Gordon Blackwell To Lecture At Oxford University Five Weeks

Dr. Gordon W. Blackwell, Kansas Professor of Sociology in the University, will give a series of lectures at Oxford University in England during five weeks this summer. He and Mrs. Blackwell are scheduled to sail from New York on the Queen Elizabeth on Wednesday, June 29.

Dr. Blackwell was invited earlier in the year to serve as one of the lecturers in the Fulbright sponsored conference on American Studies which will be attended by 60 professors from British universities. His general topic will be American Social Institutions. Other lecturers will include Barry Bingham of the Louisville Courier and Professor Van Woodward of John Hopkins University.

The Blackwells will spend several days in Cambridge where he will give one lecture. They will have a week in London and a week in Paris, returning on the Queen Elizabeth with arrival in New York on August 30.

Two collections of mounted individual photographs of several University of North Carolina classes have been donated to the North Carolina Collection of the Library here.

Miss Sallie Foard MacNider of the library staff donated a collection of pictures of the Class of 1904. The Rt. Rev. J. Kenneth Pfohl of Winston-Salem donated a collection which included members of the Classes of 1897, 1898, 1899 and 1901.

Sunday Services At Chapel Hill Churches

The churches of Chapel Hill have outlined an interesting and varied Sunday night program for the University students in their congregations.

At 6 P.M. the Baptist Student Union will meet for supper. Evening worship is at 8:00 with everyone invited. The Reverend J. O. Cansler is in charge of the Baptist Student Union.

The young people's group of the Episcopal Church, the Canterbury Club, will meet at 6:00 for supper. The speaker will be the Reverend Robert W. Insko. At 6:30 on this Thursday night, the Canterbury Club will gather for a hayride.

The Westminster Fellowship of the Presbyterian Church will have a supper meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wynn, and the Reverend Harry Smith will speak on "The Marxist View of Man." Presbyterian students are requested to gather at the "Y" where transportation will be provided to the Wynn residence.

The Methodist student group, Wesley Foundation, will meet at 6:00 for supper. Following this, the Reverend Morton Kurtz will speak on "Christianity and Migrant Labor."

The Community Church of Chapel Hill will hold its regular morning service at the Forest Theatre. Chancellor R. B. House will be the speaker. The service will begin at 9:30 A.M. At approximately 9:05 A.M., two preludes by Mendelssohn as performed by Albert Schweitzer, will be played. In case of rain, the services will be held in Hill Hall.

Modern Dance Group Still Has Vacancies

The Modern Dance group which meets on Tuesday evenings at six o'clock in Woollen Gym still has room in the class for people who are interested in getting some exercise, learning to dance, or continuing their dance studies.

Outdoor Pool Is Open Six Days A Week

Like to swim? Well, the outdoor pool is open for you to splash around.

The pool is open from 12 noon to 6 o'clock on Monday to Friday and from 2 to 5 on Sunday. Children are allowed from 12 to 1 and from 3 to 4 each day.

Townpeople can purchase tickets from the University cashier in the basement of South Building.

For those who can't swim, or who feel they need lessons, Ralph Casey is conducting swimming lessons, both for children and adults. For further information regarding these lessons, contact Mr. Casey in his office at Woollen Gym.

Beach Parties, Pinnings, Marriages, Local Events

Beach Parties: Delta Sigs at Myrtle, K.A.'s at Myrtle and Pawley's Island, Sigma Chi's at Myrtle, and the Kappa Sigs at Myrtle.

Locals: Weiner roast and beer party by the Kappa Sigs last Thursday, and a mint-julep party this Wednesday; PiKA's at Hogan's last Friday night; Theta Chi's will be broiling steaks at Hogan's Saturday night. The Tri-Delts were entertained Thursday by the PiKA's and Sigma Nu's.

Married: Sally Liggett, Tri-Delt, to George Smith, Zeta, on June 15. The couple are now making their home in Durham. Robert L. Kurtz, Pi Lamb, to Diane Burg, June 5, at the St. Moritz Hotel, New York.

ADPi Sorority Buys Rosemary Street House

Alpha Delta Pi sorority last week purchased Mrs. I. W. Rose's home at 411 East Rosemary Street which will be extensively remodeled into a chapter house.

Mrs. H. C. Cranford, Jr., of Durham, president of the sorority's housing corporation, stated that the house will be more than doubled in size by the remodeling program, which is expected to begin in August and to be completed in December or January.

Architect James M. Webb of Chapel Hill and his associates are designing the new addition and planning remodeling of the present structure. When completed the house will comfortably accommodate 24 coeds and will have ample social and recreational facilities for the chapter's 56 active members.

The University of North Carolina was provided for in the first constitution of North Carolina, which was drawn up in 1776.
