

The Daily Tar Heel

CAPACITY

Chapel Hill News Leader's comments on the future. See page 2.

Complete (A) Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1955

Offices in Graham Memorial

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

ACTIVITIES FUND AUDITOR:

Student Government Is In Dangerous Financial Shape

NEIL BASS

Government is somewhat dangerous, according to Activities Auditor

There is one other resort to which student government may turn if it runs into a situation in which more funds are necessary. This is the general fund.

When this year's budget was approved by the 20th student audit office must have $1,500 for its operation. This means student government will have only $820.51 in the unappropriated balance for operation during the rest of this academic year.

There is one other resort to which student government may turn if it runs into a situation in which more funds are necessary. This is the general fund.

When this year's budget was approved by the 20th student legislature, student government's income, which comes from an $18 per student fee—was estimated at $107,776. Of this figure, the real income, figuring a collection of 95 percent of the total estimation, was $103,386.20.

From the unused appropriations made to student government organizations in past years, student government should have some $6,000 in the general fund at the end of the academic year

1955-56, according to Kear.

With this year's increased enrollment, Kear said he estimated that not just the real income would be realized by student government, but the full $107,776. This will mean that the extra $4,000 not included in this year's budget, which only included the $103,386 real income figure, plus the estimated $6,000 in the general fund from past years, will make a total of $109,000 was "absolutely necessary for safe operation."

Student government, in case of dire need, may, however, dip into the general fund, Kear pointed out. But he said such action would not be deemed advisable.

Hostesses For Everett-Lewis Party

Shown above are the hostesses for the party held recently by Everett and Lewis Dormitories. They are, left to right, Misses Sylvia Tarentino, Doty Wood, Carolyn Thompson, Wilhelmina Marsh and Sylvia McArthur. The hostesses were the entries of the two dorms in the "All New Dorm Beauty Contest." Not shown are Misses Jane Little and Reba Ann Whitty. The dormitories gave the party for the Nurses' Dorm. It was held in the basement of Cobb, and Mrs. Johnson, house mother for the Nurses' Dorm, Mrs. James Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Benyunes chaperoned the affair. The Joymakers provided the music.

Editorials On 'New South' Being Printed

A series of eight editorials on "The Changing South, 1955" written by UNC journalism prof. Walter Spearman for The New Orleans Item, has been reprinted by The Item, and sent to editors of the leading daily newspapers throughout the South for reprint or comment.

Part of the series was written by Spearman while he was serving as a visiting editorial writer on The Item during the summer. The series was completed this fall and appeared in The Item during October.

The eight editorials consider various aspects of "The Changing South," beginning with the population trend away from rural areas toward the cities, the coming of industry to Southern states and the rapid mechanization of Southern farms.

In addition to teaching journalism here, Spearman writes a weekly book review column for five North Carolina daily newspapers and is serving as secretary of the North Carolina Editorial Writers' Conference.

Mardi Gras Plans Are Underway

Immediate action on obtaining a big name band for the Mardi Gras weekend in March was stressed at a meeting of the GMA Dance Committee this week.

The committee made up a tentative plan for collection of funds to hire the band. The funds will be collected from dormitories, sororities and fraternities.

The tentative plan outlines the amount to be collected from each organization and the method of collection. The band will play for the dance and the concert.

Bobbie Zwahlen, GMA Dance Committee co-chairman who is in charge of the Mardi Gras weekend, was unable to attend the meeting. She has been recovering from an appendectomy.

The committee has planned a parade, concert, carnival and costume ball with Mardi Gras as the theme. The weekend activities will be open to the entire student body. A king and queen of the Mardi Gras will ride in the parade. Prizes will be given for the best floats.

The carnival will feature non-profit booths, concessions and carnival games. Prizes will be given for the best costumes at the costume ball.

$665

Bill Self, chairman of the Campus Chest Drive, said yesterday the total amount collected for the drive is $665.

The majority of this sum was collected during the past two days. The drive was extended from last Friday until today in order to reach the goal of $1,000. Self urged solicitors to collect their money and turn it in by tomorrow.

Sorority, Fraternity Help Orphans

Santa Claus, center, assisted by President Martha Ray of Kappa Delta Sorority and Ivy Rogers of Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity, deliver presents to children at Oxford Orphanage. The fraternity and sorority gave the party at Oxford. (Photo by Tom Johnson, Oxford.)

