

Mighty Irish Invade Tar Heelia Today

WOP'S BUNK

By Wayne Bishop

band of huskies from South Bend, Indiana, flew into yesterday afternoon, and promptly hurried over to a brief workout on the Kenan Stadium turf. Coach's Notre Dame club brings an undefeated 6-0 record with the Tar Heels in the past, and are 28 point favorites in their seventh straight against the Carolina school.

After the Notre Dame workout, Coach George Barley followed out onto the field and wrapped up preparation. The Tar Heels filled Kenan Stadium with their cheer, and seemed to be in the same frame of mind they were in the South Carolina game last week. Coach Barclay's gang is up inside to win that game, and they came out with an HORNUNG: "Hornung" seems to be the main thought at the Carolina Barclay believes the Irish go as Hornung goes. The runs, passes, punts, and even kicks off, according to Barclay, has not missed a game so far, so the Irish have not had a tested without him. Undoubtedly the Tar Heels will be the reins on Ralph Guglielmi's able successor.

Don Schaeffer and halfback Jim Morse are the other big Irish attack. They combine with Hornung's mastery at the post, to give the Irish a highly potent ground offensive. Barclay prefers to stick to the ground, but has shown a willingness to gain through the air.

TEN IRISH: The Tar Heels and the Irish have had a good series since it opened at the Tar Heels have never been able to come out of a long end of the score. In 1950 and 1951 the Tar Heels were down to 12-7 and 14-7, but they never could force the tie at the moment to win the game.

Coaches do not give Carolina much of a chance to break this the last meeting between the two schools. The Tar Heels have considerable improvement last week, but most of the Irish have just got too much all-around power. Gerry Brennan, who took over the helm of the club last week, Leary retired, has guided the Irish to a 15-2 record in his alma mater. The 27-year-old former halfback at Duke has led his club to a 6-1 mark so far this year, a 6-1 record in his first season.

STADIUM: The Tar Heels had plenty of spirit during their short workout yesterday. The team stood around for a while when they first came to Kenan Stadium. The players, as were the coaches, were in beautiful Kenan, the pride of UNC.

Each Carolina group will have to play at top speed for this afternoon, if they want to keep in the game against the well-drilled group. The Tar Heels have hit a winning streak now, and all of the players will be at top speed, but in the same category. Coach Brennan never has any doubts about his Notre Dame team, but the Tar Heels have had some of the best moments. A top-flight performance is sorely needed by the Tar Heels. The team's showing today will probably determine the other two games on the schedule, against Virginia Tech. A good showing against the Irish could be the springboard to the completion of the Tar Heel comeback; but a poor performance would well mean complete disaster.

Barclay-Men Hope To Surprise Foe

Notre Dame's mighty Irish, football's perennial champion, move into picturesque Kenan Stadium this afternoon to run head-on into an upstart University of North Carolina squad in Dixie's headline game of the week.

The Tar Heels, who brought all their horses together last week in an impressive win over South Carolina, enter the game 28 point underdogs, but ready and determined to turn the tide on the Fighting Irish. Both teams went through a brisk and spirited workout on the Kenan Stadium turf yesterday afternoon to wind up the week's work.

A crowd of 35,000 is expected to see the final of a seven game series between the two schools. Officials have announced the game is not a sellout and tickets will be available this morning at Woollen Gymnasium or at the ticket booths.

HORNUNG LEADS IRISH

Burly Paul Hornung, a 205-pound quarterback, directed the Irish through a 30-minute signal drill yesterday afternoon as they put the finishing touches on before the game. Hornung, a junior who was moved from fullback to fill the quarterback vacancy after Ralph Guglielmi graduated, has led the team throughout the season. He has bordered on the sensational side all season long, rising to his peak performance of the season in a hard-fought 21-7 Notre Dame win over Navy.

Hornung's cohorts in the backfield are speedy Jim Morse and fullback Don Schaeffer. Morse has averaged 5.2 yards per carry and Schaeffer has a 4.2 average. Dean Studer averages 5.4 and Hornung 4.7 to round out the starters figures. It is Morse and Schaeffer, however, that carry the bulk of the load along with Hornung.

The Tar Heels will open with Buddy Sasser, Ed Sutton, Ken Keller, and Don Lear in the backfield. Sutton and Sasser are the fair-haired boys after their performances last week against South Carolina. Last Saturday Sutton scored twice on 71 and 55 yard runs, while Sasser scored the other three TD's.

Keller and Lear are powerful runners who get their yardage through the center of the line.

