

Maryland Regains First In Grid Poll Blue Devils Drop To 17th Place; Sooners Climb To 2nd In Shake-Up

SHOP'S BUNK

By Wayne Bishop

Four football scenes were contrasted among the four Saturday afternoon games were played. State Forest probably played the best game of the year and while Carolina and Wake Forest were in with their worst games and were none too good for the whole deal.

BIG WEEKEND AHEAD:

The four teams again face a heavy weekend of action as all four teams have games scheduled. Carolina is host to a strong Tennessee team that delights in playing their best performances every year against the Tar Heels.

ODDS AND ENDS:

Buddy Payne was the only Carolina player injured during Saturday's game in Wake Forest. Payne suffered a recurrence of an old knee injury and may be forced to miss the Tennessee contest. The sophomore flankman has been a starter all year long. Norman Lane or Charles Robinson will probably fill the gap.

Carolina's basketball and football season overlap this year.

The football squad winds up its season on December 3 when they go over to Duke to meet the powerful Blue Devils. On Thursday, December 1, the Tar Heels are host to McCrory Eagles. On December 3, Saturday night, Coach Frank McGuire's five meets Clemson in Woolen Gym. The team opens official practice on November 1. The frosh also start on that date and Coach Buck Freeman is expecting a tremendous squad out.

Carolina's frosh footballers go into action this week with a game against Maryland in College Park on Thursday.

That will be a strong test for the Tar Babies, who have split two decisions so far this year.

These two overwhelming victories overshadowed the performance of Michigan, the pace setter for the past two weeks, but they evidently left some uncertainty in the minds of the sports writers and broadcasters participating in the weekly Associated Press ranking poll.

Out of 187 voters, 62 cast their first place ballots in favor of Maryland and 53 named Oklahoma first.

And when the results were all tallied on the usual 10-9-8 etc. basis, Maryland was ahead by a scant 30 points. It was 1,590 for the Terrapins and 1,569 for the Sooners.

Michigan, 14-13 winner over Minnesota, preserved its undefeated status and its lead in the Big Ten conference.

But this margin was so small in Michigan's second straight close game against a second-division opponent, that the Wolverines received only 39 first place votes and 1,433 points.

Meanwhile Duke took an unexpected thumping from twice-beaten Pittsburgh and tumbled out of the top 10 in the rankings, making room for the return of Notre Dame after a week's absence.

Fifth a week ago, Duke's Blue Devils could collect only 35 points after their 26-7 loss to Pitt. That dropped them down into 17th place, in the area where the voters were beginning to scatter the odd points all over the football map.

After Michigan, Navy retained fourth place with 1,177 points with Michigan State, UCLA, West Virginia, Auburn and Notre Dame moving up into the next five and Southern California retaining 10th.

Notre Dame's Irish had dropped out of the upper group after last week's defeat by Michigan State, but they recovered as they whipped Purdue 22-7. The other leaders all won their games by rather decisive margins.

The result was to establish next Saturday's Navy-Notre Dame game more firmly than ever as a major test of international strength.

While beating Pennsylvania 33-0, Navy was able to rest its star quarterback, George Welsh, who was bothered by a sprained toe. He'll be ready for the Irish, however.

Seven of the other top 10 teams are scheduled to play conference games this week against opponents which haven't fared well so far. The other, West Virginia takes on an intersectional rival, Marquette.

The top 10 teams with won-lost records and first place votes in parentheses, points on 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1. Maryland (6-0) (62)—1599.
2. Oklahoma (5-0) (53)—1569.
3. Michigan (5-0) (39)—1433.
4. Navy (5-0) (4)—1177.
5. Michigan State (4-1) (4)—937.
6. UCLA (5-1) (2)—909.
7. West Virginia (5-0) (13)—557.
8. Auburn (4-0-1) (8)—516.
9. Notre Dame (4-1)—462.
10. Southern California (5-1)—335.

The second 10:

11. Texas A&M (5-1)—313.
12. Georgia Tech (5-1)—111.
13. Holy Cross (5-0) (1)—50.
14. Texas Christian (5-1)—49.
15. Ohio State (3-2)—41.
16. Pittsburgh (4-2)—38.
17. Duke (4-1)—35.
18. Miami (Ohio) (5-0)—20.
19. Washington (4-1)—14.
20. Mississippi (5-1)—11.
