ATHENS GAME:

Maultsby On Trumpet

 lot of the home folks — Roland's from College Park, Ga. — Roland's parents and brother were here to see him before the game. His brother, also a tall, husky man, was sporting a roughed-up nose from last night's high school game in College Park.
 Jack Maultsby proved to his mates Friday night that he is a man of many talents. While the combo was flashing its best form, a trumpet player lay down his instrument for a second. Big 224-pound Jack could not resist the temptation. He picked up the trumpet and joined in the rard recovered Ken Keller's fumble on the Carolina 35. On the first play from there Young missed an attempted pass play. On the second down Young faded back again and hit his favorite target, Orr, at the 16 yard stripe. On the next play Young lofted an easy 100 pass which Orr caught right at the end zone and fell out of the zone, making the catch. Cooper booted the extra point and the score was tied.

TAR HEELS FALL UNDER GA. FIRE

 The two teams traded the ball for the rest of the first half until Georgia recovered a Reed fumble on their own 34 yard line with four minutes and 18 seconds left in the first half.

With two minutes left in the half Davis hit the line for two yards to the 12. Young then took to the air again and hit Orr in the end zone for the score. Garrard booted the extra point squarely through the uprights and the Georgians led at half-time 14-7.

After the intermission Georgia came back with just as much power as she showed in the first half, perhaps even more. With the rain pouring down all during the third quarter, the Tar Heels had trouble handling the ball.

Ken Keller took the kickoff for Carolina and brought the ball back to the 28, where he fumbled and Georgia recovered. The Bulldogs could not gain and punted out on the 13. On the first play from there, Reed pitched out to Keller who fumbled again, with Georgia recovering on the six. Georgia could not gain in two plays and on the third down Joe Temple intercepted a pass in the end zone for the Tar Heels.

The final Georgia score came midway of the fourth period when Garrard intercepted a Sasser pass and raced 51 yards untouched down the sidelines. Again the pat was good and Georgia had their final margin of 28-7.

The Tar Heels were just out-classed during the game. The passing of Young broke the backs of the Carolina defense. Whenever the Tar Heels did get the ball, they could not move it. Reed did show some aptitude toward passing at times during the game.

Tar Babies Lose 13-0 To SC Frosh

By LARRY CHEEK
 Greensboro, Oct. 8 — A talented South Carolina freshman football team scored two quick first period touchdowns and held on for the rest of the game to spoil the season's opener for the North Carolina Tar Babies, 13-0, tonight.
 South Carolina, led by halfback Kink Dixon, took advantage of two North Carolina miscues in scoring its touchdowns. The first came as the result of a nine-yard kick by North Carolina, and the second followed a fumble recovered by the Biddies on the Tar Babies 33-yard line. Dixon scored the first touchdown from the six-yard line after a four-play drive. Halfback Alex Hawkins scored the second South Carolina touchdown minutes later from the one-yard line.

 The second half of the game was played on even terms, with neither team being able to score. Offensive standouts for the Tar Babies were halfback John Rompolo and fullback Don Kemper, while Dixon, one of the best high school players in the South last year, was the star for South Carolina.

Air Academy Makes Debut With Victory

DENVER, Oct. 8 — The U. S. Air Force Academy made its football debut today with a convincing 34-18 victory over the University of Denver freshmen.
 A crowd of 17,785, perhaps the largest ever to witness a frosh contest, turned out to see tradition born and history made as the three-months-old academy showed off both its blue-and-red cadet corps on parade and its football team in public for the first time.
 The Falcons drove to victory after watching the university freshmen score a touchdown on the game's first play.

LET'S GO! IT'S LUCKY DROODLE TIME!

WHAT'S THIS?
 For solution see paragraph at right.

IF YOU'RE UP A TREE about what cigarette to smoke, there's a pleasant point of view in the Droodle at left. It's titled: Davy Crockett enjoying better-tasting Lucky as seen by b'ar in tree. Luckies taste better for a hatful of reasons. First of all, Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that thar tobacco is toasted. "It's Toasted" — the famous Lucky Strike process — tones up Luckies' light, mild, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So set your sights on better taste — light up a Lucky yourself!
