

Maultsby Scatters Seven Wake Hits To Get 3-2 Victory

Buzzin' SPORTS

with Buzz Merritt
DTH Sports Editor

We will not make the tactical error that a couple of our predecessors committed. Instead of coming out with a bold-faced story headed "Sports Writers Needed" and asking for bad jokes from every frustrated Bob Hope on campus, we'll stick our request in here so no one will see it.

One of the problems constituting getting out a sports page every day is that of doing it and staying in school, something that is highly recommended for DTH staffers. In order to give you the fullest sports coverage of campus and national events that is possible in limited space, more sports writers are needed. Any student who is interested in continuing (or getting a start in) sports writing is urged to contact the DTH sports department and we'll put you to work.

In its latest bit of scolding of member schools, the NCAA directed a reprimand to Oklahoma, first foe on Carolina's 1955 football schedule for next year. It was more of a "naughty, naughty" reprimand than anything else as it stuck a two year probation on the Sooners. Cincinnati was not so fortunate as that school was not only put on a year's probation but was ruled ineligible for any NCAA-sponsored event for a year.

Not that the wrist-slapping to Oklahoma and the real woodshed-type licking to Cincinnati are of any great significance to this school, but out of the furor surrounding the matter came an "explanation" of the NCAA's penalties. It seems that the guiding fathers of collegiate athletics have six degrees of harshness in their penalty bag. First they can reprimand a school, (2) reprimand it and censure it, (3) put it on probation for one year, (4) put it on probation for two years, (5) put it on probation and rule it ineligible for particular events, or (6) put it on probation, cancel its schedule, and suspend or expel it from the NCAA. It's up to the ruling committee to decide what number to draw out of the hat for certain violations.

Word has it from Durham that Duke's pint-sized Joey Belmont, whose court antics smacked of "Hot Rod" Hundley at times, missed quite a spell of spring practice this year due to an eye injury. Junior Morgan, the Blue Devil's giant from Spencer, inserted a finger in Belmont's eye and the cut took six stitches to close.

Wake Forest's Bill Barnes, former Landis High School three-letterman and a Deac football player, didn't like it yesterday when Jack Woods slid into second on a force play in the second inning. Barnes, a football player who generally can take care of himself, had a comment about Woods' aggressive play, but nothing ever came of it.

Intramurals are a vital part of the campus athletic scene, and this DTH is interested in getting more complete intramural coverage. Anyone who is interested in doing the job should contact the DTH sports department. Not to be overly optimistic, however, and hope that anyone's read down this far, the sports department plans to contact each fraternity and get a representative to contact us with all results.

In The Majors: White Sox Back Into First As Dropt Hits

CHICAGO, April 27 (AP)—Walt Dropt's two consecutive homers led a powerful Chicago attack which routed New York ace Whitey Ford for a 13-4 triumph and enabled the White Sox to recapture first place from the Yankees today.

NEW YORK, April 27 (AP)—Bobby Thomson spearheaded a 12-hit attack against his former teammates today with a home run and two singles as the Milwaukee Braves defeated the New York Giants 9-6 for their eighth victory in 12 starts.

DETROIT, April 27 (AP)—Catcher Frank House, batting only .222, slammed his first big league grand slam home run today to give the Detroit Tigers a 11-3 victory over the Baltimore Orioles. It was Detroit's fourth straight triumph, and House clinched it early with his bases-loaded blast off starter Jim Wilson in the third inning.

PITTSBURGH, April 27 (AP)—Young Bob Purkey, the Pittsburgh Pirates' sophomore righthander, survived a shaky ninth inning to

Frosh Hit Hard To Get 9-5 Nod Over Deaclets

WAKE FOREST, April 27 — North Carolina's freshman baseball team rapped a dozen hits here today to get a 9-5 decision over the Wake Forest club. The Tar Babies came from behind to win after starting pitcher Charlie Cross's momentary loss of control gave the Baby Deacs a 5-1 lead.

The Baby Deacs touched Cross, former Statesville High School star, for two runs in the first and three more in the fourth, but that was all as Cross found himself and

Woods' Unassisted DP Halts Rally In Seventh

By BUZZ MERRITT

Big Tom Maultsby settled down after weathering a rough first inning here yesterday and shut out the Wake Forest Deacons the rest of the way to pick up a 3-2 win.

