

Summer School Weekly

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE SUMMER SCHOOL U. N. C.

Published Both Sessions

Editor-in-Chief	Bill Formyduvall
Managing Editor	Ken Dettmar
Business Manager	Ed Lipman
News Editor	Ray Jolly
Feature Editors	Dot Coplon, Nancy McFadden
Sports Editor	Bob Colbert
Advertising Manager	Bob Ferrell
Society Editor	Margot Rand
Publicity Editor	Marvin Porter
Associate Editors	Frank Warren, Larry McElroy
Advertising Staff	Catherine Cobean, Carol Iobst

EDITORIAL

The Summer School Weekly wishes to congratulate the young men participating in Boys' State on their selection as delegates and to commend the American Legion for this outstanding contribution to American self-government. Selection as a delegate to Boys' State bespeaks an outstanding high school record as well as excellent qualities of ability and character. Boys' State helps to meet a glaring need in our democratic society. For Democracy can survive only if it has an adequate number of people who know and care what is going on in the community, in the nation, and in the world, and who know enough and care enough to solve Democracy's problems and to defend her traditions and principles. Such people are the product of organizations like Boys' State. Congratulations, then, to these young men, and hearty thanks to the American Legion.

Organist Appointed By Music Department

The Music Department announces the appointment of Mr. John Shannon, organist from Charlotte, to teach organ at both the first and second summer sessions of the University. Mr. Shannon, who is scheduled to give an organ recital on August 2, is currently completing a degree in musicology. Before coming to the University he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in music at Davidson College. He studied organ with Mr. Philip Gehring while at Davidson.

The appointment of Mr. Shannon will make it possible for more students and Chapel Hill residents to study organ this summer. Previously, many had been turned away because the Music Department could not accommodate them.

Church Services

- 8:00, 10:00—Catholic Sunday mass. Gerrard Hall, on the University campus, west of South Building.
- 9:30—Community Church. Forest Theater on Country Club Road opposite Cobb Dorm.
- 9:45, 11:00—Presbyterian Church.
- 10:00—Congregational Christian Church.
- 11:00—Baptist, Lutheran and Methodist Church Services.
- 6:00 — Westminster Fellowship. Meet at Y Court to go to the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Graham. Harry Smith, speaker.
- 6:00—Canterbury Club. Supper, followed by talk by Rev. Joseph W. O'Brien, Chaplain to Episcopal Students, Duke University, Chapel of the Cross.
- 6:00—BSU Supper Forum. Baptist Church.
- 6:00—Wesley Foundation Supper Group. Methodist Church.

NCAA Tennis Contests Get Underway Monday

The NCAA tennis championships will begin here next Monday and run through Friday. Latest reports show that entries have been received from 26 schools totaling 63 of the nation's top players.

Neither the singles nor doubles winners will be here to try to regain their crown. Of last year's eight quarter-finalists in the singles, only four are returning. They are William Cranston of Yale, William Quillian of Washington, Richard Doss of UCLA, and A. Call of Southern California. These men were ranked sixth, fifth, seventh and eighth in the country last year, respectively.

Ham Richardson of Tulane, winner of the singles championships for the past two years, will not be here to defend his title. He will be playing in the Wimbledon championships in England, prior to entering Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar.

The Tar Heels will be banking on Tom Bradford, ACC singles champion, Herb Browne, ACC singles runner-up, Bob Payne and Pete Green.

The University of California at Los Angeles, winner of the team championship last year, will have its best players in competition. They will be led by Dick Doss, Jimmy Read and Joe Blatchford, who are considered to be among the West Coast's best players.

Other teams entering from the Western Conference, where the best collegiate tennis is usually played, (Continued on page 3)

Community Sing

(Continued from page 1) poses, directs, and plays, and is a student of music in the Music Department here. He, too, has had previous experience.

But you, the audience, will need no experience—the words will be flashed on a screen, and the rhythm will be furnished by the performers—all you have to do is just sing the words. These community sings have been received with tremendous enthusiasm in former years, and it is hoped that the tradition will carry over this year.

Students Are Invited To Enjoy Facilities Of Graham Memorial

Jim Wallace, the Director of Graham Memorial, wishes to invite all of you new summer school students (as well as any of you old timers) down to the student union any day of the week between the hours of 9 a.m. and 11 p.m. to enjoy the many pleasant services offered.

In addition to the usual parlor games such as cards, checkers, chess, etc., there are many novel services which can give a real lift to your daily routine.

As an example, you book-worm type critters will find a very comfortable furnished reading lounge, complete with Persian rugs and an up-to-date magazine rack with all of the popular periodicals.

If you suddenly should discover that you are tired of reading, then you can go into the snack bar where hot coffee and sandwiches are always available.