For the Tar Heels it will be the same starting line-up that opened the season. The starting line that held Oklahoma when the going was rough has been installed and will be at top strength. The Tar Heels are hoping that strong line, plus an improved pass defense will be the right combination to stop the vaunted Irish attack. Then, if old Sudden Ed Sutton can break away once, the Tar Heels will be sitting on top of the football world.

Who knows?

The starting line-up:

Notre Dame	Pos.	Carolina
Prendergast	LE	Frye
Nicola	LT	Maultsby
Bisceglia	LG	Setzer
Mense	C	Stavitski
McMullan	RG	Koman
Lemek	RT	Bilich
Scannell	RE	Payne
Hornung	QB	Sasser
Studer	LHB	Keller
Morse	RHB	Sutton
Schaeffer	FB	Lear

Yearling Booters Clobber Wolfpack

By ALBERT GOLDSMITH

North Carolina's freshman soccer team handed State a lop-sided 6 to 2 defeat yesterday afternoon to conclude their season undefeated.

Pete Killinger was the big gun for the Tar Babies as he scored two goals in the first period and one in the second period to account for 3 of the Tar Babies' 6 points. Killinger was followed by Tom Rand, Coleman Barks and Rick Grausman who each had one point.

The Carolina yearling booters took an early lead having a 3 to 0 advantage over the hapless State freshman after one period of play. The Tar Babies added one goal in the second period and two goals in the third period, while State managed to boot the ball into the UNC net only twice. Angles scored both of the State goals which came in the second and fourth periods.

STENZEL HAPPY MAN

Carolina Coach Bob Stenzel had nothing but praise for his team after yesterday's game in spite of the unexpected shower his victorious players had given him. He said that he was proud of his team and especially Barks, Killinger, Grausman, Rand and defensive players, Dave Corky, Bob Borden, and Bill Klein, although stressing that it was team work that won the game.

Barry of State, and Sam Insoe of State. Scurlock and Luelsing of Carolina figure to challenge the front runners as do Taylor and Blankenship of State.

and Mike Shea, two runners from brother in-law rate with the best. They will tangle for the title this season come Monday. Shea, undefeated at State College, handed the Tar Heels, the 1954 college cross-country at the beginning of the season as State whipped the Tar Heels 24-32 count.

The occasion Monday is the Big Five meet which features runners from all of the Big Five schools and Davidson. The Tar Heels run over the State course in Raleigh with the meet set for 4:00. Both the Tar Heels varsity squad will scrap promises to be a close race between State and the team title as well as the individual crown. Coach's harriers from the Tar Heels seeking revenge for their season loss to the Pack, which they suffered last year. The other runner at the hands of the Tar Heels, who also handed the Tar Heels their only reversal of the performance of the entire season. Coach Beatty on Monday has broken a record that he has run in since 1947, and all the other runners marked improvement in their early season form. Bob Barden and Glen Griffin in peak condition, and Coach Beatty to give Beatty some backing, while sophomore Whatley has put in a fine performance under the beginning of the season. Griffin, Russ Glatz, and Harwood are other runners counted upon by Coach Beatty.

Carolina freshman harriers are attempting to end their season with an unblemished slate. Their chief competitors come from the West Coast. The Tar Babies

APPLICATIONS are now being accepted for 1956 graduate student summer employment program for...

Experimental Physicists
Nuclear Physicists
Theoretical Physicists
Mathematicians
Metallurgical Engineers

Analytical Chemists
Inorganic Chemists
Physical Chemists
Mechanical Engineers
Electrical Engineers (Electronics)

Summer employment opportunities at the Laboratory are open to approximately 100 graduate students majoring in various physical sciences, and undergraduates receiving their degrees next June who intend to continue their advanced studies.

The program provides for well-paid summer work with renowned scientists in one of the nation's most important and finest equipped research laboratories.

Summer employees will become familiar with several phases of vital scientific research and development activity related as closely as possible to the individual's field of interest. This experience will enable students to appraise the advantages of a possible career at the Laboratory.

In addition to interesting work, employees will enjoy delightful daytime temperatures and blanket-cool nights in a timbered, mountainous area, only 35 miles from historic old Santa Fe.

Interested students should make immediate inquiry. Completed applications must be received by the Laboratory not later than February 1, 1956, in order to allow time for necessary security clearance. Applicants must be U.S. citizens.

TIME OUT FOR LUCKY DROODLES!

WHAT'S THIS?

For solution, see paragraph below.

EVERY ONE OF THE PEOPLE in the Doodle above (titled: Lucky smokers playing poker) has a good deal. Because they all smoke Luckies, they all enjoy better taste. Luckies taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So light up a Lucky yourself. You'll rate it aces high for smoking enjoyment.
