

BLAZER SALE NETS 60

The Interdormitory Council Blazer Committee has announced approximately 60 Carolina blazers were sold this week. Most popular color, said a committee spokesman, was charcoal grey. Coeds bought the majority of the blazers, said the spokesman.

The jackets have a patch breast pocket with the Carolina emblem. The spokesman said the IDC hopes to have a similar blazer sale at the beginning of next semester.

Joyce Authority To Speak Tonight

Professor Weston LaBarre of Duke University, anthropologist and authority on James Joyce will be the principal speaker at the English Club meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Library Assembly Room. LaBarre, professor of anthropology at Duke, is the author of the best-seller, The Human Animal and is at present acting as a commentator for classical music program on Radio Station WTKR. His lifelong interest, however, has been James Joyce, the author of Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man, Ulysses and Finnegans Wake. He has a large collection of Joycean materials, including many first editions of Joyce's works. The topic of LaBarre's address will be "James Joyce," and to illustrate his lecture he is bringing with him his collection of Joyce materials. The general public has been invited to attend.

LOCAL ART EXHIBIT SLATED HERE

Any adult resident of Orange County, including University students and their wives, may be an exhibitor in the Third Annual Exhibition of Local Art. Sponsored by the Chapel Hill School Art Guild, the exhibition will open Thursday in the north and south galleries of the Morehead Planetarium.

Prizes for GMAB FOOTBALL CONTEST are donated by J. B. Robbins of Chapel Hill and Town & Campus.