Next door, you will notice the very modern decor and, upon looking inside, see the 21-inch T.V. set (complete with antenna tuner) which will bring in all of the channels from the nearby cities, as well as our own WUNC-TV.

If, however, you are not a book-worm type critter, but fall more into the class of the "indoor athlete," then the basement of G.M. will become your own personal stomping grounds.

In this land down under, there are, in addition to a dance floor complete with a juke box, pool tables, ping pong courts, and soft drink dispensing machines. Also, when it comes time to clip your golden locks, you will find a complete barber shop which features the lowest priced haircuts in town.

Now perhaps you don't fall into either of the two above mentioned classes. Maybe you are just confused. If so, make use of the G.M. Information services. They can arrange trips in the travel agency, tell you where that cute chick in econ class lives (provided you can furnish her name) and give general information as to the location of a building or what's happening on campus.

All in all, if you take G.M. floor by floor, there are more facilities here for student recreation than in any other place around.

Jim Wallace says, "The doors are open." So, come on in.

Two European Travel Publications Available

Philadelphia, Pa.—Two new publications listing special reductions available to students traveling in Europe this summer are now being distributed by the United States National Student Association.

"Student Hostels and Restaurants" is a complete list of eating and lodging facilities available to students in the major university centers in Europe. Prices and facilities at each hostel and restaurant are listed in detail. The booklet is priced at 25¢ and may be ordered from USNSA, 1234 Gimbel Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, or through your student government.

Also available at the same price is the "Handbook on Student Travel" which includes information on travel facilities at reduced rates, summer courses and centers, student tickets to cultural events, and the addresses of the national student travel bureaus in each country.

Each USNSA member student government is being sent a number of International Student Identity Cards for 1955. These cards serve as the necessary proof of student status required to secure the special reductions listed in the "Student Travel Handbook." Additional cards may be ordered from USNSA.

'Messages From Space' Now At Planetarium

Now showing at the Morehead Planetarium is "Messages from Space". Shows are scheduled in the evenings at 8:30 on Saturdays, 11, 3, 8:30 and on Sundays at 3, 4, and 8:30. Admission price for adults is 60¢, children 25¢, and students 40¢ with ID cards.

Beginning Tuesday, June 27, and running through July, August and September will be "A Trip to Saturn." Special showings of "Messages From Space" are being held on June 16 and 17 for the boys and girls attending Boys' State and Girls' State Convention.

In the Rotunda Gallery there is a permanent collection of famous paintings given by Mr. and Mrs. Morehead. Among the pictures is a Rembrandt original acquired from the Louvre Museum, Paris, France. The picture was painted about 1632 and is a picture of Rembrandt's sister, Lizabeth.

In the North and South Galleries are featured Visual Thoughts in Three Medias—sculpture, oil paintings and photographs—by students Tom Puckett and Bob Malone.

An exhibit of Archaeological findings of ancient man in Europe is being shown in the basement.

The new cashier in the planetarium for the summer is Tish Harrer, a student from WCUNC and a math major. The former cashier, Mrs. Bunny Stone, has a new baby girl who was named Sandy Stone.

Chapel Hill Churches Plan Student Programs

by Larry McElroy

The churches of Chapel Hill have planned an interesting and varied program for the University students who are in Summer School. Students are encouraged to visit the church of their choice and to participate in these programs.

The Baptist Church's program for the students consists of the BSU Supper Forum, which meets at 6 P.M. on Sunday night, with the Reverend J. O. Cansler in charge.

The Canterbury Club, the student organization of the Episcopal Church, meets at 6 P.M. on Sunday for supper. The Reverend Robert W. Insko is in charge of this program.

The Methodist student program is divided into two parts. The program for undergraduates begins at 6 P.M. on Sunday night. A supper comes first, and this is followed by recreation. The program for graduate students, the "Over 21" group, begins at 6 P.M. on alternate Tuesdays. The group will meet on this coming Tuesday night. Those who plan to come are requested to call before-hand the Reverend Joe Savell, who is in charge of the program.

For the Second Session, the Methodists plan a joint program with the Presbyterians.

Presbyterian students are asked to gather at the "Y" Court at 6 P.M. every Sunday. There, cars will pick them up, and they will be taken to a Presbyterian home for supper. This Sunday, Dr. and Mrs. John Graham will entertain the Presbyterian students. The Reverend Harry E. Smith is in charge of the Presbyterian student program.

Five Women Graduates

(Continued from page 1)

various departments and schools of the University.

Miss Reed is serving as counselor in Spence Hall, Miss Estes is counselor in Alderman Hall, Miss Murray is assisting in Smith Dormitory, Miss Eliason and Miss Stratton have assumed the counseling services for Stacy Dormitory which is housing undergraduate women during the first summer session.