Maultsby allowed the Deacs two runs in the first but scattered five hits over the remaining eight innings to chalk up his third win against five losses this season.

It was the Tar Heels' third ACC win in eight starts and their first over Wake Forest in three tries.

Maultsby received a big boost from third-baseman Jack Woods in the seventh when a momentary streak of wildness put him in hot water. He walked the first two men to face him and shortstop Harold Moore moved them up with a sacrifice. Maultsby then intentionally walked Luther McKeel to set up a force play.

With the count 2-2, Wake right-fielder George Miller lashed a line drive to Woods at third who grabbed it and tagged the base for an unassisted double play to squelch the Deac rally. Maultsby proceeded to set the Deacs down in the eighth and ninth and get the win.

Behind 2-0 almost from the outset, the Tar Heels were forced to come back offensively to get the win.

They picked up their first run in the second when Woods singled and moved to second on an error. Maultsby came through on his own behalf with a single to right to score Woods.

Carolina picked up its winning margin in the third as Connie Gravitte opened with a walk and Will Frye poled a tremendous triple to left-center. Frye then scored on Harry Lloyd's sacrifice fly to center.

Wake hurler Jack McKinley got stingy after the third and limited the Tar Heels to three hits the rest of the way, but the locals had all they needed.

Right fielder Kenny Keller celebrated his return to the starting line-up by banging a single and a double in four trips. Maultsby rapped another single in the fourth to be the only other Tar Heel with more than one hit.

The box:

Wake Forest	Ab	R	H	P	O	A
Moore, ss	3	1	1	2	2
McKeel, cf	3	0	0	2	0
Miller, rf	4	0	0	0	0
Holt, c	4	1	2	7	0
Cole, 3b	4	0	2	1	2
Barnes, 2b	4	0	1	2	2
McRae, lf	3	0	0	5	0
Bonzagni, 1b	3	0	1	5	0
McGinley, p	2	0	0	0	0
Abbott, p	1	0	0	0	0
Totals	31	2	7	24	6

U.N.C.

Keller, rf	Ab	R	H	P	O	A
Zachary, lf	1	0	0	1	0
Harding, lf	3	0	0	0	0
Gravitte, cf	3	1	0	3	0
Frye, 1b	4	1	1	8	0
Lloyd, 2b	3	0	1	2	5
Long, ss	4	0	0	4	3
Woods, 3b	4	1	1	2	3
J. Maultsby, c	4	0	0	5	0
T. Maultsby, p	3	0	2	0	0
Totals	33	3	7	27	17

Frosh Hosting DHS Here 3:30

Carolina's freshman track team, winners of two out of three meets so far this season, will be going for its third win here this afternoon when it meets the Durham High School team at 3:30.

The Tar Babies have dropped the N. C. State Frosh twice this year while losing only to Duke's Blue Imps.

Following today's meet the Tar Babies have only one meet remaining on their regular season schedule, Duke here on May 7.

TOM MAULTSBY

Major League Scoreboard

AMERICAN LEAGUE
	W	L	PCT.
Chicago	7	4	.636
New York	8	5	.615
Cleveland	8	5	.615
Boston	7	6	.538
Detroit	6	6	.500
Washington	5	7	.416
Kansas City	5	7	.416

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Chicago 13, New York 4
Cleveland 6, Washington 5 (17 innings)
Kansas City 6, Boston 2
Baltimore 11, Detroit 3

GAMES TODAY

Boston at Chicago
New York at Kansas City (night)
Washington at Detroit (night)
(only games scheduled)

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	W	L	PCT.
*Brooklyn	11	2	.846
Milwaukee	8	4	.667
St. Louis	6	4	.600
Chicago	7	6	.538
Philadelphia	6	6	.500
New York	5	7	.416
Pittsburgh	2	8	.200
*Cincinnati	2	10	.167

(Does not include last night's game)

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Milwaukee 9, New York 6
Pittsburgh 4, Chicago 1
St. Louis at Philadelphia (ppd rain)
Cincinnati at Brooklyn (night)

