Hathaway Sparks Tar Baby Squad

COLLEGE PARK, MD. Oct. 28-A powerful Maryland freshman football team scored in the first, third, and final quarters here this afternoon to down the North Carolina Tar Babies, 21-7.

Carolina, sparked by the quarterbacking of Curtis Hathaway and the running of halfbacks Danny Droze and Carroll Wright, threatened often throughout the game but were able to score only in the last quarter.

Maryland broke the scoring ice when halfback Ed Kercher took a Carolina punt in the first quarter and ran it back 58 yards to score the touchdown. The point was good and Maryland led, 7-0.

In the early minutes of the third quarter Maryland drove from their 20 to the UNC 20 where quarterback Dick Lewis completed a 20yard pass to Al Beardsley for the Baby Terps' second touchdown.

Carolina's lone score came in the fourth period after Hathaway had intercepted a Maryland pass on the Maryland 24 yard line. Hathaway passed to end Mac Turlington for the touchdown. Donnie Smith added the extra point
