

Carolina-Wake Forest Cage Game Heads Big Sports Day

Deacons Are Upset-Crazy Club

WAYNE BISHOP
 Happy Wake Forest fans have already pulled their eyes set on higher as North Carolina's Tar Heels invade the gymnasium for their traditional game.

Reached into their nets Wednesday night at Duke by an 84-71 Deacon home court. They have the familiar of their own floor with they set their sights on beaten Tar Heels.

Probably has different ever, as Coach Frank club aims for its fourth Atlantic Coast Conference. The Tar Heels ACC's leading scorer, Rosenbluth, and a well-scoring punch as weapons against the Jerry Vayda and Bob Cunningham, who stretch 6-4 each.

Wake Forest probably will employ a zone defense against Carolina in an attempt to shift the Tar Heel height away from the goal. Although Coach McGuire has not said so, he will probably use a box zone against Wake Forest with one man specially designed to guard Davis man-for-man.

WIDE OPEN GAME
 The game probably will run up into high scores as both teams are more noted for their offense than defense. The Tar Heels will have another chance against a crackerjack foul shooting team. As a team the Deacs are hitting 71 per cent of their foul shots, quite a bit more than the Tar Heels. State was sharp on their foul shots in the finals of the Dixie Classic and that had much to do with the way the final score went.

Wake Forest carries a 7-5 overall record and a 2-2 conference mark into this loop game. Carolina is 8-1 (excluding the practice game with McCrary) overall, and 3-0 in the conference.

Carolina will probably start Rosenbluth and Brennan at forwards, Joe Quigg at center, Vayda and Cunningham or Tommy Kearns at guards.

Wake Forest will have Williams and Davis at forwards, Gilley at center, Murdock and Wiggins at guards.

ALL TALLER
 man the Tar Heels will night advantage on Murson's club. Jim Gilley, and from Winston-Salem, really big boy in the line-up Jack Williams at Lefty Davis at 6-2, the wards, do not compare Carolina's 6-5 Lennie Rosen-6-7 Pete Brennan as far goes. 5-10 Jackie Mur-6-0 Ernie Wiggins are an the Tar Heel guards,

Two Of ACC's Best—Lennie Vs. Lefty In Individual Sidelight

WAKE FOREST, N. C. Jan. 7—Two of the top four scorers in the Atlantic Coast Conference basketball race will come face to face in Gore Gymnasium Saturday night when Capt. Lowell (Lefty) Davis leads his Wake Forest Deacons against Lennie Rosenbluth and the North Carolina Tar Heels.

According to the latest ACC individual scoring averages, Rosenbluth is the No. 1 point-getter with a 23.5 average for eight games while Davis ranks fourth with a 20.6 mark for 12 games. Since release of the averages both Davis and Rosenbluth have played one game each with the former netting 26 points against Duke and the latter 18 against Louisiana State.

Rosenbluth took individual scoring honors in the Dixie Classic with 73 points while Davis finished in a tie for runner-up honors with 68 markers.

No. 2 man in the Wake Forest scoring is guard Jackie Murock with a 16.5 average. Although he hit on only 44 field goal attempts, the Deacon guard has capped 110 of 128 free throw attempts for a total of 198 points.

Pete Brennan, sophomore forward, is the runner-up in the Tar Heel scoring chase with a 13.5 average.

Tony Radovich, Valuable Reserve
 Tony Radovich, sharp-shooting guard, has proved a valuable reserve for Carolina's high-scoring club. Radovich, a senior letterman who was a starter on last season's quintet, has been looking increasingly better with each game.

Intramurals: Many Unbeaten Teams In Basketball Play

The intramural basketball program is now under full swing in all divisions. There will be three more days of competition before the program momentarily ceases on January 12th. It will continue with the Spring Semester.

The results of the Thursday games are as follows: 4:00 p.m. Zeta-3 beat Phi Gam-2; SAE-1 beat Pi Kap Phi-1; EeP-1 beat Phi Kap Sig-3; Everett-2 beat Stacy-2; Graham beat Mangum; ZBT beat Sig Chi-3.

At present, 12 teams in the dorm and fraternity division remain undefeated. Prominent among these undefeated squads are: SAE, TMA, TEP and Zeta. TMA once again has a strong squad which threatens to repeat as intramural champion. TMA won the championship last year by defeating the DKE's in an all-campus playoff. SAE threatens also with a promising team which defeated Pi Kap Phi-1 by the score of 66-8.

Tommy Kearns, Ten Points Plus
 Tommy Kearns, sophomore guard, is another one of the Tar Heel high scorers averaging in the double figures. Kearns, who hit for over 20 points per game as a frosh last season, has been an alternate starter with Bob Cunningham at guard for the Tar Heels. He is averaging 10.2 points per game.

