

OPENINGS ON THE HILL:

Homecoming: Social Life Up

By SUSAN ANDES

Fighting off the Maryland Terps will be the major preoccupation of folks on the Hill this weekend.

Last night, however, there was a group of people who donned their hunting clothes and Davy Crockett hats, let their hound dogs out of the pound and made arrangements with guides to lead them to the hunting grounds. Now the subject of the hunt that Kappa Sigs and their dates went on last night was coons.

Hunting ground was somewhere out around the area of the radio tower. Tonight the Kappa Sigs and their dates will settle for a little bit more conventional party out at Beulah's. A combo and refreshments are on the agenda.

The Chi Phis have a homecoming party scheduled, not just for one night or the other but for both nights, so Collie Collison says.

The ATOs have the Goat Hill Country Club for tonight. Next week they'll be entertaining the sororities with open houses and coffee breaks after their rush parties are ended.

The Betas report that Charles Frolich of High Point is engaged to Lucy Heilig, a former St. Mary's girl also from High Point.

Third year med student Jimmy Glover of Nashville pinned Harriet Conger, Chi O. from Edenton recently. Jimmy was a Zeta in undergraduate days.

The UNC Phi Delt and the Duke Phi Delt having had their co-op party for the year, the Carolina Phi Delt will have a cabin party tonight in Durham.

The Ugly Club got the big weekend off to a blasting start last night with a party out at the Elbow Room.

The Dekes have a party scheduled for out at the Schoolhouse tonight. Lewis Neaves of Elkin, Deke, pinned Edna Dillon, Tri Delta, also form Elkin.

The Phi Gams will have their party tonight at the Castle in Durham.

The Phi Kaps have plans to christen the new bar in their house over the weekend, so that most of their activities will be right there this weekend. The Phi Kaps had a beer and pretzel birthday party the other night for Bobby Jones.

The Sigma Nus will party at the Elbow Room tonight; last night they took their dates out to the Wishing Well for a party.

The Sigma Chis had a party last night out at the schoolhouse. They have no organized party tonight, however they will entertain the visiting alumni today prior to the game.

The Pi Lambda Phis honored some of their members the other night. Among those were Dick Leavitt, Pi Lam transfer student from Michigan University. Arnold Kapiloff from Winston pinned Phyllis Passes.

Phi Gam pinnings include Al

1956 Yackety Yack Beauty Contest Set Nov. 3

The 1956 Yackety Yack Beauty Contest will be held Nov. 3 in Memorial Hall.

The contest will be run on the same general plan as last year's, according to Ken Lowery and Miss Bette Bostian, co-editors of the Yack Beauty Section. Judging will be based on symmetry of features, carriage, poise, gracefulness, complexion, hair and figure, according to the co-editors. They added that no girl who has been a member of the Yack Beauty Court previously may enter the contest. Each organization will be allowed a maximum of five contestants, and an entry fee of $5 must accompany each name before a girl may be registered, according to Lowery and Miss Bostian. Payment may be by cash or checks payable to 1956 Yackety Yack, they said, and mailed with the enclosed entry form to Ken Lowery, Chi Psi Lodge, 321 W. Cameron Ave., or brought to the Yack office in Graham Memorial. The entry list will close Oct. 29.

Each girl will be notified by letter concerning rules of the contest. The co-queen this year there will be a court of 14 princesses.

Officials Say Students Not Cooperating

The University's Buildings and Grounds Committee has pointed out that students aren't cooperating to beautify the campus.

The committee said new seeding is being trampled on, wires which were put to as reminders are being pushed down and many footpaths have been formed on the lawns despite the "abundance" of brick walks.

Intensive care of the campus is prevented by its size, said the committee, but the campus appearance as a whole is pleasing and restful. If students were more cooperative, the committee said, the campus would be even more pleasing.

Phelps from Washington to Laura Woodward, Chi O from Charlotte. Doug Crane, from Ponte Verde, Fla., pinned to Jane Eagleton, Pi Phi from Silver Springs, Md.

Recent Phi Gam initiates were Sidney Smith Bradford, Asheville; Thomas E. Capps, Wilmington; John Girardeau Gardner, Rocky Mount; and Theopolis Harper Pitt, Rocky Mount.
