The editors talk about freedom of speech at Carolina. See page 2

NO. 14

Miss CU

(Henley Photo)

Eleanor Riggins, - UNC

te student from Knoxville,

was crowned Miss Cond University at cere-

held last night at State

Ms Slate

Week

k has been released as fol-

Grail Room.

(See GM's, Page 4)

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 2, 1955

Offices In Graham Memorial

Miss Riggins competed with two coeds from the University along with four girls from Woman's College and two from State College.

Judges Ray Jefferies, Joe Porter, and Miss Jaylee Montague judged the contestants on their general appearance, how they walked, and how they answered personal questions which were asked them.

The contestants, who were first presented during the halftime show of the Carolina, - State football game, were each given gift certificates from Robbins, Inc. in Chapel Hill. Each girl was also given a corsage at the game.

Protestant Study Set For Monday

The first of a series of studie nominations in Chapel Hill will be held oMnday at 8 p.m. in Gerrard Hall. Remaining meetings will be held Monday at 8 p.m. in Gerrard mounced These studies have been planned by the Adult Education Committee of the Community Church. The purpose is for gaining a better appreciation and understanding of the Protestant churches, accord> ing to a spokesman. The topics for each evening are Oct 3-What Makes a Church read, "... This is one of the sever-Protestant? Rev. Charles Jones, al consultant bodies which have meet in the Roland fooms, the Episcopalians minister, Community Church.

Oct. 10 - The Baptist Church. General to assist the Public Health in the Rendezvous Room Rev. Samuel T. Habel, Chapel Hill Service in carrying out the functhist at 10, and the Baagregate at 11 in Roland Baptist Church., number 1. Band practice in

Oct. 17 - The Congregational Mental Health Act. idevous Room for Don Jef-Christian Church. Rev. Richard Jackson, Chapel Hill United prised of educators in the fields of band is from 2 to 4 p.m. Flip Latham's group from

Oct. 24-The Protestant Episco- psychiatric social work and psyp.m. The Newman Club pal Church. (Leader to be an chiatric nursing, is responsible for in Roland Parker No. 2 to 3 p.m., and at 8:30 p.m.

Oct. 31-The Methodist Episco- from teaching institutions and colina Political Union meets pal Church. Rev. Charles Hubbard, making recommendations regard-Chapel Hill Methodist Church.

ing them to the National Advisory orrow at 7 p.m. there is Nov. 7 - The Presbyterian Mental Health Council and for instruction in the Rendez-Church, U.S. Rev. Vance Barron, consulting generally on the trainoom and a meeting of APO Chapel Hill Presbyterian Church. 'ing program.'

Tar Heel Show Terrific Offensive Panor Riggins Is In Outscoring Wolfpack 25-18; Reed Volumen At Big hiversity Meeting Scores Twice In Directing Victory

Temple Takes To The Air Against State

into the waiting arms of John Zubaty of North Carolina State yesterday as the Tar Heels moved the ball on rain-soaked Riddick Stadium field. "Wagon Wheels" Marinkov assisted on the tackle. Dave Reed.

DR. KEMBLE

NAMED TO

Dean Elizabeth L. Kemble of the University School of Nursing has tions authorized by the National

"The training committee, com-

psychiatry, clinical psychology,

reviewing applications for grants

INSTITUTE

Right halfback Joe Temple, University of North Carolina leaped | Fleet-footed Temple, sophomore from Valdese, N. C., was instrumental in Carolina's one touchdown win over the "hot and cold" State eleven. The above play originated on a pitchout from quarterback (Henley Photo)

BATH'S RELIVING ITS PAST:

Oldest Tar Heel Town Holds 250th Birthday

North Carolina.

were 12 houses.

peared in the small Indian village of Panticough in 1690. Fifteen years later the village was an incorporated town called

Bath after Bath, England. There

Bath today, population nearly 400, is not much larger than it was in its early days. Some of the natives believe it has not grown because of the Whitfield

Rev. George Whitfield, a

Methodist minister, appeared in Bath shortly after it became a town. He was, in his own words, these ungospelized wilds, for

(See BATH, Page 4)

. here hunting in the woods,

By JERRY CUTHRELL

been appointed a member of the North Carolina's oldest town Training Committee of the Nastarted celebrating its 250th antional Institute of Mental Health. niversary yesterday.

Dr. Scheele's letter to Dr. Kem-Bath, founded 250 years ago, ble, concerning the appointment, will be the scene of costumed festivity as it relives its histobeen established by the Surgeon

The Four-day celebration will be highlighted by a pagent, "Queen Ann's Bell," written by Edmond Harding of Washington.

