

COUNCIL TO OPERATE OFF LEGISLATURE APPROPRIATION:

IDC Gives Social Fees Back To Individual Dorm

By NEIL BASS
The Interdormitory Council passed a resolution Wednesday night giving the entire amount of social fees paid in by dormitory residents to the individual dormitories. Last year the individual dormitories got 75 cents of the total $1.50 per student fee, and the IDC got 75 cents for discretionary distribution. This year the dormitories will get the entire $1.50, and the IDC will operate solely off the $735 student Legislature appropriation.

The resolution's passage marks the successful completion of one of the major platform proposals of IDC President Lewis Brumfield.

The meeting, which Brumfield called an "orientation session," was devoted primarily to talks by council officers outlining the operation of organization. Business transacted included the passage of a motion to pay $36 to a taxi company for the breakage of domes on two vehicles passing through upper quad last year, and the election of IDC Court officials.

Bob Harrington, Dan Duvall, Charles Dunn, G. C. Pridden and Ben Huffman were named by acclamation to serve on the court. Jimmy Miller, Richard Jennings, Bob Nance and Bob Ellebe were picked to man the Investigating Committee. The naming of Frank Livingston to head the Blazer Committee closed out elections for the session.

Sports Car Show Set Sunday From 2-5 P.M.

According to Clyde Bursleson, chairman of the GMAB Outings Committee, all plans are set for the sports car and driving show to be held Sunday at 2 p.m. on the intramural field next to Woollen Gym.

The entire show will last three hours. The first hour will be a display of the many interesting sports cars in this area, and two hours will be used for a driving skill show to be presented by the Piedmont Sports Car Club, according to Bursleson.

teresting old or foreign cars, have been invited to attend the show, said Bursleson yesterday, adding that a technical inspection and a driver's test will be necessary before they may enter the driving events.

Bursleson said, "This is the first event of the year for the Outings Committee and all concerned have worked hard. I would especially like to thank Mr. Cornwell of the gym for his cooperation and invite all students to come on down. I think you will find it exciting and interesting."

Dental Dames Inspect Husbands' Work Areas

Last Wednesday night the Dental Dames met and were guided on a tour of the School of Dentistry by Dr. William W. Demeritt, assistant dean of the School.

So that they might become more familiar with their husbands' work, the wives of the dental students heard some history of the school, a description of the different departments and an explanation of the teaching processes.

- Tickets -

Fowler, "has demonstrated that genuine cooperation can be the controlling factor in the student government - administration relationship. It is one step toward making the student government a true junior partner with the administration."

Fowler emphasized the importance of students' cooperation in the reduced rate experiment. "There is a possibility," he said, "that the $2 date tickets will be available throughout next year if students will lend their support by buying these tickets for the Nov. 19 game. Students who plan to purchase the reduced tickets must do so by Nov. 16, he said. Erickson pointed out that the possibility of continued reduced date tickets depended upon the students' reaction at the Virginia game. "If they complain about being pushed out," said Erickson, "then the experiment will have shown us that the policy won't work."

Officers of the Alpha Kappa Psi fraternity are Ken Argo, president; Don Christopher, vice-president; Jim McCorkle, secretary; and Bob Pugh, treasurer.