BY STUDENT COUNCIL:

Fowler's Delay In Vetoing Is Ruled Unconstitutional

The Student Council yesterday ruled as unconstitutional the 12-day delay by student body President Don Fowler in vetoing two bills passed by the student legislature.

With this ruling the two bills under question automatically become laws.

The two bills under question were:

(1) A bill to set a bipartisan selection board to endorse candidates for the editorship of The Daily Tar Heel;

(2) a bill creating a constitutional revisional commission to suggest amendments to the present student Constitution.

The council began hearings on the question of validity of the presidential veto on Wednesday. During the hearings Jim Holmes, student legislator, challenged the validity of the vetoes by citing the constitutional provision that any presidential veto must be made within 10 days of the bill's passage in the Legislature.

Atty-General David Reid, in presenting the argument of "executive branch of student government," said Jack Stevens, speaker of the Legislature, failed to put the bills on President Fowler's desk during the specified 10 day period.

He said the action is "the responsibility of the Legislature, acting through its officers (in this case the speaker, Jack Stevens)."

Student's Leg Broken In Motorcycle Crash

William E. Shawcross, junior from Norfolk, Va., sustained a broken leg and other injuries when his motorcycle ran into the front of the Building Dept. building Tuesday morning.

He was reported discharged yesterday afternoon.

'Dazzle,' In New York, Means Party Dressing

By PEG HUMPHREY

In New York they call it dazzle.

This adjective, which is being banded around fashion quarters of the city, refers to a new level of party dressing. Everything is dazzling these days—hair, fabrics, jewels and even shoes.

Brilliance is displayed by larger-than-ever pins. There is a definite trend toward the dramatic. Gold leads in daytime jewelry. Rhinestones make their appearance at night. Many imaginative pins boast colored stones, with amber popularly seen. Earrings are large and appear mostly in the button clip on style.

"Bracelets are coming in by the jingling, shining armload," states the Jewelry Industry Council in New York—more bracelets and more of them dangle and bangle on bared holiday arms.

The council also says "convertible" pieces are gaining in popularity. Clips become necklace pendants, necklaces separate and form two bracelets and earrings transform themselves into pins.

SATIN BELTS

Satin belts add dazzle to waistlines and are often sparked by a sunburst pin. Full skirts may be clinched with satin scarves, tied at the side front and highlighted by a pin.

Since the Oriental look has invaded the fashion industry, many jeweled and ornamented or brocade sheaths are in evidence. These boast the unknipped waistline, of course, the covered up neckline, and usually have side slits at the hemline to facilitate walking.

Mandarine makeup, according to New York fashion editors, is the latest and is so named to coordinate with the Oriental influence in clothes. This new face will wear brows with an upward slant and lashes mascaraed to look deeper and slanted.

Subtly curved lips will be drawn narrower, and pale foundation and powder, devoid of any pink tinges, will provide a look of porcelain. Hair, often dyed black, will gleam unpainted and displaying widow's peaks.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY RIFLE TROPHY:

NROTC Rifle Team Takes Trophy Twice

The UNC Naval ROTC Rifle Team was presented the Secretary of the Navy Rifle Trophy by Chancellor Robert House at a ceremony held yesterday.

The trophy is presented annually to the Naval ROTC rifle team of the 52 universities participating in the Naval ROTC program attaining the best score in scheduled competition.

In 1953 the UNC group won the trophy for the first time. In 1954 UNC marksmen took second place, with the group from Oregon State taking the top spot.

Those members of the UNC team receiving individual Secretary of the Navy Rifle Trophy medals were Midshipman 2c G. B. Hall Jr., Sy-

UNC Lake Planned Near Here

Construction of a large lake for University employees' recreation and student instructional purposes is proceeding at the site near Calvander, four miles north of town west of N. C. Highway 86.

The lake which will be about a half-mile long, is already filled to a depth of about 10 feet. It is expected to be roughly 11 acres in area by the time it is ready for use next spring.

University Athletics Director Chuck Erickson said the project is being carried out on a tract leased by the University, primarily to provide a recreational area for Athletic Assn. and other University employees, and also to aid in instruction of students for courses in outdoor sports—fishing, boating and camp leadership.

