'WHATEVER TAYLOR WANTS ...'

WC Juniors Present Play

PEG HUMPHREY

GREENSBORO, Oct. 14 — The Junior Class of WC took the spotlight last night as it presented "Unh" in professional Broadway style, complete with show tunes set to original college lingo and a jazz combo.

The songs were extremely clever and sung spontaneously with enthusiasm. Campaigning for Bermuda shorts on campus, the student actresses demonstrated their stylishness by a song and dance team, half of which was attired neatly in Bermudas and the other half in sloppy shirts hanging out over full wrinkled skirts.

"Bermuda Shorts are Unh Smarter," they chimed. Dean Taylor offered resistance and they countered with "The Dean is Unh Smarter" and "Whatever Taylor Wants, Taylor Gets."

Thus the plights of a WC student were hilariously presented to an appreciative audience. Misses Annah Buff and Joanne Safrir wrote the show, which was directed by Miss Harriet Conrad.

Smarter" and "Whatever Taylor Wants, Taylor Gets."

Square Dance Group Sets Meeting Today

A new square dance club will meet tonight to make plans for campus-wide dances every other weekend and square dance club meetings and dances on alternate weekends. The meetings and dance will be at 9 p.m. in the YMCA lobby.

According to Alan Goodwin, a member of the eight-man steering committee, activity cards filled out this year show 140 students indicated interest in such dancing. Also, at least 40 people, mostly students, turned out for the square dance that was held two weeks ago at the woman's gym.

The YMCA is partial sponsor, Goodwin said, and the club hopes to raise donations at dances to hire a professional caller.
