doubles, Browne and Bradford, Green and Payne, and Kerdasha and Thompson will play the first, second, and third positions respectively.

Stickmen Vs. Duke

The UNC lacrosse team will travel to Durham today to battle a tough Duke squad in a "Dixie League" encounter. It will be the Tar Heels second attempt to top the Blue Devils who have previously beaten the locals 8-3 in an early season practice scrimmage.

Duke has downed Loyola (Baltimore) and Virginia and has looked impressive in losing to such nationally powerful teams as Navy and Rensselaer Polytechnical Institute. The Duke victory over Virginia by a score of 11-8 came over the same Cavalier team which just a few days earlier had humbled the Carolina squad 15-2. Duke will also be led by two potential All-American players in defenseman Ev Anderson and midfielder Dick Saunders, who tallied six goals against UVA.

HOWEVER, this year's Tar Heel team may prove to be the first UNC lacrosse squad to beat a Duke team in the last 10 years. Greenbaum's stickmen have consistently improved since their opening fray with the Blue Devils and are definitely in much better condition than they were at the beginning of the season.

Yarborough Leads UNC Trackers In Wake Forest Smash, 119-19

A strong Carolina track team smashed Wake Forest, 112-19, to rack up its fourth consecutive win of the season here yesterday.

It marked the second time this year that the Tar Heels have scored more than 100 points in a meet.

The Tar Heels swept all three places in six events as they won 14 races and took seconds in 11. Wake Forest's John Ladner was high scorer of the meet as he won the javelin, the Deacs' only first, and scored in three other events for 10 points.

CHARLIE YARBOROUGH led Carolina with nine points, while Jay Zimmerman and Johnny Jones had eight each for Carolina. Only six men scored for Wake Forest.

The summary:

Athlete of the Week:

Morris Set Two Records Against Terps

Roger Morris has been selected as "The Athlete of the Week" by The Daily Tar Heel sports staff for his two record-breaking performances in leading the Carolina tracksters to a 73-58 victory over the defending conference champions Maryland Terps Saturday.

Morris won both the shot and discus for the third straight time this season as he turned in the best performances of his outstanding career in both events. His winning throws of 51 feet three and one-half inches in the shot and 157 feet five and one-half inches in the discus set two new stadium records for Maryland's field, Byrd Stadium.

The shot put heave erased the old field record of 51 feet even, set by Morris against the Terrapins two years ago. The old record was also the North Carolina all-time shot record, and Morris' heave Saturday put aside that mark also.

Both throws were among the six UNC-Maryland dual meet records that were broken, also, thus giving Morris five records for his day's performance.

Morris, who was tied with Claude Rhule with 30 points as the team's high scorers before yesterday's meeting with Wake Forest, surpassed the old field record in the discus by almost four feet. The old mark of 153 feet eight and three-fourths inches was established by Robert Morse of Camp Lejeune in 1951.
