

STADIUMS YESTERDAY:

NC 32 NC 14	NC State 40 Boston U 13	Wake Forest 13 Wm. & Mary 7	Notre Dame 46 Penn 14	Duke 7 Navy 7	Maryland 13 LSU 0	Yale 14 Army 12	Tennessee 7 Ga. Tech 7
----------------	----------------------------	--------------------------------	--------------------------	------------------	----------------------	--------------------	---------------------------

Bishop's Bunk: A Game For The Kids

BYNE BISHOP
Va., Nov. 5—High school bands, serenade fans, Shriner-enthusiastic spectators, and a parade of one of the nation's finest and charitable Oyster Bowl cere-successful Oyster Bowl with all proceeds for the Shrine fund for children, provided a heart-warming show for people inside Foreman Field. The big thrill, however, was the realization of the purpose of the entire theme "Strong as Weak Legs May Be" which provided different bands from organizations provided for the gala event. It was an hour and a half long Granby St. in the morning. Before the bands provided entertainment for the early biggest thrills during this old Heel was the UNC North Carolina Band which down Granby St., holding its own with ranking marching bands cheer.

The starting line-ups announced before the crowd was unusually large until the public speaker got around Payne, Carolina end, Norfolk boy and was the eye of most of the spectators. He received ovation of any kind.

Norfolk reverend gave sermon before the game. Stadium was hushed. Old Glory was raised at end of the stadium. Wind, the spectators would be a great fans weren't disappointed. Coach Barclay's spoke out from the spirited brand of was not been displayed Oklahoma tussle. It the highest results, first score broke open, after Sasser had stage of a gift fumble Gamecocks to score the Sutton then took off and another marker. The birds into too big certainly looked as if saved the quarterback with his well-done job. runner-up in the voting trophy. It was the Buddy has been in since he hurt his leg Alabama game to open

SOLVES PROBLEM

Heels scored in every first time this they picked up two first stanza, then marker every that. He gave the fans thrill Early in the quick kick on first down, after the Tar Heels had been penalized 15 yards. Vale's boot caught the Gamecock safety man flat-footed and traveled 51 yards. Later in the game Tar Heels tried the same play, but the punt was blocked. Will Frye took over the punting

Duke, Navy Balance Out In 7-7 Draw

BALTIMORE, Nov. 5 (AP)—Fullback Bryant Aldridge's running for Duke offset sensational second half passing by George Welsh of Navy today as the teams battled to a 7-7 football draw. Each missed breaking the tie with tries for field goals in the last quarter.

Duke's Jim Nelson missed a field goal from the 15 in the last 40 seconds. Navy's Ned Oldham tried one unsuccessfully just before that from the Duke 40 after the Blue Devils had knocked the Middles back from their own 11.

The teams, after trying little more than to buck each other's lines in an unimpressive first half before 27,119 in Memorial Stadium, scored in the third quarter.

Welsh, completing seven straight passes after the second half open-duties in the last half as Don Lear replaced Vale at fullback. Lear showed fine form in racking up good yardage. His power smashed through the line and carried a couple of Gamecock linemen backwards nearly every time.

ed, pitched Navy to its score on a 13 yard pass to All-American end Ron Beagle. Twice during the 84 yard drive after the second half kickoff, Welsh gambled on last down on his own 37 and Duke's 37 for first downs and substitute Back Vince Monto made them good.

Duke, which stuck to the ground all the way with Quarterback Sonny Jurgensen throwing only six times and completing none, got even after Welsh pulled a questionable play. The Navy quarterback made a vain stab for a bouncing punt which he couldn't hold and Bernie Blaney recovered on the Navy 35.

Aldridge, 192-pounder from Kinston, N. C., bulled the last 27 yards by himself on four hits at the Navy line and scored from the 1.