Blue Devils-Wolfpack Clash Head-On Tonight

DURHAM, N. C. Jan. 7—The real, honest-to-goodness, big one comes up for Duke's Blue Devils in Duke Indoor Stadium tonight.

They will get their chance to beat the team they have always liked to defeat and have, in the past, been fairly successful in so doing.

Duke and N. C. State come together in the big Blue Devil field house at 8:15 o'clock and while a near-capacity crowd is expected there will be tickets available at the athletic office.

As has been said, Duke has been State's toughest rival for years now but no victory could be sweeter than a win tonight would be for the men of Harold Bradley.

State is No. 2 in the nation. State is riding a 23-game winning streak over the past two years. State has four in a row over the Blue Devils since Duke's 90-89 win at Raleigh in 1954.

The Blue Devils have everything to gain in the contest. A win would move them up from their very fine 11th spot in the national ratings. A win would make them the most feared team in the ACC. A win would atone for that Dixie Classic loss to North Carolina.

It is a big game and a big task. State showed in the finals of the Classic against North Carolina that it is one of the finest teams ever to perform in this section. That performance is being tabbed as one of the greatest ever put on by a team anywhere.

But Duke has the guns. In Joe Belmont, playing the best ball of his Duke career, and Ronnie Mayer, the Blue Devils have what is probably the best 1-2 punch in basketball today.

The varsity game comes on after the frosh of the two schools play at 6:30.

Gymnastics Team Opens Play Today

Coach Bill Meade takes his North Carolina gymnastics team to Annapolis Saturday to oppose Navy in the Tar Heels' opening meet of the season.

Two Southern Intercollegiate champions will be missing from the Carolina line-up which won five of seven meets last year. Rope climber Bill Rivera and sidehorse performer Gordon Hudson both graduated last June.

Despite the loss of Hudson and Rivera, Coach Meade expects to better last season's record with the aid of veteran Biff Howard and newcomers Bill Waddill, Al Dodoe and Dan Hilliard.

Last year Navy defeated the Tar Heels, 59½ to 36½.

Tar Heel Swimmers—After Fourth Win

By BOB COLBERT
 The Tar Heel swimmers will be out to register their fourth victory of the season today when they swim Virginia at 4 p.m. in Bowman Gray indoor pool.

Coach Ralph Casey, is shifting his lineup around for today's meet in order to find the right combination to beat arch-rival N. C. State in their meet here on January 17th.

His medley relay will probably consist of Bill Zickgraf, Lee Holmes and Dick Baker. Pete Higgins and Walt Rose will draw the distance assignments. Baker, Bill Roth and Kelly Maness will be the sprinters. Dave McInnis, still nursing an injured knee, Ned Meekins and Tom Parker will share the low board diving chores. Junior sensation Charlie Kroep will be swimming the individual medley, as will John Beaman. Krepp will be out to better his national college and American records set against Duke before the Christmas Holidays.

The meet will start at 4 p.m. Admission is free and everyone is invited to attend.

CAPTAIN KID STUFF

(OR... JOHN'S MISTAKE)

John was growing up. (He shaved. He drove a car. He wanted to impress girls.)
 But John was impatient. He wanted to be more grown-up. He wanted a grown-up reputation.
 In short, he wanted to make a name for himself.
 That's natural. Most young men his age feel the same way.
 But John made a mistake. He expressed his impatience and his ambition behind the wheel of a car.

He became another "highway cowboy."
 He purposely drove fast... didn't use chains on snow or ice... skidded... took chances... raced on crowded streets.
 He thought this would make him seem more grown-up. But the gang could see through his antics. They gave him a name all right—"Captain Kid Stuff."
 They were smart enough to know that Careless Driving is Kid Stuff.

THE SIX RULES OF WINTER DRIVING

- 1. ACCEPT YOUR RESPONSIBILITY. Do all in your power to drive without accident. Don't blame the weatherman for an accident.
- 2. GET THE "FEEL" OF THE ROAD. Try brakes occasionally while driving slowly and away from traffic. Find out just how slippery the road is and adjust your speed to road and weather conditions.
- 3. KEEP THE WINDSHIELD CLEAR. Use wipers frequently. Be sure headlights and defrosters are in top condition and windshield wipers don't streak.
- 4. USE TIRE CHAINS AND GOOD TIRES. Don't rely on worn smooth tires. Use tire chains on snow and ice. They cut stopping distances about half, give 4 to 7 times more starting and climbing traction ability. But even with the help of chains, slower than normal speeds are a "must" on snow and ice.
- 5. PUMP YOUR BRAKES. To slow down or stop, jamming them on can lock the wheels and throw you into a dangerous skid. A little skidding can carry you a long way.
- 6. FOLLOW AT A SAFE DISTANCE. Keep well back of the vehicle ahead—give yourself room to stop. Remember, without tire chains, it takes 3 to 12 times as far to stop on snow and ice as on dry concrete.