It will be performed by such notable personalities as Governor and Mrs. Hodges; William B. Rodman, state attorney general; Lindsay C. Warren, former U. S. Comptroller general; Herbert C. Bonner, congressional representative; Norman Cordon, former Metropolitan Opera star; and Inglis Fletcher and Don Tracy,

The event will be the culmina-

SLATED tion of a-drive to establish Bath

The first of the 1955-56 series of demonstrations and shows at the Morehead Planetarium opens as the historical birthplace of Tuesday night at 8:30 p.m. The first white settlers ap-

NEW SKY

SHOW IS

The initial offering is titled backs of the Wolfpack. "Zooming the Solar System." The public presentation will be given Sundays at 3 and 4 p.m.

series includes examination of on the State two-yard line. system Through new technical in- from there the Pack attempted to Miss Sue Fink, who was elected fore the eyes of the audience.

Soph Quarterback Runs 83 Yards For Touchdown

Carolina's fighting Ta: Heels took an early lead and held off the charges of the State Wolfpack during the third quarter, then pushed back into the scoring limelight with a clinching fourth period touchdown to whip the Pack for the ninth consecutive time yesterday afternoon in Riddick Stadium at "Ondine," which they will per-Raleigh.

Quarterback Dave Reed guided the show for the Tar Heels during their scoring performances with an outstanding show of generalship and offensive rimning: Reed scored two touchdowns himself, and used the option play for still another Tar Heel TD.

	UNC	NC!
1st Downs	14	.14
Yards Rushing	284 "	151
Passes Attempted	2	15
Passes Completed	0	10
Yards Passing	0	144
Passes Interc. by	1	0
Punts	5	4
Punting Average	41.4	40.7
Fumbles Lost	1	1
Yds. Penalized	70	35
and the second

The Wolfpack almost caught their big rivals with a devastating show of passing and speedy running in the last half. After the "Julius Caesar," will portray The Tar Heels had led 19-6 at the in- Old One of the sea. Eugenie and termission, Rarle Edwards' . boys Auguste, Ondie's earth-parents, came back to 19-18 after a few will be Pat Liston of Chapel Hill minutes of the final stanza. Reed and Peter B. O'Sullivan of Valled a 46-yard march for the Tar halla, N. Y. Heels from there to push over the final score and break the

First Half

The first half was nearly all at 8:30 nightly with matinees Sat- Carolina as George Barclay's urdays at 11 a.m. and 3 p.m. and gang jumped off with a bang and scored within the first seven been elected president of McIver The school program will be pre- minutes. Carolina won the toss Dormitory. sented at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. on and kicked off. State moved for Miss Connie McMahon, who Wednesdays and Thursdays only, one first down, then punted into was elected to the position last and advance reservations are the end zone. Carolina drove from spring, was unable to fill the necessary. The public has been the 20 to the State 26, mainly on office due to illness which delayadmitted to the school shows. They the strength of Buddy Sasser's ed her return to UNC. may be made by mail or tele- forty-yard run, but then were bog- "I am very happy with the phone to the Planetarium office. ged down by penalties. Will Frye dorm elections," said Miss Zim-, This first program of the new punted a beauty that rolled dead merman, a senior English major.

images of members of the solar On their first bffensive play wonderful girls here in McIver." (See FOOTBALL, page 3)

Rehearsals Begin For .Fall Fantasy

Rehearsals have begun for The Carolina Playmakers' first production this fall, Giraudoux's fantasy, form Oct. 12 to 16 under the direction of Harry Davis, associate director of the Playmakers.

In the role of the enchanting Ondine will be Mrs. Jane Albans of Chapel Hill, originally from New York. Mrs. Albans has extensive experience in professional as well as university acting and dancing.

Cast as the handsone but somewhat unimaginative knight errant, Hans, is James Heldman of Durham and Chapel Hill, who has recently finished four years in the Air Force and played in the Playmakers' production of "Julius Caesar" last May.

Mary Smith, who, with her husband, Dr. W. L. Smith, a University professor of statistics, is originally from England, plays the part of Bertha, Ondine's lovely human rival. Al Gordon of Greensboro, who held supporing roles in last year's "The Crucible" and

Miss Lynn Zimmerman Named McIver Prexy

Miss Lynn Zimmerman has

i"I think we have a group of very stallations at the Planetarium, the kick out of danger. Jack Maultsby, vice-president last spring, was images grow from 11 inches to 18 a hulking 225-pounder, broke again elected vice-president after feet on the Planetarium dome be- through to block the punt and resigning to take over the president's duties temporarily.

WS OF THE WEEK IN REVIEW IN PICTURES:

Sen. Knowland Had Visitor From The Audience

William Knowland (R-Calif.) spoke here Wednesday, an unidentified Chapel Hill dog the stage and sat down beside him. Forum member Jim Monteith, left, laughed as both dog sat with rather solemn expressions. Later, Knowland patted the dog's head.

Keller Stopped By Safety Man

In the above picture Ken Keller, senior left halfback, is shown being stopped after skirting right end on a pitchout. Making the tackle for State was safety man Dick Cristy. Keller scored one of Carolina's touchdowns and kicked an extra point. (Henley Photo)

Fullback Williams Goes For Big Gain

After taking a hand off in yesterday's game, fullback Howard Williams slammed over guard for a first down before he was stopped by left halfback Dick Hunter of State. Despite the soft turf Williams and his teammates burst through the State line numerous time and occasionally gained big (Henley Photo)