AAU Plans Cancelled BY CH Swim Club

Ralph Casey, coach of the Chapel Hill Swim Club, said last night his team will not go to the National AAU outdoor swimming meet next week because of polio reports in the Los Angeles area.

Casey said he understood the incidence of polio was high in the area and that he "just would rather not take a chance."

He said the action followed a call from one of his team's parents regarding the polio reports.

Casey said he checked with the Orange County Health Department and with doctors who believed the trip might pass without incident.

He said he did not believe trials for his team might be arranged on the East Coast because it might set a precedent and cause other teams to request the same arrangement.

Casey's squad included Charles Krepp, Baltimore, runnerup in the 220-yard backstroke at the AAU meet at Yale in April; and Phil Drake, Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., No. 1 in the NCAA butterfly competition.

Others members are Lee Holmes, Ft. Meade, Md., distance; Gene Coggins, Philadelphia, sprinter; Tony Schiffman, Greensboro, distance; and Barry Goldwater, Staunton Military Academy, orthodox breast stroke.

Goldwater is the son of U. S. Sen. Barry Goldwater (D-Ariz).

Casey's squad has been practicing four hours a day for the past five weeks.

Interdenominational Picnic Held Sunday

On Sunday night at 6:00 the students from the Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational-Christian churches sponsored an interdenominational picnic. Everyone met at "Y" Court and walked down to Battle Park for the picnic supper. After the picnic, there was singing and fellowship followed by a student led worship service.

The chairman of the food committee was Amy Fisher of the Baptist Student Union and the chairman of the worship committee is Ancy Hoover of the Westminster Fellowship and the fellowship committee is headed by a representative of the Wesley Foundation.

The advisers for the picnic were Rev. James Cansler, Rev. Joel Savell, Rev. Richard Jackson, Rev. Harry Smith and Mr. John Riebel of the Y. M. C. A. staff.

New Chairman Is Named For SAC

As the second session of summer school opens, the S. A. C. will make a change in part of the officers. Bill Formyduvall who has been co-chairman with Hazel Crawford for the first session has resigned his position and for second session, Woody Sears and Hazel Crawford will head the S. A. C. Bill and Hazel have headed a very lively and enthusiastic council during the first session and the activities which have taken place during this first session have been under their capable leadership and coordination. Bill will continue his job as editor of the Summer School Weekly during the second session and everyone is looking forward to the fine activities that have been planned for the second session under Bill and Hazel's leadership. Woody Sears and Hazel Crawford are hoping that anyone who is interested in working on the committees under the Summer Activities Council will attend the meetings of the council each Tuesday afternoon at 5:00 in the Roland Parker Lounges of Graham Memorial.

Dr. Franz Polgar To Give Performance Wednesday, July 27

Second Session students will be treated to "America's Greatest One Man Show"—Dr. Franz Polgar. With fascinating hypnotic feats and uncanny memory stunts, Dr. Polgar has packed Memorial Hall for the last fifteen visits to the Carolina campus. In his show "Miracles of the Mind" he tries mass hypnosis (you might see one of your favorite professors hypnotized), takes those under his control on a plane trip, puts glasses on some of them that have the amazing quality of allowing the person to see through cloth, and many other items. He has been known to find his check by mental process after it had been given to someone in the audience.

For an evening of fun, plan to see this mental wizard which is sponsored by the Summer Activities Council on Wednesday, July 27th, at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

University To Offer New Television Course

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill will offer POLITICAL SCIENCE c41 TV, THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES, over Station WUNC-TV, Channel 4, on Tuesday and Thursday evenings each week, beginning July 19, and continuing through August 25, 1955. The exact time will be announced later. Dr. David Geeting Monroe, Professor of Political Science in the University at Chapel Hill, will conduct the course.

Political Science c41 TV is a basic course describing the government of the United States and directs attention to: the constitution makers and their work; federalism as a more perfect union; the brotherhood of states; freedom in America; nominations and elections; political parties and pressure groups; the Congress—structure, powers, lawmaking procedures; the Chief Executive and the practices of leadership in a Democracy; the federal judicial system—organization, jurisdiction and work; the federal administrative hierarchy—its composition, authorities and procedures; the federal government and business; and the conduct of foreign affairs.

Through the combined resources of the Bureau of Correspondence Instruction and WUNC-TV, courses may be taken either with or without semester hour credit. Those desiring to take the course for credit should take and satisfactorily complete the correspondence course, Political Science c41. It is comprised of 25 written assignments and a written final examination, and carries three semester hours of undergraduate credit.

The TV course may also be taken independently of the correspondence course; however, no credit will be given. So that the student may secure the maximum benefit from the programs, course materials may be obtained, and an unsupervised final examination taken and graded, as a means by which the student may check his own progress. Further information concerning fees, course materials, textbooks, and schedule of programs can be obtained from Miss Mary Henry, Head of the Bureau of Correspondence Instruction, Abernethy Hall, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

A spokesman for the Photo Contest stated today that the deadline would be extended another month in order to give more time for entries to be made.

The contest rules are:

1. All photos must be original.
2. All work (developing, printing, and enlarging) must be done by the entrant.
3. The first-place picture will be awarded $15, and the second-place picture $10.

Graham Memorial has a darkroom which can be used and all students are urged to use these facilities.

Entries should be turned into Graham Memorial Office for display.