Brazell Cuts Loose—But Not Quite

South Carolina's flash halfback, Carl Brazell (22), picks up 38 yards on a punt return in the first quarter of yesterday's Oyster Bowl game against UNC in Norfolk. John Jones (73), UNC center, follows the play. (Photo by Perry Breon, Norfolk Virginian Pilot)

Tar Heels Show Spirit All Through USC Tiff

(Continued from Page 1.)

back on the 29. Sasser then took the hike, ran to his left and pitched out to Sutton. Sutton streaked around his end and headed for the left sidelines. Sutton was hit twice, but spun away, finally breaking into the clear at the South Carolina 40. He outraced the defenders for the rest of the way. The play covered 71 yards from scrimmage. Carolina led, 12-0.

GAMECOCKS MARCH

South Carolina came back to march from their 29 to the Carolina 13, where Bill Tarrer fumbled and Will Frye recovered for the Tar Heels. The two teams traded punts for most of the second period. With 3:40 left in the half, Sutton took a Gamecock punt on his 45 yard line and streaked 55 yards behind precision-blocking for the final UNC score. Ken Keller booted the extra point and Carolina led, 19-0.

On the first play from scrimmage after the kickoff, Carroll McClain raced around left end for South Carolina and sped 69 yards for the Gamecock's first tally. John Silas booted the extra point, making the score UNC 19, USC 7.

Neither team could push over another score in the remaining seconds of the first half.

SECOND HALF

After the intermission the Tar Heels came out with just as much vigor as they showed in the spirited first half. Bill Koman intercepted a South Carolina pass and returned it to the 37 yard line of the Gamecocks.

With Sasser directing the show, the Tar Heels steadily punched out the yardage for their fourth score. Don Lear, Sasser and Sutton alternated in the drive to carry the ball for a first and ten at the seven. On second down Sasser faked the South Carolina tackle and end out of the play and swiftly stepped off six yards into the end zone for the touchdown. A bad hike from center prevented the extra point try. Carolina led, 25-7.

South Carolina showed it was still in the game after the kickoff. The Gamecocks marched up to the 38 yard line in three plays, then lost on an attempted pass back to their 32. Quarterback Mackie Prickett fired a screen pass to Carl Brazell at the South Carolina 27 and he worked his way down the field behind an avalanche of red-shirted blockers. The play was good for 62 yards, and after the extra point made the score 25-14.

Sutton was the individual ground gaining leader for Carolina. He carried the ball 13 times and picked up 123 yards. Don Lear and Ken Keller also made good yardage for Carolina, as did Sasser.

Penn Slows Irish Up, But Not Enough: 46-14

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 5 (AP)—Sophomore Frank Riepl returned the opening kickoff 108 yards for a touchdown and Pennsylvania's biggest thrill of the football season today, but only delayed things as Notre Dame rallied its forces in the second half and whipped past the quakers, 46-14.

Steamed up by Riepl's astounding speed, the winless quakers took the lead a second time in the opening half, 14-7, before they finally yielded to the superior power of a Notre Dame team that was ranked sixth in the nation in this week's Associated Press poll.

Notre Dame, surprised into a series of mistakes in the first half, asserted itself in the second when it scored two third period touchdowns on a pair of 69-yard drives to take command of the game, then ran away in the last period.

The crowd of 45,226 thrilled more to Penn's unexpected first half performance than it did to Notre Dame's second half superiority. In spite of the score, it was Penn's finest performance of a dismal season and Penn fans ripped down the goal post even before the last play.

Terps Thump Tigers, 13-0, In Maryland

COLLEGE PARK, MD., NOV. 5 (AP)—Maryland's top rated Terrapins scored on a shocking 32-yard pass play and a grinding 53-yard drive today to down hard-hitting Louisiana State 13-0 and remain unbeaten.

The first time the Terps got the ball in the second half they put on one of their famous drives, travelling 56 yards in 10 plays. Steady Ed Vereb carried the last four yards.