GAMES TODAY

Chicago at Brooklyn
Milwaukee at Philadelphia (night)
St. Louis at New York
Cincinnati at Pittsburgh (night)

Books In Our END-OF-THE-MONTH SALE

Are Selling At 19¢ TODAY Tomorrow They'll Be Only 9¢

The Intimate Bookshop

205 E. FRANKLIN ST. Open Evenings

Chicago College of OPTOMETRY
Serving an Attractive Profession
Doctor of Optometry DEGREE IN THREE YEARS
Professional Recognition by U.S. Dept. of Def. and Sel. Service.
Two Large Eye Clinics University Environment. New Dorms and Apartments on large adjoining I. I. T. Campus.
Your Liberal Arts Credits Applicable for Entrance (60 Semester Credits in Specified Courses.)
CHICAGO COLLEGE OF OPTOMETRY
3243 South Michigan Avenue Technology Center, Chicago 16, Ill.

6 Intramural Games Slated

The final six games on the intramural softball regular schedule are on tap this afternoon. A meeting is scheduled Friday afternoon to make out pairings for the championship play-offs. The meeting is at 4:30 in the intramural office. All teams eligible for play-off competition are required to have an official present.

Today's schedule is as follows: 4:00, field 1, Phi Delta Chi vs. Pi Lambda Phi; field 2, Sigma Nu 2 vs. KA; field 3, Theta Chi 2 vs. Sig Chi 2.

Five o'clock, field 1, Everett vs. Graham; field 2, BVP vs. TMA; field 3, Med School vs. Grad School.

Yawkey Denies Ted Has Time

BOSTON, April 27 (AP)—The Boston Traveler today quotes Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey as saying he hasn't given "retired" slugger Ted Williams "an unlimited period" to decide whether he'll return to baseball.

In a story bylined by columnist George Carens, Yawkey is quoted as saying:

"I have nothing to add at this time regarding the future plans of Ted Williams. It is true I've talked with Ted, but I haven't set a deadline for his return. Neither have I given him an unlimited period in which to decide what he

Lacrosse Team Host To W&L

By AL KORSCHUN

The UNC varsity lacrosse team, fresh from its stunning upset victory over Duke last week, will take the field here today at 3:30 to battle the invading Washington & Lee Generals from Lexington, Va. Today's game will be the fifth regular season encounter for the Tar Heels who have a 1-3 won and lost record thus far this year.

The Generals, coached by former Maryland All-American Charlie Herbert, will invade the "Hill" today at 12:00 with a 30 man squad and will finish their North Carolina tour by playing Duke in Durham tomorrow. Little is known of W & L's strength other than that they were beaten 8-1 by the same Yale team which easily defeated Carolina earlier this season. However the Generals promise to be fairly strong as the squad is loaded with a number of experienced Baltimore players, and in addition the team is composed of 15 highly rated freshmen who are allowed to play under the Southern Conference ruling which permits freshmen to play their first year.

The Tar Heels, however, are both mentally and physically up for the game. The locals tasted victory for the first time when they bowled over Duke. The UNC stickmen have steadily improved since their opening loss to Williams College and should they play as aggressively and as well as they did in beating the Blue Devils, they should make it another Tar Heel victory.

Coach Greenbaum was especially pleased with the team's performance in recent practices and singled out midfielder Sherry Smith and defenseman Ronnie intends to do. Time alone will provide the answers." Williams quit baseball after the 1954 season but this spring told Manager Mike Higgins he would inform him whether he would play or not.

Current for their fine showing of Steve Trimble and Al Bryant at defense, Dick Baker, Smith, and the Duke contest, will nevertheless start at one of the defense positions. Besides Current, Greenbaum will start his usual lineup of Steve Trimble and Al Bryant at defense, Dick Baker, Smith, and Walt Sturdivant at midfield, Wilbur Jones, Hal Taylor, and Jack Spooner at the attack and Thorne Walker at goalie.

