

in Turns Tables For Coach George Barclay

BERT GOLDSMITH
George Barclay found himself in the opposite role. The inevitable first question Barclay received was: "What did you think of Virginia fullback Jim Bahktiar?"

"He's got lots of power and can run," was Barclay's answer. "He's a great ball player."

Virginia's Bahktiar, a sophomore from Abadan, Iran put life into what had in the first half been a lifeless Virginia attack. The Iranian prince in the second half almost broke Carolina's defense in two as he drove his way for 163 yards rushing and 2 touchdowns. Barclay went on commenting on the various plays of the game. Why do more college men and women smoke VICEROYS than any other filter cigarette?

Because only Viceroy gives you 20,000 filter traps in every filter tip, made from a pure natural substance found in delicious fruits and other edibles!

Yes, only Viceroy has this filter composed of 20,000 tiny filter traps. You cannot obtain the same filtering action in any other cigarette.

The Viceroy filter wasn't just whipped up and rushed to market to meet the new and skyrocketing demand for filtered cigarettes. Viceroy pioneered. Started research more than 20 years ago to create the pure and perfect filter.

Smokers en masse report that filtered Viceroy's have a finer flavor even than cigarettes without filters. Rich, satisfying, yet pleasantly mild.

Viceroy draws so easily that you wouldn't know, without looking, that it even had a filter tip... and Viceroy's cost only a penny or two more than cigarettes without filters!

Why more college men and women smoke VICEROYS than any other filter cigarette... that's why VICEROY is the largest filter cigarette in the world!

was especially proud of his starting quarterback Buddy Sasser who engineered the UNC attack and passed for 1 touchdown which was considered a feat itself as the UNC receivers were heavily guarded by Virginia men. "Sasser's smart," commented the UNC coach, "but it's too bad he isn't a few inches taller so he could see over the heads of those boys."

Virginia Praised
When asked his opinion of the Virginia team, Barclay and the interviewing reporters ran into some difference of opinion. "They're a good football team," was Barclay's answer to the question.

"How can you say that about a team with a 1-8 record?" asked one reporter.

"We've got a 3-6 record," Barclay replied, "and I think we've got a good bunch of boys." This satisfied the writers.

Over on the Virginia side of the field house there was some question as to how Bahktiar hadn't carried the ball more often in the first half. Virginia coach Ned Mc-

Harriers After ACC Title

By RAY LINKER
Five of North Carolina's cross country runners will be wearing the UNC blue and white for the last time when they toe the line for the Atlantic Coast Conference Championship meet in Raleigh tomorrow.

Co-captains Bobby Barden and Glenn Nanney as well as lettermen Ed Joyner and Boyd Newnam and veteran Russell Glatz, all seniors, will close out eventful careers as they try to bring the ACC championship back to Carolina.

This season Barden and Nanney have consistently been second and third across the finish for UNC behind Tar Heel junior ace Jimmy Beatty while Glatz, returning to the University after a hitch in the service, has run in the No. 5 spot for the Tar Heels most of the season. Joyner and Newnam have provided the UNC club with needed strength down the line, enabling the team to go into tomorrow's meet with a 6-2 dual meet record and the state championship under its belt.

Barden was the No. 1 man on the varsity team when he was a freshman (UNC was then a member of the old Southern Conference, which permitted freshmen to participate on varsity teams). Barden held the UNC course record of 20:03, before Beatty came along to lower the mark and replace Barden as the top UNC runner.

Only one other person besides Beatty—Burr Grim of Maryland—has ever run the Carolina course faster than Barden's old record, which is only one reason why Carolina cross country mentor Dale Ranson considers Barden to be one of the all-time greats in UNC cross country history.

University of North Carolina freshmen will play Duke freshmen at Ken Palsy benefit game and admission to Stadium. This is a Cerebral will be $1.

Students, student wives, and faculty members having athletic passbooks will be admitted at Gate 2 or 6 upon presentation of their passbooks. Contributions, however, to the Cerebral Palsy fund will be accepted from anyone.

Virginians Stage Third Period Rally, But Carolina Halts Hope

ond stanza. With 2:30 left in the half, Will Frye punted deep into Virginia territory. Tinsley fumbled the ball for the Cavaliers and Sasser recovered his second fumble of the day on the Virginia 24.

REED PASSES
Sasser ran one play, and did not gain. Dave Reed, another sophomore quarterback, replaced Sasser at that point. Reed rolled out to the right on his first play and tossed a perfect pitch into the waiting arms of Buddy Payne, who pulled the ball in at the five yard line and stepped over the goal unharmed. Keller booted his second extra point and the Tar Heels led 20-0 at halftime.

The Tar Heels outgained Virginia 130 to 86 on the ground during the first half and had 12 first downs to Virginia's 3.

SECOND HALF
After the intermission the Tar Heels evidently relaxed just a little and the Virginians came back into the game.

Bill Koman kicked off to the Virginia one yard line and Nick Lawyer brought it out only to the five. From there Jim Bahktiar smashed the Carolina line time and again. With Bahktiar carrying the ball six times and gaining 73 yards, the Virginians marched 95 yards for the score. Bahktiar put a resounding climax to the drive with a 38-yard burst up the middle of the line. Bahktiar booted the extra point and Virginia trailed 20-7.

The statistics:

	Va.	UNC
First Downs	15	18
Rushing Yard.	324	170
Passing Yard.	19	75

Pass. Comp.	2	5
Pass. Int.	1	0
Punts	2	2
Punt. Avg.	44	39

Following the kickoff Keller fumbled and John Polzer, ACC guard for Virginia, recovered on the 39. From there the Cavaliers moved the ball to the 27. Bahktiar then banged for 11, 4 and 12 yards over tackle and through the center for the second score. The native of Iran then kicked his second PAT and the Cavaliers trailed only 20-14.

TAR HEELS COME BACK
Coach Barclay's explosive gang rolled back into high gear from there and marched for the clincher. Keller, Sutton, and Don Lear alternated in moving the ball to the Virginia 47. With third down and eight, Sasser pitched an 18 yard pass to Frye for a first down at the 27. A fifteen penalty gave the Tar Heels a first down at the 18 seconds later. Keller drove over tackle to the 16. On second down Sasser faded back and fired toward the goal line. Robinson, who scored against Notre Dame last week on a Sasser pass, raced over and snagged the pigskin right at the fingertips for the score. Carolina led 26-14 and held that lead throughout.

Bahktiar gained 39 yards on a sustained Virginia march in the fourth period, but the Tar Heels always held when the going was roughest.

SUTTON LEADS RUSHING
Sutton the Morehead scholar from Cullowhee, led the Tar Heel rushing with 75 yards in 13 carries. Keller had 52 yards in the same number of carries. Don Lear had 47 yards for six carries. Bahktiar was the individual leader for the game. The Virginia soph carried 20 times, 18 in the last half, for 163 yards.

Lear, Frye, Koman, and Billich were the most outstanding leaders on defense for Carolina. Jack Maulsby, George Stavitski, Bud-