Frank Tamburello, Maryland's cocky quarterback, hit halfback Jack Healy with a pass midway of the second quarter to break open a titanic defensive struggle and put his team ahead. Healy grabbed the ball on the 13, juggled it and went over.

Inspired Yale Upsets Favored Army By 14-12

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 5 (AP)—An inspired Yale football team, playing as though the Ivy League reputation was at stake, upset heavily favored Army today 14-12 in Yale Bowl before 61,000, the East's biggest crowd of the season.

Deacons, Favored By Two, Finally Whip W&M 13-7

WAKE FOREST, Nov. 5 (AP)—Halfback John Parham streaked 66 yards to set up one Wake Forest touchdown which he scored from the 2, and then recovered a fumble to set up the winning score as the Deacons triumphed over William and Mary, 13-7, today.

The Deacons, favored by two touchdowns, had to come from behind late in the final quarter to take their victory from the underdog Indians. A crowd of 4,500 turned out to see the game, the final contest for the Deacons in Grove Stadium. Next year they are scheduled to move to a new campus in Winston-Salem.

Wake Forest's passing attack faltered and the Deacons had to rely on Parham's sparkling running to score their fourth victory of the season with three losses and a tie. They already have had their best season since 1952.

William and Mary dominated the first quarter and late in the period staged a drive that carried to the Wake Forest 1 yard line.

After stopping the drive on the final play of the period, the Deacons went 99 yards in 9 plays. Parham set it up with a 66-yard run to the W&M 10. Three plays later he circled right end two yards for the touchdown.

William and Mary took the kickoff and scored 10 plays later. Fullback Doug Henley bulled 23 yards to the Deacon 47 and Quarterback Tom Secules passed 34 yards to End Walt Brodie on the Deacon 20 to feature the drive. Henley plunged over from the two for the score.

Parham set up Wake Forest's winning score when he recovered Halfback Jay Sanner's fumble on the W&M 3. Seven plays later Quarterback Nick Consoles squeaked over from the 1.

Parham personally accounted for more than half Wake Forest's yardage as he ran up a gain of 151 yards in 20 carries. The Deacons gained 238 yards rushing and only 19 through the air as they completed 2 of 10 passes. Two were intercepted.

Swift striding star Wayne Bishop from Greenville, will be aiming for his seventh straight first place finish of the year, while a couple of his teammates will be attempting to unseat him.

Dave Seurlock and Bill Leusing have been chasing Bishop all season long, and tomorrow they hope to catch him. Howard Kahn and Nick Palmer are other Tar Heel threats.

State Swamps BU, 40-13, In Mud

BOSTON, Nov. 5 (AP)—A strong North Carolina State football team unleashed a horde of hard-driving backs today to overwhelm Boston University, 40-13, in the mud and rain before a hardy crowd of 4,000 at B.U. Field.

The Wolfpack from the South struck for two touchdowns early in the opening period and went on to easily register its third straight victory.

Quarterback Eddie West and Halfbacks Dick Hunter and George Marinkov each scored twice, but the back who drew the most attention was Halfback Dick Christy, a fancy-stepping sophomore.

Christy set up the first touchdown, tallied at 3:45 of the first period when he returned the kickoff 28 yards to the State 45, and two plays later romped 15 yards to the Boston 35.

All told, the elusive 183-pounder carried the ball 12 times and picked up a total of 103 yards. His performance was remarkable because of the mud and the many small pools on the field.

Boston University's running attack was smothered by a hard-charging Wolfpack line and the watery grounds. The Terriers were forced to take to the air and broke into the scoring column in the third period when trailing 34-0.

Quarterback Phil O'Connell passed to End John Bredice for a 43 yard scoring play and Capt. Ken Hagerstrom raced 12 yards up the middle for the first Boston tally.

