Yankees Move Into First; Tribe, Tigs Win On Homers

CHICAGO, April 26 (AP) — Fast-balling Bob Turley of New York throttled Chicago with a fine one-hitter and 10 strikeouts for a 5-0 shutout victory which moved the Yankees into first place over the White Sox today.

It was the first one-hitter in either league. Notching his third straight victory against no defeats, Turley allowed catcher Sherm Lollar the only Sox hit, a clean single to center, in the second.

In the only other games played yesterday afternoon in the majors, the Tigers topped Baltimore and the Cleveland Indians stopped Washington by identical 3-2 scores, and both games were won by home runs.

At Cleveland pitcher Bob Lemon rapped a homer into the right field seats in the fourth after the Tribe had picked up two runs in the first frame. Lemon now has a 4-0 record on the season.

Al Kaline's blast into the left-center field bleachers at Detroit gave the Tigers their win in the ninth innings.

Tar Heels Seeking Third Win In Loop

Tom Maultsby, workhorse of the Tar Heel pitching staff who has run into a lot of tough luck this season, will be the starter this afternoon as the Tar Heels take on Wake Forest at Emerson Stadium. Game time is 3:30.

Carolina will be going after its third ACC victory against five losses this afternoon. Maultsby was the winning pitcher in both UNC conference victories as he stopped Maryland and South Carolina.

The Deacs have stopped Carolina twice this year, 3-0 and 9-8. Lowell (Lefty) Davis was the pitcher who shut-out UNC, but Davis worked the win over Clemson Monday afternoon so will not be on the hill for the Deacs today.

Tar Babies, Deaclets Battle At Wake Today

While the Varsity teams clash on Emerson Field here, the Carolina and Wake Forest baseball Frosh will be hooking up at Wake Forest. The Tar Babies own a 3-2 record on the season so far. One of their losses was a 14-3 lashing by the Baby Deacs earlier in the season.

Linwood Holt and Tommy Cole pose the main Deac offensive threats. Holt, who led the ACC in hitting early in the season, owns a .375 mark while Cole is hitting at .345. Holt also leads the ACC in runs batted in and triples.

Maultsby's 2-5 mound record on the season belies his performances. The righthander has been the victim of two shut-outs this season and twice the Tar Heels have been held to one run while he pitched. His other loss was to N. C. State in a relief role. He has worked more innings (58) than any other Tar Heel hurler, yet owns a respectable 2.16 earned run average.

After today's game the Tar Heels rest until the weekend when they head into Virginia and Maryland for a pair of games.

UNC Set For Vital Clash With Miami

Forgetting momentarily Friday's vital match with Miami University, the Tar Heel tennis team rolled over Davidson 8-1 here yesterday for win number fourteen this year and its 28th consecutive win over two seasons.

The Wildcats were able to take only the number one doubles match on the coolish overcast afternoon, with Lacy Keesler and Corvin Clark dropping Bobby Payne and Pete Greene 1-6, 6-1, 6-2.

No other matches went over two sets as all singles and two doubles were swept by Coach John Kenfield's boys.

The most important test of the long Carolina win streak will come Friday afternoon when the Miami Hurricanes, losers of only one match in six years against top-light competition, come to Chapel Hill.

Greene and Payne dropped behind 0-3 in the third set of their losing match after splitting the first two sets at 6-1. They showed signs of a comeback at that point, taking two out of three games, but Keesler and Clark bore down to pick up two more games for the match.

It was the twelfth time this season that the Tar Heels have held their opponents to less than two points in a match.

The summary:

SINGLES
1. Browne (UNC) def. Keesler 6-4, 6-4; 2. Payne (UNC) def. Clark 6-2, 8-6; 3. Bradford (UNC) def. Snead 6-0, 6-1; 4. Greene (UNC) def. Makepeace 6-0, 7-5; 5. Kerdasha (UNC) def. Thorpe 6-0, 8-6; 6. Thompson (UNC) def. Robinson 6-2, 6-1.

DOUBLES
1. Keesler-Clark (D) def. Greene-Payne 1-6, 6-1, 6-2; 2. Browne-Bradford (UNC) def. Snead-Makepeace 6-0, 6-3; 3. Thompson-Kerdasha def. Thorpe-Robinson 6-0, 6-2.

Athlete of the Week:

A record breaking vault of 13'3" against the University of South Carolina here Saturday qualified sophomore Richard Waters as this week's Tar Heel Athlete of the week. With that performance Waters took first in the meet and shattered G. R. House's five-year University mark of 13' 1/2". Waters was pressed by baseballer Connie Gravitte and shot putter Roger Morris for the honor. Gravitte is third in hitting and home runs in the ACC, while Morris took two first places in Saturday's meet to lead the Tar Heels. (Henley Photo.)

Life Insurance Policies Differ 3 Ways

1. COST
The difference between the amount deposited and cash available at Retirement is the real cost of your protection. Let us show you our low net cost. There is a difference.

2. COVERAGE
A satisfactory program for your family today, is not necessarily satisfactory 10 years hence. Proper counsel will avoid this error. The program should be tailored to fit the need.

3. CONVENIENCE
One of the great satisfactions of an insurance program is that it meets YOUR needs rather than the strict plan of some company. This demands great flexibility in settlement.