THE GIFT HORSE

Many of our friends will soon be graduating. What kind of gifts should we give them? Here is no simple question. It is never simple to find gifts for people who have everything, and college students, as everyone knows, are the most richly endowed of mortals. They've got beauty and truth. They've got rhythm. They've got stout hearts, willing hands, and a clear vision that dispels the miasmas of the future as the morning sun sears away the last wisps of a cool night's fog. They've got heaps and heaps of money, as who would not who has been receiving such a huge allowance over four years of schooling?

What can we give them that they don't already have? One infallible gift for the person who has everything is, of course, a stethoscope. New models, featuring sequined earpieces and power steering, are now on display at your local surgical supply house. Accompanying each stethoscope is a gift card with this lovely poem:

When you hear your heart beat,
When you hear it pound,
Remember me, your buddy,
William Henry Round.

If, by some odd chance, your name does not happen to be William Henry Round (you're laughing, but it's possible), here is another dandy suggestion for the person who has everything — a gift certificate from the American Bar Association.

These certificates, good at your local lawyer's, come in three convenient sizes: small, medium, and large. The small certificate covers title searches and writs of estoppel. The medium size covers torts, claim jumping, and violations of the Smoot-Hawley Act. The large one covers kidnapping, murder, and barratry.

If, by some odd chance, you don't know what barratry is (you're laughing, but it's possible), it is arson at sea. This interesting crime is called after Cosmo "Bubbles" Barrat, a captain in the British navy during the last century, who was addicted to burning his ships. One man of war after another fell victim to his incendiary bent. The Admiralty kept getting crosser and crosser, but every time they called in Captain Barrat for a scolding, he would roll his big blue eyes and tug his forelock and promise faithfully never to do it again. Oh, butter wouldn't melt in his mouth, that one!

So they would give him another ship, and he would soon reduce it to a scattering of charred spars. He burned more than 120,000 ships before he was finally discharged as "doubtful officer material."

After his separation from the navy, he moved to Vienna where he changed his name to Freud and invented Scrabble.

But I digress. I was listing gifts for the person who has everything, and here is another one. This gift, in fact, is not only for persons who have everything, it is also for persons who have nothing, for persons who have next to nothing, for persons who have next to everything, and for persons in between. I refer, of course, to Philip Morris cigarettes. Here in the cigarette for everybody—for everybody, that is, who likes a mild relaxing smoke of fine vintage tobacco in a handsome brown package that snaps open with the greatest of ease. For those, if such there be, who like dull, nondescript tobacco in a package that requires a burglar's kit to open, Philip Morris is definitely the wrong gift.

Among the newer gifts that warrant your attention is a revolutionary development in the enjoyment of recorded music. This is the Low-Fi Phonograph. The Low-Fi, product of years of patient research, has so little fidelity to the record you put on it that if, for example, you put Stardust on the turntable, Melancholy Baby will come out. This is an especially welcome gift for people who hate Stardust.

Finally there is Sigafos Shaving Cream, a brand new kind of cream that makes whiskers grow in instead of out. You just bite them off in the morning.

To Max's suggestion to give PHILIP MORRIS for graduation, the makers of PHILIP MORRIS, who bring you this column, add a hearty amen.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS	1. Fall short	5. Highest point	9. A donkey	10. Ordinal number	12. At one time	13. Artist's workshop	14. Music note	15. Deeming	16. A hindrance	19. Weirder	20. South American river (poss.)	24. Showery	25. Reigning beauty	26. Long, narrow strip of wood	27. To sell again	28. Momentous	30. Highest mountain in the world	33. Norse god	34. Oppose	35. Equitable	37. U. S. president	38. Rocky fragments at base of a cliff (geol.)	39. Tow boats	40. First man (Bib.)
DOWN	1. Gloomy	2. Portion of a curved line	3. Anger	4. Behold!	6. Garret	7. The south of France	8. Ireland	9. Edges	11. Machine	13. Box	15. Comply	17. Operatic melody	18. Hibernating	21. Music character	22. Sedimentary deposit of large rivers	23. Vendors	25. Fissured	27. Pause	29. Waistcoats	30. Unit of work	31. Green (Heraldry)	32. He sold his birthright to Jacob (Bib.)	35. Craze	36. A wing	38. Tantalum (sym.)

Best Selection of ARROW SHIRTS at

Varley's MEN'S SHOP