Athletic Assn. workmen are doing the construction work in their spare time, he said. In addition to the lake a clubhouse, picnic and swimming area to be built.

Situated in a wooded area, the lake is being fed primarily from two springs. It will have an estimated maximum depth of 24 feet near the dam, which is of a thick earth construction with a wide spillway.

Morehead Deadline January 7

Three University seniors will be chosen by the University's nominating committee to compete as candidates for 1956-57 Morehead scholarships.

The scholarships, valued at $1,500 yearly, will be for study in the graduate or professional schools here. Candidates must have received or expect to receive their bachelors' degrees during the period from July 1, 1955, to Aug. 31, 1956. Only men are eligible for the scholarships, and there is no age limitation.

Applications must be filed before Jan. 7 with the University Scholarship Committee. The application forms are available at the Scholarship Offices, 1 Hanes Hall.

The three men nominated from UNC will be in competition with students from other North Carolina colleges. The final selection will be made by the Central Committee and Board of Trustees of the John Motley Morehead Foundation.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY RIFLE TROPHY:

NROTC Rifle Team Takes Trophy Twice

The UNC Naval ROTC Rifle Team was presented the Secretary of the Navy Rifle Trophy by Chancellor Robert House at a ceremony held yesterday.

The trophy is presented annually to the Naval ROTC rifle team of the 52 universities participating in the Naval ROTC program attaining the best score in scheduled competition.

In 1953 the UNC group won the trophy for the first time. In 1954 UNC marksmen took second place, with the group from Oregon State taking the top spot.

Those members of the UNC team receiving individual Secretary of the Navy Rifle Trophy medals were Midshipman 2c G. B. Hall Jr., Syracuse, N. Y.; Midshipman 1c L. A. Brandt, Charleston, S. C.; Midshipman 2c D. E. Kentopp, East Orange, N. J., and Midshipman 3c D. C. Kerby, Charleston, S. C.

In addition, Midshipman 3c J. R. Alexander of Lake Wales, Fla., who transferred from Purdue University last September, received the Secretary of Navy Pistol Trophy medal for his participation in the winning of the Secretary of the Navy Pistol Trophy by Purdue.

Students in the infirmary yesterday included:

Mrs. Elizabeth C. Moore, Miss Mary E. Leatherman, Miss Nancy S. Haines, Miss Carolyn E. Greene, Miss Carol T. Covington, Miss Edith D. Farnum, Frederick A. Burney, Lewis R. Cody, William E. Shawcross, Carl L. Fuller, Frederick S. Schnell, Louis C. Johnson, David W. McCreight, John B. Mason, James A. Hayworth, Clyde B. Alexander, Lawrence C. Walker, John D. Bradsher Jr., Roger W. Dalehite, Guy C. Williams, Robert S. Baggett, Richard D. Williams III, William S. Best, Robert C. Hanes and William C. King.

Day Here Feb. 11

The third Consolidated Day were discussed at University Student meeting in Greens-will be held here on according to Luther CUSC chairman, ten-include a dance and which would be with Graham Memorial man and sophomore of deconsolidation, Carolina group had pre-duced to bring up at the as postponed until a The Daily Tar Heel had reported previously had agreed to op-

one-third of the organ-

the systems

ge and UNC.

posium

resses

oyment

Symposium financial yesterday expressed ap-

to President Don Fowstudent Legislature for the recent $1,000 alloca-

one-third of the organ-

budget.

so thanked student or-which have so far con-about $850 to the new

two figures combined

about half of the Symposium, which will major speakers to the March, and several akers who will not give resses but will lead dis-is aimed at benefiting us community as a

Webb said.

ent is to make the cam-

unity aware of pressing on three levels," Webb listed these as Regional, and international affairs.

wide spread interest has on, and no campus or-which has been ap-

has refused us," Webb

GM'S SLATE

ies scheduled for Gra-

memorial today include:

Quail Room, 8 p.m.;

Quail Room, 8 p.m.;

Quail Room, 8 p.m.;

Quail Room, 8 p.m.;

Quail Room, 8 p.m.;

Quail Room, 8 p.m.;