The visitors from North Carolina needed only six plays after the opening kickoff to score their first touchdown. After a holding penalty set the Wolfpack back to the Boston 40, West passed to Hunter, who took the ball on the 22 and raced untouched into the end zone. Tackle Johnny Bagonis place-

Vols Tie Ga. Tech, 7 To 7

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 5 (AP)—A fired-up band of Tennessee Volunteers battled Georgia Tech, the nation's eighth-ranking football team, to a 7-7 draw today before an overflow throng of 50,000.

The eager young Vols, obviously at a high pitch for the game, took the opening kickoff and rambled 58 yards in nine running plays for their lone touchdown.

The Engineers, turned back repeatedly in the second and third periods, finally mounted a scoring drive midway the fourth quarter to tie the score.

The tie probably eliminated Tech from the conference title chase, but it should have little effect on the Engineers' hopes for a post-season bowl game.

Tailback Johnny Majors, a constant threat to Tech with his running and passing, maneuvered the Vols to their touchdown before hundreds of fans found their seats. The jubilant Vols rode Coach Bowden Wyatt out to midfield on their shoulders for the traditional handshake with Tech Coach Bobby Dodd.

Collect Old Humor...

Yesterday's humor is a little like aged Chinese eggs. The flavor, though distinctive, is more highly prized by the connoisseur than by ordinary folk. But once you develop the taste, there's nothing so delightful.

As a collector's field, it is just right: Good items are scarce enough that there's a thrill in their discovery, but not so scarce that it's all looking and no finding. Rich collectors have not bid up prices—at least not this far—and you can usually afford to pick up a number when you run into it.

For example, on our shelves as we write this is a copy of "My Opinions and Betsy Bobbet's" by Josiah Allen's Wife—a heady and mellow bit of American humor circa 1870, and it's priced at only $1.50. Of the same vintage and degree of ripeness is "Sam Slick of Slickville" by Haliburton, priced at $2.00. Or if your taste runs to old England, there's a copy of the second American edition of "The Confessions of Harry Lorrequer," with Phiz illustrations, at $1.95.

Prices seem low? That's the nice thing about old books. Although they add so much distinction to your bookshelves, they frequently cost less than dull, run-of-the-mill book club selections.

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP

205 E. Franklin St.
Open Till 10 P.M.

CHECKS
you out in style

VAN HEUSEN "BANKERS CHECKS"
... a rich-looking casual wardrobe idea

On Wall Street or Fraternity Row, Van Heusen checks you out in checks that make you feel as affluent as an industrial lion's scion. These very special checks come in 4 colors that look definitely upper-bracket... at down-to-earth prices that won't tax you at all. Shirts, in many collar styles, $3.95; with handsome matching neckties at only $1.50.

Order Your Swanky Imprinted Christmas Cards Now... and Have Time To Address Them.

The Intimate Bookshop
205 E. Franklin St.
Open Till 9 P.M.

Van Heusen Products Exclusive at

Saxon & Campus

TOW, AS UNC RUNS AGAINST DEACONS:

Another Chance For Beatty

LARRY CHEEK
gets a shot at another country record to lead his varsity against the Wake Deacons in a meet at Baptist Hollow. It last dual meet of the Coach Dale Ramson's contest—everyone on the squad posted his best time of the year. Carolina has a 5-2 record for the campaign, and will be looking for their eighth victory at the expense of the Deacons. Losses have come at the hands of Maryland and N.C. State, the two conference big dogs, while wins have come over Virginia, Clemson, Richmond, Tennessee and Duke.

Beatty will be the Tar Heels big weapon tomorrow, but he will be backed by a highly capable supporting cast led by senior co-captains Bob Barden and Glen Nanne. Sophomore Everett Whatley, a consistent performer all year, will be the number four man, while Russ Glatz, Ronnie Harwood and Marion Griffin are slated to fight it out for fifth spot.

Carolina's undefeated freshman harriers will go after their seventh consecutive win of the season against the Wake Forest yearling runners in a meet immediately preceding the varsity clash. The Tar Babies will be looking for their second win of the season over the Baby Deacons. Earlier this year Carolina