

THE DUKES:	DUKE & NAVY	N. C. STATE & BOSTON U.	Wake Forest Wm. & Mary	TAR HEELS & USC	NOTRE DAME & PENN
---------------	----------------	----------------------------	---------------------------	--------------------	----------------------

SHOP'S BUNK:

UNC-USC: Bad Breaks

WAYNE BISHOP
The Tar Heels, in the four-game losing streak this afternoon at Carolina, in one of their rough scheduled games take a slightly better than Tar Heels into the have won two of six against the Tar Heels' one

Coach George Barclay in this game is the Tar Heels after a rough that has sent them consecutive times. Carolina crew has a which is much better record would indicate. so true of the Tar ams have had bad the form of injuries. Both squads lost over one quarterbacks this season. South Carolina Mackie Prickett, the passer last season, on list with a broken rib. Buddy Sasser of Heels still is bothered Harley horse he suffered the Oklahoma fumble. not been right since injuries besides the meocks think they offensive worked out Prickett back for full Carolina has been week to improve her Coach Barclay says, been able to move the season, but every time something pops the ball. The Tar Heels have all season long. afternoon's workout most spirited of the sea-squad made final prefor the game. The Irish Today?

ASSOCIATED PRESS
The more colorful stories Duke Rockne used to tell in a time when he tackled in a pro football game. arose from the turf, and to the crowd in and said: "See all these Rockne? They come old Jim run."

thinking may explain 30,000 fans are expected to turn out today for the between Notre Dame and Carolina. They want to see the run. As a football figures to be the kind which that a boxing comever would allow. Duke is ranked sixth in college football powers week's Associated Press is a team that has been since its one setback in State. Penn has lost and the only thing its coach, Steve Sabo, could was to put a couple in the lineup in hope and spirit would make showing against the high ranking teams also led to attract sizeable day, but in most cases reason. Maryland takes Carolina State, which has once but has given a to several South-conference powers, while and Michigan, 2 and 3, face old and respect-should rack up its victory, its 51st game in the Big Seven and in an unbroken scoring against Missouri. But chance of the Tigers and Hank Burnine against indicates that they could Likewise a speedy set backs might give Michigan trouble although the Illinois only one Big Ten in two seasons.

team went through the workout with all the regulars in good condition for today's struggle. Not a single probable starter is on the injured list at the present. The Gamecocks have been picked as 6 point favorites by the oddsmakers. Both teams have played Wake Forest and Maryland. The Deacs whipped South Carolina 34-19 and Carolina 25-0. Maryland was victorious over USC, 27-0 and UNC, 25-7.

SATURDAY'S PICKS:

Duke v. Navy: The Blue Devils just aren't the same team with-

Duke-Navy Meet In Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4 (AP)—If anybody is putting much weight on Navy's football loss last week to Notre Dame as a factor in tomorrow's game with Duke, their memories must be short. Last year, Notre Dame beat Navy 6-0 and the next Saturday the Middies gave Duke its worst licking of the year, 40-7. That might have more effect on the game at 2 p.m. EST in Memorial Stadium before an estimated 30,000 than Navy's inability to recover from Notre Dame.

Early this season, word seeped up from the South that Duke still was burning from the 1954 humiliation and really was out to atone. Coach Bill Murray of Duke naturally denied any such idea this week, saying he had too many others to worry about—such as Ohio State, Pitt and Georgia Tech before Navy.

URGE
However, the urge to get even could be intensified by those same things: Pitt and Georgia Tech beat Duke the past two Saturdays after the Blue Devils were riding high with four straight victories.

Navy suffered only one serious physical setback at Notre Dame. Fullback Dick Guest suffered painful rib injuries, but may be able to play some against Duke. Otherwise, a high stepping substitute named Vince Monto will be in there. Duke has a much more serious personnel problem. It concerns the ability of Sonny Jurgensen to play quarterback and how long Duke simply had no attack without him against Georgia Tech last Saturday.

Heart Attack Claims Pitcher Cy Young

PEOLI, Ohio, Nov. 4 (AP)—Cy Young died today of a heart attack. Baseball knew him as its greatest winning pitcher, first flinger to enter the Hall of Fame. His 30-odd neighbors in this tiny village knew him for the most tender and enduring love story ever written in his native Tuscarawas County hills.

LUXURIA CREAM
1/2 price for a limited time only!

BIG 9 OZ. SIZE 125 (plus tax) REG. 2.50...
Stock up on this wonderful cleansing and beautifying cream at this important saving. It's a long term investment in loveliness.

SUTTON'S DRUG STORE

out Sonny Jurgenson in top form. It does not look like Sonny will be able to start, or go at top speed, tomorrow, so we have to string along with the Navy. With Jurgenson in the lineup it would be a different story. State v. Boston College: The Wolfpack is running into the easy end of its schedule and picking up some wins, finally. The Pack has a good team that is improving each week. Boston does not have a very strong team this year, so we take State by several TD's.

Wake Forest v. William and Mary: The Deacs are liable to beat anybody when their passing is right. William and Mary has seen her better days in the past, but she is not holding much this season. Wake Forest by two touchdowns. North Carolina v. South Carolina: Both teams will be out to improve their records in this one. The Gamecocks are one of the easiest on the Tar Heel schedule, but they still pose a tough problem. It should be a high-scoring ball game, but the Tar Heels could win if they got the breaks. The team that takes advantage of the breaks will win this one. Take your pick!

