

SMITH PARTY

Smith Dormitory held a hayride and dance recently. Approximately 23 coeds and their dates rode to Victory Village Day Nursery. Refreshments and dancing rounded out the evening. Miss Carol Jones is social chairman for the dormitory, and she was assisted by Misses Annette Niven and Jilda Goldstein. Miss Jones said the dormitory plans a Christmas party for faculty members next month.

CHORUS LINE

The Graham Memorial Dance Committee was in error in giving tryout times for the "Toast of the Campus" show yesterday. Tryouts for the girls' chorus line will be held Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1, not Dec. 29, 30 and Jan. 1. The show will be presented in Memorial Hall Jan. 13.

INTERDORMITORY NEWS:

Socials Liven Dormitory Lives

By LEWIS BRUMFIELD

Last Friday night Lewis and Everett Dormitories entertained the Nurses' Dorm in Cobb Basement. The Joymakers provided music for over 500 people. Sonny Hallford, EDC social chairman, termed the party a "great success."

Ruffin had a party at the American Legion Hut that night, too. The receptions following the Notre Dame and Virginia games went over very well. We hope we have started a tradition which will continue next year.

Alexander Dorm is scheduled to have a dance in Cobb Dec. 2. The dormitory has organized its own dance band.

For the next two weeks now the council is trying to cut down on the losses which result due to a shortage in the telephone coin boxes. If these losses are not stopped, then the council will consider making the losses up out of dormitory social fees.

We were not aware that the losses were so great, but the figures show the University lost $220 over a six-weeks' period. This is a 22 per cent loss. It is rather absurd for us to ask for more phones when the boys so abuse the privileges which they now have. I understand that some dorms at State College don't have any phones at all.

It is a terrible thing when all the dormitory residents have to be inconvenienced by the few who fail to think about anyone but themselves.

At the next meeting of the council, the members will vote on whether or not they feel door-to-door delivery of The Daily Tar Heel is really desired by the dorm residents.

The mens' dormitories are the only place on campus where the newspaper is delivered door-to-door. See your council representatives and give them your opinion on this matter.

COBB BASEMENT There has been a misunderstanding involving the use of the Cobb basement. When another dorm is using the social room the Cobb residents can still use the TV room in any case and the game room, provided another dorm is not serving in the game room.

Of course, the Cobb residents must be suitably dressed. This does not necessarily entail coats and ties. The Dance Committee is responsible for the social room only.

We got a strictly off-the-record, unofficial leak in the news that the money allotted for new mens' dormitories may be used to build four dormitories, and that these would be on the Old East plan.

The Buildings Dept. has placed pencil sharpeners in several of the dorms.

Here are the top 10 dormitories as rated by the point system:

- 1. Everett, 70 points; 2. Cobb, 60 points; 3. Graham, 55 points; 4. Old East, 50 points; 5. Ruffin, 50 points; 6. Alexander, 45 points; 7. Lewis, 40 points; 8. Manzum, 35 points; 9. Grimes, 30 points; 10. Steele, 25 points.