Both Coaches Expect Plenty Of Touchdowns

(Continued from Page 1.)
all season with an injured ankle, until last week's game with Tennessee. Varnum broke loose for 30 yards in three carries in that contest and showed lots of promise for the future.

Either Varnum, Howard Williams or Ken Keller will start at left half. Keller is the team's leading ground gainer. Joe Temple or Ed Sutton will start at the other half back post and Wally Vale will be at fullback. Dave Reed and Buddy Sasser are expected to share the quarterbacking duties.

Will Frye and Buddy Payne will man the ends, Roland Perdue and Jack Mautsby will be the tackles. Jack Lineberger and Hap Setzer will be the guards, and Jim Jones is the center. That will probably be the starting line although Coach Barclay has hinted he may have some changes there.

Others certain to see plenty of action are tackle John Billich, guard Bill Koman, center George Stavitski and end Charles Robinson.

Carolina is hoping to mix up its offensive in this game more than it has in the past. With a good running attack around the ends, the Tar Heel line smashes will be more effective. Varnum was very impressive sweeping the Tennessee flanks last week.

Reed will do most of the passing with Keller helping out. Keller has not passed much this season.

Clemson-Va. Tech To Duel At Roanoke

ROANOKE, Va., Nov. 4 (AP)—Ambitious Clemson tries for its sixth football victory here tomorrow against a Virginia Tech team still seeking the consistent offense it somehow mislaid after an all-winning 1954 season.

The sensation of 'East of Eden'
JAMES DEAN
as a kid from a 'good' family, caught in the undertow of today's juvenile violence!
"REBEL WITHOUT A CAUSE"

WARNER BROS. PRESENTS IN CINEMASCOPE AND WARNERCOLOR

Late Show Tonight—Doors Open 11:30 p. m. REGULAR SHOWING SUN. MON. TUES.

Virginia Frosh Whip UNC, 14-0

By LARRY CHEEK

The Virginia Cavalier freshman football team struck for touchdowns in both the first and second periods, and coasted the rest of the afternoon to take a 14-0 win over Carolina's Tar Babies yesterday in Kenan Stadium.

It was strictly a Virginia show from start to finish as the warriors from the Old Dominion completely dominated play, keeping the Tar Babies deep in their own territory all day long. Carolina was able to cross the midfield stripe only three times, with all of the penetrations coming in the second half. The deepest Tar Baby thrust carried to the Cavalier 24 yard marker in the fourth quarter on a drive of some 45 yards. Fullback Don Kemper was the spark plug as he shook loose on a 32-yard gallop, the longest of the day for a Carolina runner.

Carolina won the toss and elected to receive, but was unable to move the ball and so were forced to kick. Virginia took over the ball on her own 27 yard line, and proceeded to move 73 yards in 11 plays for the first score of the afternoon.

The good right arm of Quarterback Fred Russel was particularly effective on this drive as he completed two 20 yard passes to End Sandy Morris, the last of which carried to the Tar Baby 5 yard line. Right Halfback Al Cash carried to the 3, and on the next play Jim Robeson, the other halfback, carried across for the tally. Morris added the extra point, and the Cavaliers led, 7-0.

The next Virginia TD came as a result of a Carolina fumble midway the second quarter. This time it took only five plays to move the pigskin to paydirt from the Tar Baby 35 yard marker. Robeson and

UNC Booters, State Fight To 3-3 Draw

The Carolina Tar Heels and the State Wolfpack pulled out all stops yesterday as they battled to a 3-3 draw in an ACC soccer match played in Raleigh.

Coach Marvin Allen's Booters led all the way up until the fourth period when Jack Routh of State kicked home the tying marker for the Wolves. The two squads scraped tooth and nail through two overtime periods, but neither outfit was able to score.

Grover Brown, John Foster and Calvin Lane were the scorers for Carolina while Bill Eudy, Earl Baxter and Routh tallied for the Wolfpack.

Foster and Pete Cothran led the Tar Heel offense, while Brown and Bill Blair paced the sometimes sagging Carolina defense. Goalie

CHICKEN LOVERS! THIS IS IT!
TWO BIT (25¢) FRIED CHICKEN

SALE

EVERY WEDNESDAY & SATURDAY

FIRST 1/4 CHICKEN REGULAR PRICE
EVERY QUARTER CHICKEN
THEREAFTER 25¢ (TWO BITS)

ALL YOU CAN EAT

(This includes salad, 2 vegetables, garlic toasted French bread)
BRING YOUR LITTLE CHICK FOR A LITTLE CHICKEN TO THE

RATHSKELLER

It's Old Book Week

- Special Display of recently acquired Rare Books—
- Special Display of Old Books at Reduced Prices—
- 10% off on any two old Books not otherwise reduced

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP

205 E. Franklin St.

Open Till 10

THE CENTURY OF TERROR!

Infamous days of slaughter...
flaming nights of conquest...
when blood-mad legions raged across a world gripped
by brutal passions!

CINEMASCOPE
FLINGS WIDE
THE GATES OF SAVAGE SPECTACLE!

ALLIED ARTISTS
presents

ERROL FLYNN
JOANNE DRU · PETER FINCH

THE WARRIORS

PHOTOGRAPHED IN CINEMASCOPE
PRINTED BY TECHNICOLOR

with YVONNE FURNEAUX · ROBERT URQUHART · NOEL WILLMAN
A WALTER MIRISCH Production · Directed by HENRY LEVIN · Story and Screenplay by DANIEL B. ULLMAN

NOW PLAYING

Carolina

PLUS
COLOR CARTOON
LATEST NEWS